Racingthe Musci Video:

Representations of Black Women in the Media Marquita Marie Gammage, 2015-10-16 In 1920 W E B Du Bois cited the damnation of women as linked to the devaluation of motherhood This dilemma he argues had a crushing blow on Black women as they were forced into slavery Black womanhood portrayed as hypersexual by nature became an enduring stereotype which did not coincide with the dignity of mother and wife This portrayal continues to reinforce negative stereotypes of Black women in the media today This book highlights how Black women have been negatively portrayed in the media focusing on the export nature of media and its ability to convey notions of Blackness to the public It argues that media such as rap music videos television dramas reality television shows and newscasts create and affect expectations of Black women Exploring the role that racism misogyny and media play in the representation of Black womanhood it provides a foundation for challenging contemporary media s portrayal of Black women Digitizing Race Lisa Nakamura, 2007-12-20 Lisa Nakamura refers to case studies of popular yet rarely evaluated uses of the Internet such as pregnancy websites instant messaging and online petitions and quizzes to look at the emergence of race ethnic and gender identified visual cultures

Race on Display in 20th- and 21st-century France Katelyn E. Knox, 2016 Race on Display in 20th and 21st Century France argues that the way France displayed its colonized peoples in the twentieth century continues to inform how minority authors and artists make immigrants and racial and ethnic minority populations visible in contemporary France Race, Colour and Identity in Australia and New Zealand John Docker, Gerhard Fischer, 2000 Fourteen academics and writers from the land down under present papers on aboriginal identity Asians in Australia Australians in Asia bi and multiculturalism in New Zealand and whiteness most of which were presented at the 1998 Sydney conference Adventures of Identity Constructing the Multic

Race and Cultural Practice in Popular Culture Domino Renee Perez, Rachel Valentina Gonzalez, 2019 This book is an innovative work that takes a fresh approach to the concept of race as a social factor made concrete in popular forms such as film television and music The essays push past the reaffirmation of static conceptions of identity authenticity or conventional interpretations of stereotypes and bridge the intertextual gap between theories of community enactment and cultural representation

Sounding Race in Rap Songs Loren Kajikawa, 2015-03-07 As one of the most influential and popular genres of the last three decades rap has cultivated a mainstream audience and become a multimillion dollar industry by promoting highly visible and often controversial representations of blackness Sounding Race in Rap Songs argues that rap music allows us not only to see but also to hear how mass mediated culture engenders new understandings of race The book traces the changing sounds of race across some of the best known rap songs of the past thirty five years combining song level analysis with historical contextualization to show how these representations of identity depend on specific artistic decisions such as those related to how producers make beats Each chapter explores the process behind the production of hit songs by musicians including Grandmaster Flash and the Furious Five The Sugarhill Gang Run D M C Public Enemy N W A Dr Dre and

Eminem This series of case studies highlights stylistic differences in sound lyrics and imagery with musical examples and illustrations that help answer the core question can we hear race in rap songs Integrating theory from interdisciplinary areas this book will resonate with students and scholars of popular music race relations urban culture ethnomusicology sound studies and beyond

On Race George Yancy, 2017-09-01 With the recent barrage of racially motivated killings violent encounters between blacks and whites and hate crimes in the wake of the 2016 election that foreground historic problems posed by systemic racism including disenfranchisement and mass incarceration it would be easy to despair that Dr Martin Luther King Jr s dream has turned into a nightmare Many Americans struggle for equal treatment facing hate speech brutality and a national spirit of hopelessness their reality is hardly post racial The need for clarity surrounding the significance of race and racism in the United States is more pressing than ever This collection of interviews on race some originally conducted for The New York Times philosophy blog The Stone provides rich context and insight into the nature challenges and deepest questions surrounding this fraught and thorny topic In interviews with such major thinkers as bell hooks Judith Butler Cornel West Kwame Anthony Appiah Peter Singer and Noam Chomsky Yancy probes the historical origins social constructions and lived reality of race along political and economic lines He interrogates fully race s insidious expressions its transcendence of Black white binaries and its link to neo liberalism its epistemological and ethical implications and ultimately its future

Race in American Television David J. Leonard, Stephanie Troutman Robbins, 2021-01-26 This two volume encyclopedia explores representations of people of color in American television It includes overview essays on early classic and contemporary television and the challenges for developments related to and participation of minorities on and behind the screen Covering five decades this encyclopedia highlights how race has shaped television and how television has shaped society Offering critical analysis of moments and themes throughout television history Race in American Television shines a spotlight on key artists of color prominent shows and the debates that have defined television since the civil rights movement This book also examines the ways in which television has been a site for both reproduction of stereotypes and resistance to them providing a basis for discussion about racial issues in the United States This set provides a significant resource for students and fans of television alike not only educating but also empowering readers with the necessary tools to consume and watch the small screen and explore its impact on the evolution of racial and ethnic stereotypes in U S culture and beyond Understanding the history of American television contributes to deeper knowledge and potentially helps us to better apprehend the plethora of diverse shows and programs on Netflix Hulu YouTube and other platforms today

Raising Mixed Race Sharon Chang, 2015-12-11 Research continues to uncover early childhood as a crucial time when we set the stage for who we will become In the last decade we have also seen a sudden massive shift in America s racial makeup with the majority of the current under 5 age population being children of color Asian and multiracial are the fastest growing self identified groups in the United States More than 2 million people indicated being mixed race Asian on the 2010 Census Yet young multiracial Asian children are vastly underrepresented in the literature on racial identity Why And what are these children learning about themselves in an era that tries to be ahistorical believes the race problem has been solved and that mixed race people are proof of it This book is drawn from extensive research and interviews with sixty eight parents of multiracial children It is the first to examine the complex task of supporting our youngest around being two or more races and Asian while living amongst post racial ideologies A Race of Singers Bryan K. Garman, 2018-07-25 When Walt Whitman published Leaves of Grass in 1855 he dreamed of inspiring a race of singers who would celebrate the working class and realize the promise of American democracy By examining how singers such as Woody Guthrie Bob Dylan and Bruce Springsteen both embraced and reconfigured Whitman's vision Bryan Garman shows that Whitman succeeded In doing so Garman celebrates the triumphs yet also exposes the limitations of Whitman's legacy While Whitman's verse propounded notions of sexual freedom and renounced the competitiveness of capitalism it also safeguarded the interests of the white workingman often at the expense of women and people of color Garman describes how each of Whitman's successors adopted the mantle of the working class hero while adapting the role to his own generation's concerns Guthrie condemned racism in the 1930s Dylan addressed race and war in the 1960s and Springsteen explored sexism racism and homophobia in the 1980s and 1990s But as Garman points out even the Boss like his forebears tends to represent solidarity in terms of white male bonding and homosocial allegiance We can hear America singing in the voices of these artists Garman says but it is still the song of a white male America Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer, 2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society Overcoming Passion for Race in Malaysia Cultural Studies David C.L. Lim, 2008-06-30 Overcoming Passion examines the passion for race in contemporary Malaysia Broadly the essays look at the disjunction between the falsity of race as a scientific category and the entrenched belief that race determines one's rightful identity They probe the ways in which individual minds and institutions of power fail or refuse to recognise and act in accordance with the knowledge that race exists only insofar as its existence is sustained by the believer's belief in it The contributors draw from a burgeoning but under examined archive of Malaysia related social texts ranging from media and technological discourse popular culture and literary production to historical writings produced originally in English Malay and Mandarin Chinese Gender, Race, and Class in Media Bill Yousman, William E Yousman, Lori Bindig Yousman, Gail Dines, Jean McMahon Humez, 2020-07-24 Incisive analyses of mass media including such forms as talk shows MTV the internet soap operas television sitcoms dramatic series pornography and advertising enable this provocative new edition of Gender Race and Class in Media to engage students in critical mass media scholarship Issues of power related to gender race and class are integrated into a wide range of articles examining the economic and cultural implications of mass media as institutions including the political economy of media production textual analysis and media consumption Throughout Gender Race and Class in Media examines the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities especially in regard to gender race and class Race/Gender/Class/Media Rebecca Ann Lind, 2023-03-14 The fifth edition of this popular textbook considers diversity in the mass media in three main settings Audiences Content and Production The book brings together 55 readings the majority newly commissioned for this edition by scholars representing a variety of humanities and social science disciplines Together these readings provide a multifaceted and intersectional look at how race gender and class relate to the creation and use of media texts as well as the media texts themselves Designed to be flexible for use in the classroom the book begins with a detailed introduction to key concepts and presents a contextualizing introduction to each of the three main sections Each reading contains multiple It s Your Turn activities to foster student engagement and which can serve as the basis for assignments The book also offers a list of resources books articles films and websites that are of value to students and instructors This volume is an essential introduction to interdisciplinary studies of race gender and class across both digital and legacy media The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education Amelia M. Kraehe, Rubén Gaztambide-Fernández, B. Stephen Carpenter II, 2018-07-12 The Palgrave Handbook of Race and the Arts in Education is the first edited volume to examine how race operates in and through the arts in education Until now no single source has brought together such an expansive and interdisciplinary collection in exploration of the ways in which music visual art theater dance and popular culture intertwine with racist ideologies and race making Drawing on Critical Race Theory contributing authors bring an international perspective to questions of racism and anti racist interventions in the arts in education The book s introduction provides a guiding framework for understanding the arts as white property in schools museums and informal education spaces Each section is organized thematically around historical discursive empirical and personal dimensions of the arts in education This handbook is essential reading for students educators artists and researchers across the fields of visual and performing arts education educational foundations multicultural education and curriculum and instruction Gender, Sexuality and Race in the Digital Age D. Nicole Farris, D'Lane R. Compton, Andrea P. Herrera, 2020-01-01 This book provides a unique analysis of the intersection between gender sexuality race and social media While early scholarship identified the internet as being inherently egalitarian this volume presents the internet as a real social place where inequalities matter and manifest in particular ways according to the architectures of particular platforms This volume utilizes innovative methodologies to analyze how internet users both re inscribe and resist inequalities of gender sexuality and race It describes how the internet has ameliorated and bridged geographic and numerical limits on community formation and this volume examines how the functioning of social inequalities differs on and offline Critical Pedagogy, Race, and Media Susan Flynn, Melanie A. Marotta, 2021-12-30 Critical Pedagogy Race and Media investigates how popular media offers the potential to radicalise what and how we teach for inclusivity Bringing together established scholars in the areas of race and pedagogy this collection offers a unique approach to critical pedagogy by analysing current and historical iterations of race onscreen The book forms theoretical and methodological bridges between the disciplinary fields of pedagogy equality studies and screen studies to explore how we might engage in and critique screen culture for teaching about race It employs Critical Race Theory and paradigmatic frameworks to address some of the social crises in Higher Education classrooms forging new understandings of how notions of race are buttressed by popular media The chapters draw on popular media as a tool to explore the social economic and cultural dimensions of racial injustice and are grouped by Black studies migration studies Indigenous studies Latinx studies and Asian studies Each chapter addresses diversity and the necessity for teaching to include visual media which is reflective of a myriad of students experiences Offering opportunities for using popular media to teach for inclusion in Higher Education this critical and timely book will be highly relevant for academics scholars and students across interdisciplinary fields such as pedagogy human geography sociology cultural studies media studies and equality studies

Intersectionality and "Race" in Education Kalwant Bhopal, John Preston, 2012-01-25 Education is a controversial subject in which difficult and contested discourses are the norm Individuals in education experience multiple inequalities and have diverse identifications that cannot necessarily be captured by one theoretical perspective alone This edited collection draws on empirical and theoretical research to examine the intersections of race gender and class alongside other aspects of personhood within education Contributors from the fields of education and sociology seek to locate the dimensions of difference and identity within recent theoretical discourses such as Critical Race Theory Judith Butler and queer theory post structural approaches and multicultural models as they analyze whiteness and the education experience of minority ethnic groups By combining a mix of intellectually rigorous accessible and controversial chapters this book presents a distinctive and engaging voice one that seeks to broaden the understanding of education research beyond the confines of the education sphere into an arena of sociological and cultural discourse

Space Race Television Sven Grampp, 2024-05-23 This volume offers a media theoretically oriented perspective on the Space Race It analyzes feature films documentaries live television coverage magazines stamps posters ticker tape parades They visualized the Space Race in a specific way and circulated it transnationally from East to West and from West to East across the Iron Curtain It will be shown how reporting on the Space Race between 1955 and 1975 can be explained as a globalizing history of the intertwining of images during the Cold War

Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, 2003 Gender Race and Class in Media examines the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities Through analyses of popular mass media entertainment genres such as talk shows soap operas television sitcoms advertising and pornography students are invited to engage in critical mass media scholarship A comprehensive introductory section outlines the book's integrated approach to media studies which incorporates three distinct but related areas of investigation the political economy of production textual analysis and audience response The readings include a dozen new original essays edited for maximum accessibility The book provides A comprehensive critical introduction to Media Studies An analysis of race that is integrated into all chapters Articles on Cultural Studies that are accessible to undergraduates An extensive bibliography and section on media resources Expanded coverage of queer representations in mass media A new section on the violence debates A new section on the Internet Together with new section introductions these provide a comprehensive critical introduction to mass media studies
