'Grossly Material Things' Helen Smith, 2012-05-03 In A Room of One's Own Virginia Woolf described fictions as grossly material things rooted in their physical and economic contexts This book takes Woolf's brief hint as its starting point asking who made the books of the English Renaissance and what the material circumstances were in which they did so It charts a new history of making and use recovering the ways in which women shaped and altered the books of this crucial period as co authors editors translators patrons printers booksellers and readers Drawing on evidence from a wide range of sources including court records letters diaries medical texts and the books themselves Grossly Material Things moves between the realms of manuscript and print and tells the stories of literary political and religious texts from broadside ballads to plays monstrous birth pamphlets to editions of the Bible In uncovering the neglected history of women's textual labours and the places and spaces in which women went about the business of making Helen Smith offers a new perspective on the history of books and reading Where Woolf believed that Shakespeare's sister had she existed would have had no opportunity to pursue a literary career Grossly Material Things paints a compelling picture of Judith Shakespeare's varied job prospects and promises to reshape our understanding of gendered authorship in the English Renaissance

The Metropolis in Latin America, 1830-1930 Idurre Alonso, Maristella Casciato, 2021-08-17 This volume examines the unprecedented growth of several cities in Latin America from 1830 to 1930 observing how sociopolitical changes and upheavals created the conditions for the birth of the metropolis In the century between 1830 and 1930 following independence from Spain and Portugal major cities in Latin America experienced large scale growth with the development of a new urban bourgeois elite interested in projects of modernization and rapid industrialization At the same time the lower classes were eradicated from old city districts and deported to the outskirts The Metropolis in Latin America 1830 1930 surveys this expansion focusing on six capital cities Havana Mexico City Rio de Janeiro Buenos Aires Santiago de Chile and Lima as it examines sociopolitical histories town planning art and architecture photography and film in relation to the metropolis Drawing from the Getty Research Institute's vast collection of books prints and photographs from this period largely unpublished until now this volume reveals the cities changes through urban panoramas plans depicting new neighborhoods and photographs of novel transportation systems public amenities civic spaces and more It illustrates the transformation of colonial cities into the monumental modern metropolises that by the end of the 1920s provided fertile ground for the emergence of today s Latin American megalopolis Urban Images of the Hispanic World, 1493-1793 Richard L. Kagan,Fernando Marias,Fernando Marías Franco,2000-01-01 This fascinating book examines the particular importance of cities in Spanish and Hispanic American culture as well as the different meanings that artists and cartographers invested in their depiction of New and Old Wold cities and towns Kagan maintains that cities are both built human structures and human communities and that representations of the urban form reflect both points of view He discusses the peculiar character of Spain s empire of towns the history and development of the cityscape as an independent artistic genre both in Europe and the Americas the interaction between European and native mapping traditions differences between European maps of urban America and those produced by local residents whether native or creole and the urban iconography of four different New World towns Lavishly illustrated with a variety of maps pictures and plans many reproduced here for the first time this interdisciplinary study will be of interest to general readers and to specialists in art history cartography history urbanism and related fields Night Tourism: Exploring Cities When the Sun Goes Down Prisca j okota,2025-01-02 Core Idea This book explores the unique experiences and perspectives offered by exploring cities at night Target Audience Urban explorers night owls photographers and those seeking a different perspective on city life Key Themes The Allure of the Night Explores the psychological and cultural fascination with the night Different Types of Night Tourism Covers various activities such as night markets nightlife districts ghost tours stargazing and night photography Safety Considerations for Night Travel Provides essential safety tips for navigating cities at night The Impact of Night Tourism on Local Communities Discusses the economic and social effects of night tourism Night Photography Techniques Offers tips for capturing stunning images of cityscapes and night scenes Exploring Urban Legends and Ghost Stories Explores the folklore and mythology associated with cities at night Nightlife Around the World Showcases unique nightlife experiences in different cities and cultures The Environmental Impact of Night Lighting Discusses the effects of light pollution on the environment and human health Encounters: Medieval Islamic History in 50 Objects Marcus Milwright,2025-10-27 This book consists of fifty case studies and offers an innovative approach to the study of Medieval Islamic history concentrating on the analysis of physical objects from the seventh to the eighteenth centuries and across most of the regions that make up the pre Modern Islamic world These include a wide range of objects from portable items like coins vessels and books to major constructions including mosques tombs castles dams and canal systems The central argument is that the interdisciplinary study of physical objects provides invaluable perspectives that can deepen or challenge the evidence in the written record Object based study can also shed light on the lives of social groups who are seldom discussed in Islamic texts written before the modern period To demonstrate these points each case study focusses on a single object or small group of related objects The case studies combine close analysis of the material and visual characteristics with a discussion of the wider context in which such objects were commissioned made used adapted and exchanged The book is intended as an introduction to the historical study of Islamic objects employing perspectives from the fields of art history archaeology numismatics ethnography and epigraphy Written with a minimum of technical language and supported by a critical introduction an extensive glossary a timeline and guide for further reading the book is aimed at students and general readers who are interested in the political economic social cultural religious and intellectual histories of the Islamic world Handbook of Urban Studies Ronan Paddison, 2001 The Handbook of Urban Studies provides the first comprehensive up to date account of the urban condition relevant to a wide readership from academics to researchers and policymakers It provides a theoretically and empirically informed account embracing all the different disciplines contributing to urban studies Leading authors identify key issues and questions and future trends for further research and present their findings so that where appropriate they are relevant to the needs of policymakers Using the city as a unifying structure the Handbook provides an holistic appreciation of urban structure and change and of the theories by which we understand the structure development and changing character of cities

Admiration and Awe Antonio Urquizar-Herrera, 2017-04-28 This book offers the first systematic analysis of the cultural and religious appropriation of Andalusian architecture by Spanish historians during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries To date this process of Christian appropriation has generally been discussed as a phenomenon of architectural hybridisation However this was a period in which the construction of a Spanish national identity became a key focus of historical discourse As a result cultural hybridity encountered partial opposition from those seeking to establish cultural and religious homogeneity Spain's Islamic past became a major concern in this period and historical writing served as the site for a complex negotiation of identity Historians and antiquarians used a range of strategies to re appropriate the meaning of medieval Islamic heritage as befitted the new identity of Spain as a Catholic monarchy and empire On the one hand the monuments Islamic origin was subjected to historical revisions and re identified as Roman or Phoenician On the other hand religious forgeries were invented that staked claims for buildings and cities having been founded by Christians prior to the arrival of the Muslims in Spain Islamic stones were used as core evidence in debates that shaped the early development of archaeology and they also became the centre of a historical controversy about the origin of Spain as a nation as well as its ecclesiastical history War and Photography Caroline Brothers, 2013-03-07 Drawing on the work of Barthes Eco Foucault Baudrillard Burgin and Tagg and on the historians of mentalities War and Photography presents a theoretical approach to the understanding of press photography in its historical and contemporary context Brothers applies her argument with special reference to French and British newspaper images of the Spanish Civil War a selection of which is presented in the book Rejecting analyses based upon the content of the images alone she argues that photographic meaning is largely predetermined by its institutional and cultural context Acting as witnesses despite themselves photographs convey a wealth of information not about any objective reality but about the collective attitudes and beliefs particular to the culture in which they operate

Circulations in the Global History of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, Catherine Dossin, Béatrice Joyeux-Prunel, 2016-03-03 The project of global art history calls for balanced treatment of artifacts and a unified approach This volume emphasizes questions of transcultural encounters and exchanges as circulations It presents a strategy that highlights the processes and connections among cultures and also responds to the dynamics at work in the current globalized art world The editors introduction provides an account of the historical background to this approach to global art history stresses the inseparable bond of theory and practice and suggests a revaluation of materialist historicism as an underlying premise Individual contributions to the book provide an overview of current reflection and research on issues of circulation in relation to global art history and the globalization of art past and present They offer a variety of methods and approaches to the treatment of different periods regions and objects surveying both questions of historiography and methodology and presenting individual case studies An Afterword by James Elkins gives a critique of the present project The book thus deliberately leaves discussion open inviting future responses to the large questions it poses

Hernando Colon's New World of Books Jose Maria Perez Fernandez, Edward Wilson-Lee, 2021-01-26 The untold story of the greatest library of the Renaissance and its creator Hernando Col n This engaging book offers the first comprehensive account of the extraordinary projects of Hernando Col n son of Christopher Columbus which culminated in the creation of the greatest library of the Renaissance with ambitions to be universal that is to bring together copies of every book on every subject and in every language P rez Fern ndez and Wilson Lee situate Hernando s projects within the rapidly changing landscape of early modern knowledge providing a concise history of the collection of information and the origins of public libraries examining the challenges he faced and the solutions he devised The two authors combine meticulous research with deep and original thought shedding light on the history of libraries and the organization of knowledge The result is an essential reference text for scholars of the early modern period and for anyone interested in the expansion and dissemination of information and knowledge

City Codes Hana Wirth-Nesher, 1996-01-26 City Codes is a study of the representation of the city in the modern novel that takes difference as its point of departure so that cities are read according to the cultural and social position of the urbanite These urban narratives are analysed in the context of a cultural repertoire of city codes from the architectural features of window and street to the social and historical signs of the landmark and the passer by with the emphasis on the subject s construction of his or her place as shaped by history politics nationality gender class and race The study moves from boundaries inscribed onto the cityscape to distances experienced by the city dwellers its real and textual cities are Warsaw Jerusalem New York Chicago Paris London and Dublin The novels discussed are by Isaac Bashevis Singer Amos Oz Theodore Dreiser Ralph Ellison Henry James Henry Roth James Joyce and Virginia Woolf
