Seven Story Tower:

Seven Story Tower Curtiss Hoffman, 2008-01-07 From the white stag to the green knight The Seven Story Tower examines how myth colors our perception of history nature and ourselves Organized around seven key myths representing the Irish Greek Sumerian Indonesian Amazonian and Inuit cultures as well as the fantasy world of J R R Tolkien this book is the perfect introduction to the common themes found in world mythology Curtiss Hoffman a noted archaeologist and anthropologist takes us beyond the entertaining stories and uses insights from cultural anthropology and analytical psychology to analyze the many common themes found throughout In particular he examines the significance of names numbers plants animals the heavenly bodies and the human body The Seven Story Tower will enhance the reader's appreciation of myth's power today over our lives and cultures San Fernando, California, Earthquake of February 9, 1971: Effects on building structures. pt. Anderson, 2003 A folk taxonomy is a semantic field that represents the particular way in which a language imposes structure and order upon the myriad impressions of human experience and perception Thus for example the experience of color in modern English is structured around an inventory of twelve basic color terms but languages vary in the number of basic color terms used from thirteen or fourteen terms to as few as two or three Anthropological linguists have been interested in the comparative study of folk taxonomies across contemporary languages and in their studies they have sometimes proposed evolutionary models for the development and elaboration of these taxonomies The evolutionary models have implications for historical linguistics but there have been very few studies of the historical development of a folk taxonomy within a language or within a language family Folk Taxonomies in Early English undertakes this task for English and to some extent for the Germanic and Indo European language families The semantic fields studied are basic color terms seasons of the year geometric shapes the five senses the folk psychology of mind and soul and basic plant and animal life forms Anderson's emphasis is on folk taxonomies in Old and Middle English and also on the implications of semantic analysis for our reading of early English literary texts Industrial Chicago: The building interests, 1891 Report of the Fire Department of the City of New York for the Year 1902 New York (N.Y.).
