Racing Research Researching Race Methodological Dilemmas In Critical Race Studies:

Racing Research, Researching Race France Winddance Twine, Jonathan Warren, 2000 This book is an examination of what it means to be conscious of race when one is doing research There are those who argue that just to acknowledge race is to perpetuate the biological myth of race But this book warns that is to confuse the biological with the social further arguing that the race of the researcher can be a significant factor in what information is revealed by interviewees and that this needs to be considered when planning a study or reviewing its results This book is the authors attempt to initiate a serious discussion of the potential ethical emotional analytical and methodological dilemmas generated by racial subjectivities racial ideologies and racial disparities in research c Book News Inc

Race-Ing Research, Researching Race France Winddance Twine, Jonathan W. Warren, 1999 Ethnic Studies Research Timothy P. Fong, 2008-05-02 Study of ethnic groups and race relations have always existed in the academy primarily in the areas of sociology and anthropology However grassroots movements for ethnic studies programs and departments came about with very different agendas for the study of these groups It is surprising then that relatively few books devoted to these methods exist to document and promote this innovation among succeeding generations of graduate students as well as current academics and professional practitioners Ethnic Studies Research synthesizes and benchmarks ethnic studies methodologies as interdisciplinary modes of inquiry providing state of the art summary chapters on key methods and issues extensive bibliographies and promising new directions for the future

The Politics of Alterity Sarah Mazouz, 2022-11-08 Is France afraid of her others By looking back at the discourses and practices that have been formed over the last fifteen years Sarah Mazouz addresses French politics of alterity Drawing on an ethnographic survey conducted in both public administrations in charge of combating racial discrimination and in naturalisation offices in a large city in the Paris region she shows how immigration nation and racialisation are articulated in the social space Through the analysis of these two public offices Mazouz questions the processes of inclusion and exclusion within the national group itself and between the national and the foreigner In so doing she seeks to grasp the paradoxical relationship between the French Republic and her others and the plural logics producing national order

Racial Revolutions Jonathan W. Warren, 2001-09-26 The first analysis of a new phenomenon in Brazil wherein a growing number of mestizos are asserting Indian identities and racial politics and understandings of race formation have radically shifted

Insider Research on Migration and Mobility Lejla Voloder, Liudmila Kirpitchenko, 2016-05-23 With an increasing proportion of migration and mobility field studies being conducted by migrants and members of ethnic minorities in home contexts the implications of insider research are increasingly subject critical scrutiny Researchers who may share migration experiences or cultural ethnic linguistic or religious identities with their participants are exploring the means ethics and politics of mobilizing insider capital for the purpose of gaining access to and representing research participants Bringing together the latest international scholarship in the sociology and anthropology of migration this volume explores the complexities joys and frustrations of conducting insider research The book offers analyses of key methodological ethical and epistemological challenges faced by migration researchers as they question the ways in which they come to identify with their research topic or their participants Addressing questions of identity and categorization ethics and methodology epistemology and situated knowledge Insider Research on Migration and Mobility will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in migration mobilities diaspora studies and ethnic and racial identities as well as those interested in qualitative research design and analysis Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2012-01-01 Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States in order to account for the never ending discrimination toward racialized ethnic groups including First Nations blacks Chinese and Mexicans revisits the history of whiteness in the United States It shows the difference between remembering a history of human indignities and recreating one that composes its own textual memory More specifically it reformulates how the historically reliant positionality of whiteness as a part of the everyday practice and discourse of white supremacy would later become institutionalized Even though whiteness studies with the intention of exposing white privilege has entered the realm of academic research and is moving toward antiracist forms of whiteness or at least toward antiracist approaches for a different form of whiteness it is not equipped to relinquish the privilege that comes with normalized whiteness Hence in order to construct a post white identity whiteness would have to be denormalized and freed of it of its presumptive hegemony

Education as Freedom Noel S. Anderson, Haroon Kharem, 2009-01-16 Before the founding of the United States enslaved Africans advocated literacy as a method of emancipation During the Reconstruction period after the Civil War blacks were at the forefront of the debates on the establishment of public schools in the South In fact a wealth of ideas about the role of education in American freedom and progress emerged from African American civic political and religious communities and was informed by the complexity of the Black experience in America Education as Freedom African American Educational Thought and Activism is a groundbreaking edited text that documents and reexamines African American empirical methodological and theoretical contributions to knowledge making teaching and learning and American education from the nineteenth through the twenty first century the most dynamic period of African American educational thought and activism African American thought and activism regarding education burgeoned from traditional academic disciplines such as philosophy and art mathematics and the natural sciences and history and psychology from the Black church as well as from grassroots political social cultural and educational activism with the desire to assess the stake of African Americans in modernity Breaching the Colonial Contract Arlo Kempf, 2009-05-30 Almost a decade in Empire remains the 21st Century's dominant mode of cultural production and North America remains at the apex of the colonial imperative The contributors to this volume argue that far from being a post colonial world the struggle for independence of polity and culture is still alive and relevant The book brings together relevant examples of anti colonial discourse and struggle from across the US and

Canada providing unique perspectives on resistance activism scholarship and pedagogy Anti colonialism is an evolving framework to which this book hopes to make a unique contribution with the range depth and analytical approach of the chapters it contains The emphasis on anti colonial resistance here is significant as it consistently reveals the personal commitment required for the undoing of domination as well as the ways in which people can collectively pursue radical politics in their aim of bringing about social justice The book examines a multitude of actions which could be termed anti colonial from student walkouts along the US Mexico border to interrogations of the relationship between indigenous and anti racist struggles in North America to analyses of the implications of anti colonialism for community unionism as well as disability rights struggles Chapters also look at the movement for Africentric schools in Toronto provide an annotated and comparative look at the myriad struggles for and by the Fourth World and Fourth World nations and analyze the creation of an anti colonial classroom in a Montreal university They also explore the colonial underpinnings of multicultural education in the US With contributions from leading thinkers such as Henry Giroux Ward Churchill and Peter McLaren as well as fresh perspectives from junior academics this book provides a diverse and varied survey of anti colonialism in the US and Canada It will be a thought provoking read for those working in a widevariety of disciplines from Sociology to Politics In daring and incisive ways Arlo Kempf s collection further positions anti colonialism as the necessary educational project for the colonizer and colonized within us all it reflectively re sets the radical education agenda with telling historical and current instances that are used by the book s authors to move constructively forward in critical ways John Willinsky Stanford University USA

Approaches to Social Research Alys Young,Bogusia Temple,2014-04-07 In Approaches to Social Research The Case of Deaf Studies Alys Young and Bogusia Temple explore the relationship between key methodological debates in social research and the special context of studies concerning d Deaf people s The book is organized around 7 topics being d Deaf as a site of contested identity and representation epistemology and the boundaries of claims for population specific and plural epistemologies ethics and the implications of collective identity on standard ethical principles and practices populations and sampling given the highly heterogeneous nature of d Deaf people s narrative methodologies re examined in light of the visual nature of signed languages interpretation translation and transcription and the context of multiple modalities and information and communication technologies as transformative epistemologies Through these themes new aspects of old debates within social research become evident and the authors challenge specialist field of studies by with and about d Deaf people Throughout the volume the authors also show how the field provides challenges to established ways of thinking and working The book is of interest to scholars within and outside of research concerning d Deaf people s as well as practitioners in the fields of deaf education social work and allied health professions Playing Out of Bounds Yuka Nakamura,2019-08-22 Playing Out of Bounds investigates the North American Chinese Invitational Volleyball Tournament NACIVT an annual event that began in the 1930s in the streets of Manhattan and now attracts 1200 competitors from the U S and Canada Its two key features are the 9 man game where there are nine instead of the usual six volleyball players on the court and the fact that player eligibility is limited to 100% Chinese and Asian players as defined in the tournament rules These rules that limit competitors to specific ethno racial groups is justified by the discrimination that Chinese people faced when they were denied access to physical activity spaces and instead played in the alleyways and streets of Chinatowns Drawing on interviews participant observation and analysis of websites and tournament documents Playing Out of Bounds explores how participants understand and negotiate their sense of belonging within this community of volleyball players and how membership within and the boundaries of this community are continually being re defined This identity community building occurs within a context of anti Asian racism growing numbers of mixed race players and fluidity of what it means to be Canadian American Chinese and Asian

Whitewashing the South Kristen M. Lavelle, 2014-10-23 Whitewashing the South is a powerful exploration of how ordinary white southerners recall living through extraordinary racial times the Jim Crow era civil rights movement and the post civil rights era highlighting tensions between memory and reality Author Kristen Lavelle draws on interviews with the oldest living generation of white southerners to uncover uncomfortable memories of our racial past The vivid interview excerpts show how these lifelong southerners reflect on race in the segregated South the civil rights era and more recent decades The book illustrates a number of complexities how these white southerners both acknowledged and downplayed Jim Crow racial oppression how they both appreciated desegregation and criticized the civil rights movement and how they both favorably assessed racial progress while resenting reminders of its unflattering past Chapters take readers on a real world look inside The Help and an exploration of the way the Greensboro sit ins and school desegregation have been remembered and forgotten Digging into difficult memories and emotions Whitewashing the South challenges our understandings of the realities of racial inequality

Negotiating Boundaries in the City Joanna Herbert, 2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism

Ethnic and Cultural Dimensions of Knowledge Peter Meusbürger, Tim Freytag, Laura

Suarsana,2015-10-28 This book presents theoretical and methodical discussions on local knowledge and indigenous knowledge It examines educational attainment of ethnic minorities race and politics in educational systems and the problem of losing indigenous knowledge It comprises a broad range of case studies about specifics of local knowledge from several regions of the world reflecting the interdependence of norms tradition ethnic and cultural identities and knowledge The contributors explore gaps between knowledge and agency address questions of the social distribution of knowledge consider its relation to communal activities and inquire into the relation and intersection of knowledge assemblages at local national and global scales The book highlights the relevance of local and indigenous knowledge and discusses implications for educational and developmental politics It provides ideas and a cross disciplinary scientific background for scholars students and professionals including NGO activists and policy makers The Economies of Queer Inclusion S.M.

Rodriguez,2018-12-11 The Anti Homosexuality dubbed Kill the Gays Bill of 2009 propelled Uganda to the forefront of global media In its initial manifestation the Bill threatened to penalize aggravated homosexuality with the death penalty The media attention earned by the proposed legislation opened avenues for transnational cooperation and communication between US based Human and LGBTI Rights organizations and kuchu or LGBTI Ugandans The Economies of Queer Inclusion focuses on this transnational relationship and the complications that arise when international currency and professionalization transform grassroots organizing This book excavates how transnational advocacy which aims to empower LGBTI rights activism actually restructures and in some cases limits local movements With interview and ethnographic data with activists in Kampala Uganda and New York City the research highlights how the introduction of international attention and funding causes organizations to restructure their movement goals and strategies in order to best attract desired partners The funder funded relationship causes both local discord and transnational divestment from alternative forms of organizing The research presents a compelling counter narrative that exposes that the development of this economy did not occur because of the Anti Homosexuality but rather inspired the legislation and then peaked in the five years following As an engaged ethnographic look into a social justice movement the text explores organizational structures and activist strategies in order to critique and strengthen future mobilization Accordingly the text applies various sociological and critical race theories to provide an incisive and in depth exploration of a powerful political moment Whiteness in Higher Education: The Invisible Missing Link in Diversity and Racial Analyses: ASHE Higher Education Report, Volume 42, Number 6 Nolan L. Cabrera,Jeremy D.

Franklin,Jesse S. Watson,2017-02-13 When issues of diversity and race arise in higher education scholarship and practice the focus is generally on Students of Color That being said if there are People of Color being marginalized on college campuses there is a structural mechanism facilitating the marginalization This monograph explores the relevance of Whiteness to the field of Higher Education While Whiteness as a racial discourse is continually changing and defies classification it is both real in terms of its impacts on the campus racial dynamics Highlighting many of the contours of Whiteness in higher education this volume explores the influence of Whiteness on interpersonal interactions campus climate culture ecology policy and scholarship Additionally it explores what can be done both individually and institutionally to address the problem of Whiteness in higher education Ultimately this monograph is offered from the perspective that racial issues concern everyone and this engages the possibility of both People of Color destabilizing Whiteness and White people becoming racial justice allies within the context of higher education institutions This is the sixth issue of the 42nd volume of the Jossey Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication
