been created and or premiered at the Festival during the Artistic Directorship of Mandy Greenfield In addition to stories that shine a light into new or underexplored corners of the human condition these plays frequently feature complex and boundary pushing central roles for women actors These six plays are manifestations of living American playwrights grappling with and breathing dramatic life into the conflicts and questions at the heart of who we were who we are and who we will become These plays imagine and interrogate pieces of the human experience we are still in the midst of unpacking and understanding Complete with introductions by each of the authors reflecting on their work these historic award winning and groundbreaking plays now live in conversation with one another in this unique collection Our Day ,1891 Ortona Mark Zuehlke,2009-07-01 A masterful retelling one of the major victories of Canadian troops over the German army s elite division during WWII In one blood soaked furious week of fighting from December 20 to December 27 1943 the 1st Canadian Infantry Division took the town of Ortona Italy from elite German paratroopers ordered to hold the medieval port town at all costs Infantrymen serving in the Loyal Edmonton Regiment and the Seaforth Highlanders supported by tankers of the Three Rivers Regiment moved from house to house in hand to hand combat amid heavy shelling and wrested the town from the grip of the fierce German defenders Getting into Ortona had been a battle of its own Ortona the pearl of the Adriatic stands on a promontory impregnable from three sides with seacliffs on the north and east and a deep ravine on the west The Canadian infantrymen drawn from virtually every corner of Canada attacked from the south under the command of Major General Chris Vokes fighting across narrow gullies mud choked vineyards and olive groves into the narrow streets of Ortona itself When the vicious battle was over 2605 Canadians were dead or wounded But the town that had become known as Little Stalingrad was now in Allied hands Ski ,1973-12 New Perspectives On British Authors Rama Kundu,2006 The irresistible and eternal attraction of an island has surfaced in literature as a varied range of tropes the domain of strange fantastic creatures flora and fauna an Other since the ancient times epitome of the charm of the distant in the romantic era real geographical spaces since the era of sea voyaging discovery and re mapping of islands with the emergence of imperialism new meanings arising from the new imperial discourse in the postcolonial era the islanders themselves writing back to the mainstream canon Today we have a great harvest of island literature arising out of various discourses including postcolonial postimperial feminist ecological cultural etc in addition to unique work s on island arising from individual perceptions philosophical imaginative emotional nostalgic etc A study of island literature across ages and lands thus can introduce us not only to a vast spectrum of ideas approaches contemplation ideation discourses and counter discourses But also to a wide network of inter references in which authors across lands and ages from Homer to Shakespeare Defoe Swift Ballantyneto Golding Coetzee Virginia Woolf to Margaret Atwood Rhys Walcottto Eco Saramago seem to reach out to one another and shake hands A basic perceptual difference between the outsider and the insider as they behold their encircled space has contributed to great counterpoints compulsive confinement challenge of survival thrill of discovery satisfaction of possession love claustrophobia desire to escape desire to return and repossess etc which writers have brought to correspond to a wide range of contrapuntal discourses It has been envisioned as the exclusive space for the artist the woman as time s backwater as the magic realm of the surreal hyperreal fantasia etc Island has come to semiotize a wide range of tropes and significations It appears that if island is a signifier then the signified are endless Indeed the island paradigm seems to be like a magic crystal reflecting innumerable strands and shades of meanings depending on the way you looked at it The subject involves an area of oceanic vastness starting from the coast of the ancient ages right into the ports of the modern and postmodern times The area has been ever spreading and vibrant texts have been sprawling all the time sprouting newer branches accumulating newer layers of meaning and striking newer depths of perception and insight This book an outcome of the UGC Emeritus Fellowship has been an attempt to scoop up a few of these infinite infinities of islands as they are presented and projected in texts across ages and spaces starting from Valmiki and Homer and continuing into the postmodern islands of Jose Saramago and Umberto Eco
