Race and Ethnicity in the United States William Velez,1998 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Tierra y Libertad Steven W. Bender,2010-09-29 One of the quintessential goals of the American Dream is to own land and a home a place to raise one s family and prove one s prosperity Particularly for immigrant families home ownership is a way to assimilate into American culture and community However Latinos who make up the country s largest minority population have largely been unable to gain this level of inclusion Instead they are forced to cling to the fringes of property rights and ownership through overcrowded rentals transitory living arrangements and at best home acquisitions through subprime lenders In Tierra y Libertad Steven W Bender traces the history of Latinos struggle for adequate housing opportunities from the nineteenth century to today s anti immigrant policies and national mortgage crisis Spanning southwest to northeast rural to urban Bender analyzes the legal hurdles that prevent better housing opportunities and offers ways to approach sweeping legal reform Tierra y Libertad combines historical cultural legal and personal perspectives to document the Latino community s ongoing struggle to make America home Race Rules Baodong Liu,James M. Vanderleeuw,2007-01-01 Race Rules examines electoral politics over forty years up to the present day Liu and Vanderleeuw show that an understanding of New Orleans politics must start with the city s racial composition and must be viewed in terms of racial conflict and accommodation reflected in the electoral arena during the last four decades

College Completion for Latino/a Students: Institutional and System Approaches Melissa L. Freeman,Magdalena Martinez,2015-12-04 Latino as are the fastest growing demographic in the United States Despite recent gains in postsecondary enrollment the Latino a population is severely underrepresented when it comes to baccalaureate attainment Hispanic serving institutions HSIs will play a critical role in turning the tide but there is little existing research about these institutions This volume synthesizes Existing research on HSIs emerging HSIs as well as research about Latino a students themselves A wide range of best practices across institutional types and Examples of service to undocumented students in states where they do and do not qualify for in state tuition benefits Topics include Latino a undergraduate student success graduate student success community colleges four year institutions financial aid and undocumented students This is the 172nd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education Addressed to presidents vice presidents deans and other higher education decision makers on all kinds of campuses it provides timely information and authoritative advice about major issues and administrative problems confronting every institution Asian American Women and Gender Franklin Ng,1998 Women have shaped immigrant families reared new generations and pioneered significant changes in their communities These essays illuminate the complex and changing roles of Asian American women examing such diverse subjects as war brides international marriages split households stereotyping women centered kin networks employment immigrant prostitution conflict with patriarchal attitudes feminism and lesbianism At the Core and in the Margins Julia Albarracín, 2016-05-01 Beardstown and Monmouth Illinois two rural Midwestern towns have been transformed by immigration in the last three decades This book examines how Mexican immigrants who have made these towns their homes have integrated legally culturally and institutionally What accounts for the massive growth in the Mexican immigrant populations in these two small towns and what does the future hold for them Based on 260 surveys and 47 in depth interviews this study combines quantitative and qualitative research to explore the level and characteristics of immigrant incorporation in Beardstown and Monmouth It assesses the advancement of immigrants in the immigration residency citizenship process the immigrants level of cultural integration via language their connectedness with other members of society and their relationships with neighbors the degree and characteristics of discrimination against immigrants in these two towns and the extent to which immigrants participate in different social and political activities and trust government institutions Immigrants in new destinations are likely to be poorer to be less educated and to have weaker English language skills than immigrants in traditional destinations Studying how this population negotiates the obstacles to and opportunities for incorporation is crucial Multiracial Identity and Racial Politics in the United States Natalie Masuoka, 2017 Policy makers academic administrators scholars and members of the public are clamoring for indicators of the value and reach of research The question of how to quantify the impact and importance of research and scholarly output from the publication of books and journal articles to the indexing of citations and tweets is a critical one in predicting innovation and in deciding what sorts of research is supported and whom is hired to carry it out There is a wide set of data and tools available for measuring research but they are often used in crude ways and each have their own limitations and internal logics Measuring Research What Everyone Needs to Know R will provide for the first time an accessible account of the methods used to gather and analyze data on research output and impact Following a brief history of scholarly communication and its measurement from traditional peer review to crowdsourced review on the social web the book will look at the classification of knowledge and academic disciplines the differences between citations and references the role of peer review national research evaluation exercises the tools used to measure research the many different types of measurement indicators and how to measure interdisciplinarity The book also addresses emerging issues within scholarly communication including whether or not measurement promotes a publish or perish culture fraud in research or citation cartels It will also look at the stakeholders behind these analytical tools the adverse effects of these quantifications and the future of research measurement Korean American Evangelicals New Models for Civic Life Elaine Howard Ecklund, 2006-11-09 Studies of religion among our nation s newest immigrants largely focus on how religion serves the immigrant community for example by creating job networks and helping retain ethnic identity in the second generation In this book Ecklund widens the inquiry to look at how Korean Americans use religion to negotiate civic responsibility as well as to create racial and ethnic identity She compares the views and activities of second generation Korean Americans in two different congregational settings one ethnically Korean and the other multi ethnic She also conducted more than 100 in depth interviews with Korean American members of these and seven other churches around the country and draws extensively on the secondary literature on immigrant religion American civic life and Korean American religion Her book is a unique contribution to the literature on religion race and ethnicity and on immigration and civic life

The Politics of Race Jill Vickers, Annette Isaac, 2012-06-22 The Politics of Race is an excellent resource for students and general readers seeking to learn about race policies and legislation Arguing that states make race it provides a unique comparison of the development and construction of race in three white settler societies Canada the United States and Australia This timely new edition focuses on the politics of race after 9 11 and Barack Obama s election as president of the United States Jill Vickers and Annette Isaac explore how state sanctioned race discrimination has intensified in the wake of heightened security It also explains the new race formation of Islamophobia in all three countries and the shifts in how Hispanics and Asian Americans are being treated in the United States As race and politics become increasingly intertwined in both academic and popular discourse The Politics of Race aids readers in evaluating different approaches for promoting racial justice and transforming states

New Directions in American Politics Raymond J. La Raja, 2013 New Directions in American Politics introduces students not just to how the American political system works but also to how political science works La Raja brings together top scholars to write original essays across the standard curriculum of American government and politics capturing emerging research in the discipline in a way that is accessible for undergraduates Each chapter combines substantive knowledge with the kind of skill building and analytical inquiry that is being touted in higher education everywhere Contributors to New Directions highlight why the questions they seek to answer are critical for understanding American politics and situate them in the broader context of controversies in research The teaching of American politics follows a well worn path Textbooks for introductory courses hew to a traditional set of chapters that describe the Founding American institutions the ways citizens participate in politics and sometimes public policy The material rarely engages students in the kind of questions that animate scholarship on politics One hurdle for instructors is finding material that reflects quality scholarship and thus teaches students about why not just what and yet is accessible for undergraduates Articles in scholarly journals are typically unsuited for undergraduate courses particularly introductory courses What is needed is a book that conveys exciting trends in scholarship across vital topics in American politics and illustrates analytical thinking New Directions in American Politics is that book and will be an ideal companion to standard textbooks that focus mostly on nuts and bolts of politics The book features Contributions from a top notch cast of active scholars and a highly regarded editor A focus on analytical thinking that addresses questions of causality Full coverage of the American politics curriculum Short interviews with each contributor on a companion website to help the research come alive and prompt critical thinking questions for students Work that draws on the highest quality research in political science but is written specifically for first year undergraduate students

There is simply no book like this available to the growing number of faculty who want their introductory American politics course to be a reflection of the political science discipline and not just the nuts and bolt facts of the American political system

Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations John Ishiyama, William J.

Miller, Eszter Simon, 2015-02-27 With a focus on providing concrete teaching strategies for scholars the Handbook on Teaching and Learning in Political Science and International Relations blends both theory and practice in an accessible and clear manner In an effort to help faculty

Feminist Responses to Injustices of the State and Its Institutions Kym Atkinson, Una Barr, Helen Monk, Katie Tucker, 2024-05-21 From the denial of abortion rights in Ireland to sexual violence against British South Asian women in England the state and its institutions continue to fail women This book offers a counter narrative to contemporary injustices and a persistent culture of victim blaming The academic and activist contributions to this collection explore contemporary research areas and pursue new discursive directions in order to present a feminist criminology built on feminist praxis for the 21st century Providing a direct challenge to regressive and ineffective theory policy and practice this book resists the politics of gendered victimization through extending feminist analyses of the state and documenting interventions into contemporary injustices

The Latino/a American Dream Sandra L. Hanson, John Kenneth White, 2016-05-15 The American Dream means many things to many people but in general it can be said that it connects the idea of freedom to the opportunity for prosperity and upward social mobility Sandra L Hanson and John K White have joined together with a group of social scientists to explore the attitudes experiences and expectations of Latinos in their quest for the American Dream The Latino a American Dream asks many timely questions including how do Latino as view the American Dream Has the recent economic downturn affected their hopes of achieving the Dream What about recent immigrants What about Latina women The answers to these questions and more draw on sociology political science and history to paint a multifaceted portrait of Latino a opportunity in America both real and perceived

Father of All Louise Pubols, 2010-01-04 This deeply researched engagingly presented and immensely valuable book demolishes longstanding myths about Mexican California as a colorful custom bound world apart In place of this fantasy past Louise Pubols offers a history of the de la Guerras that reveals a family and a society caught up in yet not wholly overcome by the global economic and political developments of the first half of the nineteenth century Stephen Aron Professor of History at the University of California Los Angeles and Executive Director of the Institute for the Study of the American West at the Autry National Center The Father of All combines first rate historical analysis with in depth archival research Don Jos de la Guerra and his extended family are fascinating historical personages and their encounters with other Californio elites provide a compelling story but Pubols takes us to a higher level of understanding by demonstrating the crucial role of extended family ties in the economic and political history of California during the Mexican Period Pubols provides a convincing argument that family ties kept the prevalent political unrest from breaking out into more violent civil conflict Dr Jarrell C Jackman Executive Director footsteps of Vicente Navarro's edited collection The Political Economy of Social Inequalities is a compilation of recent contributions to the areas of social epidemiology, health disparities, health economics, and health services research. The overarching theme is to describe and explain the evergrowing health inequalities across social class, race, and gender, as well as neighborhood, city, region, country, and continent. The approach of this book is distinctly multi-trans and interdisciplinary; the fields of public health, population health, epidemiology, economics, sociology, political science, philosophy, medicine, and history are all represented here.

Nation-Building as Necessary Effort in Fragile States René Grotenhuis, 2025-10-01
Policies intended to bring stability to fragile states tend to focus almost exclusively on building institutions and systems to get governance right. Simply building the state is often seen as sufficient for making it stable and legitimate. But policies like these, René Grotenhuis shows in this book, ignore the question of what makes people belong to a nation-state, arguing that issues of identity, culture, and religion are crucial to creating the sense of belonging and social cohesion that a stable nation-state requires.

Handbook of Feminist Governance Marian Sawer, Lee A. Banaszak, Jacqui True, Johanna Kantola, 2023-02-14
Compiling state-of-the-art research from 58 leading international scholars, this dynamic Handbook explores the evolution of feminist analytical and organising principles and their introduction into governance institutions in national, regional, and global settings.
