Gray Agendas Henry J. Pratt, 1993 Gray Agendas presents a groundbreaking cross national study into the complex and interdependent relationship between public policy and the interest groups of the aged Canada Britain and the United States are examined and compared This book provides a unique in depth understanding of how public policies have sparked the creation of organized senior citizen groups which in turn through their intensified political clout have been able to shape subsequent public policy The book begins with a historical perspective on the state s role in the lives of the aged and the indirect consequences of various policies on the elderly population including most specifically age group mobilization Later consideration is given to widespread economic social and ideological changes in age policy and the effect that new interest group formation had and continues to have upon these changes The final chapters are concerned with current issues surrounding the present density of organized age based activity and the effects of transformed state policy on the future of interest groups for the aged The unique topic of Gray Agendas will prove interesting not only to those interested in the fields of sociology history and political science but also will help fill the gap of scholarly information on issues concerning the elderly s organizations proving invaluable to those interested in social gerontology and related areas of study National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1985 Report of the National Commission on Diabetes to the Congress of the United States: Supporting materials to the Commission reports United States.
