Seven South African Poets:

7 South African Poets Cosmo Pieterse, 1971 The Dennis Brutus Tapes Dennis Brutus, 2011 Poet and anti apartheid activist Dennis Brutus recorded a series of tapes in the 1970s which have been edited and annotated by Bernth Lindfors to give valuable insights into Brutus's life and works Dennis Brutus 1924 2009 is known internationally as a South African poet anti apartheid activist and campaigner for human rights and the release of political prisoners His literary works include Sirens Knuckles Boots 1963 Letters to Martha and Other Poems from a South African Prison 1968 A Simple Lust 1973 and Stubborn Hope 1978 When Dennis Brutus was a Visiting Professor at The University of Texas at Austin in 1974 75 he recorded on tape a series of reflections on his life and career In addition he frequently responded to questions about his poetry and political activities put to him by students and faculty in formal and informal interviews that were also captured on tape Transcripts of a selection of these tapes as well as reprints of two interviews recorded earlier are reproduced here in order to put on record fragments of the autobiography of a remarkable man who lived in extraordinary times and managed to leave his mark on the land and literature of South Africa Brutus was an effective anti apartheid campaigner who succeeded in getting South Africa excluded from the Olympics His opposition to racial discrimination in sports led to his arrest banning and imprisonment on Robben Island Upon release he left South Africa and lived most of the rest of his life in exile where he continued his political work and simultaneously earned an international reputation as a poet who often sang of his love for his country The tapes are edited by Bernth Lindfors who has added an Introduction and a transcript of a 1970 interview as well as other transcripts of lectures and discussions Bernth Lindfors is Professor Emeritus of English and African Literatures The University of Texas at Austin and founding editor of Research in African Literatures He has written and edited numerous books on African literature including Folklore in Nigerian Literature 1973 Popular Literatures in Africa 1991 Africans on Stage 1999 Early Soyinka 2008 and Early Achebe 2009 The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell, Dirk Kloppe, Craig Mackenzie, 2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa's history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party's policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele's call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country's literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945

Modern African Poetry and the African Predicament Romanus N. Egudu, 1978-10-12 A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18

This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In

Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Ovid Revisited Jo-Marie Claassen, 2013-11-20 In time for the bimillennium of Ovid's relegation to Tomis on the Black Sea by the emperor Augustus in 8 AD Jo Marie Claassen here revises and integrates into a more popular format two decades of scholarship on Ovid's exile Some twenty articles and reviews from scholarly journals have been shortened rearranged and merged into seven chapters which together with some new material offer a wide ranging overview of the exiled poet and his works Ovid Revisited treats the poems from exile as the literary culmination of Ovid's oeuvre ascribing the poet's resilience in the face of extreme hardship to the relief that his poetry afforded him An introduction considers the phenomenon of Ovid's continued popularity explains the importance of chronology in reading the exilic poems and gives a brief summary of the contents of the Tristia and Epistulae ex Ponto The rest of the book ranges from consideration of Ovid's relationship with the emperor and with his own poetry to his ubiquitous humour to his skill in metrics vocabulary and verbal play and to his use of mythological figures from earlier parts of his oeuvre The degree to which Ovid universalised the sufferings of the dispossessed is assessed in a chapter comparing his exilic works with modern exilic literature An excursus considers various directions in Ovidian studies today

Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31 June 17 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart by Heinemann This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser Africa Writes Back The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field. Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book. James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus.

South African Album David Wright, 1976
The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12
 South Africa's unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people
 The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi-authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa
 It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa's literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post-apartheid revision of the past
 In a field marked by controversy this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa's literary history
 It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come
Death of a Myth Femi Ojo-Ade, 2001
 Nigeria a country of immense natural and human resources with the potential to actually realise the too often meaningless notion of independence has suffered from decades of debilitating military leadership
 Covering a period of five years in the unfolding tragicomedy of Africa's most populous country this book addresses various issues concerning Nigeria in a style filled with dark humour pungency and perspicacity
 Ojo Ade offers a full understanding of the Nigerian dilemma and its hope for a better future
South African London Andrea Thorpe, 2021-11-30
 This book presents a long ranging and in depth study of South African writing set in London during the apartheid years and beyond Since London served as an important site of South African exile and emigration particularly during the second half of the twentieth century the city shaped the history of South African letters in meaningful and material ways Being in London allowed South African writers to engage with their own expectations of Englishness and to rethink their South African identities The book presents a range of diverse and fascinating responses by South African writers that provide nuanced perspectives on exile global racisms and modernity Writers studied include Peter Abrahams Dan Jacobson Noni Jabavu Todd Matshikiza Arthur Nortje Lauretta Ngcobo J M Coetzee Justin Cartwright and Ishtiyag Shukri South African London offers an original and multi faceted take on both London writing and South African twentieth century literature

Poetry & Protest Aisha Karim, Lee Sustar, 2006 We in South Africa needed the support of the international community in our efforts to end the vicious system of racial oppression called apartheid We had to have eloquent advocates to tell the world our story and persuade it to come to our assistance We had none more articulate and with all the credibility and integrity so indispensable than Dennis Brutus to plead our cause He was quite outstanding and we South Africans owe an immense debt of gratitude Archbishop Desmond Tutu Dennis Brutus stands as a tribune of the dispossessed His willingness to speak out on all cases of injustice and side with the oppressed makes him the type of person we all wish to emulate His perseverance dedication and eloquence have made him not only a hero for the South African freedom struggle but for all those who struggle for social justice Bill Fletcher TransAfrica Forum This vital original collection of interviews poetry and essays of the much loved anti apartheid leader is the first book of its kind to bring together the full forceful range of his work Brutus imprisoned along with Nelson Mandela is known worldwide for his unparalleled eloquence as an opponent of the apartheid South African regime Since its fall he has been a voice for justice and humanity speaking and writing extensively on issues of debt poverty war racism and neoliberalism Dennis Brutus is a lifelong human rights activist and poet He was imprisoned with Nelson Mandela on Robben Island in South Africa and became an eloquent spokesperson for the anti apartheid movement He currently teaches African studies and literature at the University of Pittsburgh Lee Sustar has written extensively on the global justice and labor movements for numerous publications He is a member of the National Writers Union and lives in Chicago Illinois

Cornwell,1985 Living in History Luke Roberts,2024-05-31 Challenging received ideas about the British Poetry Revival Luke Roberts presents a new account of experimental poetry and literary activism Drawing on a wide range of contexts and traditions Living in History begins by examining the legacies of empire and exile in the work of Kamau Brathwaite J H Prynne and poets associated with the Communist Party and the African National Congress It then focuses on the work of Linton Kwesi Johnson Denise Riley Anna Mendelssohn and others in the development of liberation struggles around gender race and sexuality across the 1970s Tracking the ambivalence between poetic ambition and political commitment and how one sometimes interferes with the other Luke Roberts troubles the exclusions of British Poetry as a category and tests the claims made on behalf avant garde and experimental poetics against the historical record Bringing together both major and neglected authorships and offering extended close readings fresh archival research and new contextual evidence Living in History is an ambitious and exciting intervention in the field In Search of Mary Sally Cunneen,1996-08-20 Mary relic of the religious past or beacon of the future Mary is more alive today than she was in the early Christian church surfacing in art and worship in almost every culture on earth Her appeal bridges the gap between the devotional and the secular the uneducated and the sophisticated But who is Mary and what exactly does she symbolize How did a humble Jewish girl become the most honored woman in human history Why is there so little about Mary in the Bible and so much about her in the art and history of Christianity East and West And why in an age dominated by science and technology does devotion to Mary persist In Search of Mary is Sally Cunneen s provocative response to these questions As Cunneen eloquently points out in order to see Mary whole it is important to look at all the different visions and versions of her revisiting history through the eyes of a present day searcher Including the latest findings by historians anthropologists and psychologists as well as art historians and religious scholars In Search of Mary reveals what we know about the life of Mary follows the history and development of her image over the last two thousand years and explores the different ways that Mary has transformed the lives of people today As we struggle for greater unity in a divided world In Search of Mary shows us a woman who can touch all people regardless of their backgrounds She is a profound reminder of the presence of the holy in ordinary life The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time Rebecca Fine Romanow,2009-03-26 The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time examines the ways in which the notion of the postcolonial correlates to Judith Halberstam s idea of queer space and time the non normative path of Western lifestyles and hegemonies Emphasizing authors from Africa and Southeast Asia in the diaspora in London from the mid 1960s through 1990 the reading of both postcolonial lands and subjects as queer counterproductive space reveals a depiction of bodies in these texts as located in and performing queer space and time redefining and relocating the understanding of the postcolonial The first wave of postcolonial literature produced by diasporics presents the body as the site where the non normative is performed revealing the beginnings of a corporeal resistance to the re colonization of the diasporic individual residing in England from the Wilson through the Thatcher regimes This study emphasizes the ways in which early postcolonial literature embodies and encounters the topics of race gender and sexuality proving that a rejection of subjectifying processes through the representation of the body has always been present in diasporic postcolonial literature Reading through postcolonial theory as well as the works of Foucault Deleuze and Guattari Hardt and Negri Homi Bhabha and Giorgio Agamben as well as Halberstam and queer theory The Postcolonial Body in Queer Space and Time discusses the poetry and journals of Arthur Nortje Hanif Kureishi s The Buddha of Suburbia and his film Sammy and Rosie Get Laid and Tayeb Salih s Season of Migration to the North tracing a geographic arc from homeland to London to the return to the homeland traveling through the queer space and time of the postcolonial
