Sex Slaves The Trafficking Of Women In Asia:

Sex Slaves T. Louise Brown, 2000 Trafficking in human beings for the sex industry has been practised for centuries What is new is the scale of the trade the ages of those involved and the organization applied to the marketing This text looks behind the wholesomeness of Asian values and takes a controversial approach to the sex industry by viewing it as a product of Asian cultural values There are interviews with sex workers their families clients and the staff of the charities that work with the women Above all the book aims to tell the stories often in their own words of the girls and women who are forced into the trade and to publicize the tragedy of the voiceless women of Asia

Prostitution, Trafficking and Traumatic Stress Melissa Farley, 2003 Prostitution Trafficking and Traumatic Stress documents the violence that runs like a constant thread throughout all types of prostitution including escort brothel trafficking strip club and street prostitution The book presents clinical examples analysis and original research counteracting common myths about the harmlessness of prostitution It explores the connections between prostitution incest sexual harassment rape and battering looks at peer support programs for women escaping prostitution examines clinical symptoms common among prostitutes and much more

Sex Slaves Louise Brown, 2008 Female Sex Trafficking in Asia Vidyamali Samarasinghe, 2012-10-12 Trafficking of women and girls for purposes of sexual exploitation across the globe is widely acknowledged as a leading criminal activity Women of poor countries are particularly vulnerable to sex trafficking This book identifies the patterns causes and consequences of female sex trafficking in Nepal Cambodia and the Philippines Using empirical evidence this book illustrates the commonalities and the differences among the different countries and recommends that serious attention should be paid to location specific dimensions of sex trafficking in designing anti sex trafficking strategies

Sex Trafficking in Southeast Asia Trude Jacobsen, 2016-11-10 This book brings an important new perspective to the study of sex trafficking by considering the different types of social contracts which existed in the past that had sexual labour or activity as an inherent component It outlines the nature of these social institutions marriage temporary marriage debt bondage and slavery which were recognized in local law carried no stigma and endured for long periods It discusses how labour pledged in return for a loan of cash or as a result of a punishment dictated by the state often included sexual labour and how this could take the form of servicing the master of the house his guests or foreign travellers who paid the debt holder for the privilege and how even wives of different ranks temporary or permanent and children were pledged as sureties for loans The book which covers the modern states of Myanmar Thailand Laos Cambodia and Vietnam argues that cultural norms are not static that sexual contracts are more complicated than simply marriage or prostitution and that as trafficking for sexual purposes increases those engaging in humanitarian intervention should improve their knowledge of the historical underpinnings of cultural understandings of familial and contractual obligations

Sex Trafficking in South Asia Mary Crawford, 2010-01-21 Arguing that trafficking in girls and women is a product of the social construction of gender and other dimensions of power and status within a particular culture and at a particular historical moment this book fills a niche in South Asian Studies and Women's Studies Focusing on the case of Nepal it provides a local situated analysis of sex trafficking and a model to counter the universalizing rhetoric of the mass media      Trafficking Women in Korea Sallie Yea, 2015-03-24 Based on in depth ethnographic work this book presents a study of Filipinas trafficked to South Korea focusing on women who entered South Korea as migrant entertainers and subsequently became deployed in exploitative work environments around US military bases there It contributes to the extension of our knowledge about human trafficking in the Asian region through an exploration of the experiences of more than 100 women who took part in the study The book challenges many of the accepted understandings about trafficking victims and unravels the implications of these narrow understandings for the women themselves It explores the ways women negotiate trafficking largely outside of the emerging formal anti trafficking framework and explains how new community formations and social networks emerge crafted by the women themselves to manage and overcome their vulnerabilities in migration      Trafficking Women's Human Rights Julietta Hua, 2011-08 How images of sex trafficking produce notions of race sex and citizenship      Labour Migration and Human Trafficking in Southeast Asia Michele Ford, Lenore Lyons, Willem van Schendel, 2012-04-27 Since the signing of the UN Trafficking Protocol anti trafficking laws policies and other initiatives have been implemented at the local national and regional levels These activities have received little scholarly attention This volume aims to begin to fill this gap by documenting the micro processes through which an anti trafficking framework has been translated implemented and resisted in mainland and island Southeast Asia The detailed ethnographic accounts in this collection examine the everyday practices of the diverse range of actors involved in trafficking like practices and in anti trafficking initiatives In demonstrating how the anti trafficking framework has become influential and even over determining in some border sites and yet remains mostly irrelevant in others the chapters in this collection explore the complex connections between labour migration migrant smuggling and human trafficking      Traffic in Asian Women Laura Hyun Yi Kang, 2020-08-14 In Traffic in Asian Women Laura Hyun Yi Kang demonstrates that the figure of Asian women functions as an analytic with which to understand the emergence decline and permutation of U S power knowledge at the nexus of capitalism state power global governance and knowledge production throughout the twentieth century Kang analyzes the establishment suppression forgetting and illegibility of the Japanese military comfort system 1932 1945 within that broader geohistorical arc Although many have upheld the comfort women case as exemplary of both the past violation and the contemporary empowerment of Asian women Kang argues that it has profoundly destabilized the imaginary unity and conceptual demarcation of the category Kang traces how Asian women have been alternately distinguished and effaced as subjects of the traffic in women sexual slavery and violence against women She also explores how specific modes of redress and justice were determined by several overlapping geopolitical and economic changes ranging from U S guided movements of capital across Asia and the end of the Cold War to the emergence of new media technologies that facilitated the global circulation of comfort women stories

Cultural Sociology of the Middle East, Asia, and Africa Andrea L. Stanton, 2012 In our age of globalization and multiculturalism it has never been more important to understand and appreciate all cultures across the world The four volumes take a step forward in this endeavour by presenting concise information on those regions least well known to students across Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa The volumes convey what daily life is like for people in these selected regions Entries will aid readers in understanding the importance of cultural sociology to appreciate the effects of cultural forces around the world and to learn the history of countries and cultures within these important regions Key Features Topics are explored within historical context in three broad historical periods prehistory to 1250 1250 to 1920 and 1920 to the present One volume each is devoted to the regions of the Middle East and Africa and then one volume to East and Southeast Asia and a final volume to West Central and South Asia The volumes include extensive use of photographs and maps to explain cultural and geographic content Each volume has its own volume editor with expertise in that particular region Key Themes Arts Culture and Science People Society and Dynasties Religion and Law Family and Daily Life Conflicts and Wars Politics and Government Health and Education Economy Trade and Industry National Geography and History

Selling Sex Overseas Ko-lin Chin, James O. Finckenauer, 2012-09-17 2013 Outstanding Book Award Winner from the Division of International Criminology American Society of Criminology Every year thousands of Chinese women travel to Asia and the United States in order to engage in commercial sex work In Selling Sex Overseas Ko lin Chin and James Finckenauer challenge the current sex trafficking paradigm that considers all sex workers as victims or sexual slaves and as unwilling participants in the world of commercial sex Bringing to life an on the ground portrait of this usually hidden world Chin and Finckenauer provide a detailed look at all of its participants sex workers pimps agents mommies escort agency owners brothel owners and drivers Ultimately they probe the social economic and political organization of prostitution and sex trafficking contradicting many of the moral crusaders of the human trafficking world

Travels in the Land of Hunger Domenico Italo Composto-Hart, 2019-11-21 In the spring of 2004 after living in Tokyo Japan for over three years pursuing a career as a freelance musician science fiction and fantasy author Domenico Italo Composto Hart set off on a half year backpacking journey through the lands of East and Southeast Asia Siberia Central Russia the Baltic states the Nordic countries and Eastern and Western Europe Traveling by foot bus train and boat and seeing the world through the analytical lens of anthropology archaeology and economics Domenico documents researches and deciphers the developing nations he encounters as they rise through the turbulence of unregulated Western capitalism and globalization Travels in the Land of Hunger is the author's reflective account of the dark long lasting impact of Western colonialism and imperialism the Vietnam War the Khmer Rouge regime the 1997 Asian financial crisis and the sex tourism and sex trafficking industries in Southeast and East Asia It is also a narrative of finding exotic beauty inspiration inner strength and unexpected love

Cultural Politics of Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Asia Tiantian Zheng, 2016-02-29 In globalizing Asia sexual mores and gender roles are in constant flux How have economic shifts and social changes altered and reconfigured the cultural meanings of gender and sexuality in the region How have the changing political economy and social milieu influenced and shaped the inner workings and micro politics of family structure gender relationships intimate romance transactional sex and sexual behaviors This volume offers up to date grounded critical analysis of the complex intersections of gender sexuality and political economy across a diverse array of Asian societies China Japan Cambodia Vietnam India Pakistan Hong Kong Thailand and Taiwan Based on intense ethnographic fieldwork the chapters disentangle the ways in which gendered and sexual experiences are impinged upon by state policies economic realities cultural ideologies and social hierarchies Whether highlighting intimate relationships between elite businessmen and their mistresses in China nightclub performances by Thai men in Bangkok single women s views of romance motherhood and marriage in Hong Kong Shanghai and Tokyo or male same sex relationships in Pakistan each chapter centers around the stories of the gendered subjects themselves and how they are shaped by outside forces Taken together they provide a provocative entrance into the cultural politics of gender and sexuality in Asia By foregrounding cross cultural ethnographic research this volume sheds light on how configurations of gender and sexuality are constituted negotiated contested transformed and at times perpetuated and reproduced in private intimate experiences It will be of particular interest to students and scholars in anthropology sociology political science and women s and LGBTQ studies

Sex Tourism on the Kenyan Coast Rose Omondi, Chris Ryan, 2024-08-28 This book challenges many suppositions surrounding sex tourism suggesting that elderly males who seek romance and are caught up in their fantasies of finding love with exotic black women are taken advantage of even while the women are often deluding themselves when searching for the mzungu who will enable them to fulfil their dreams of travel house ownership and comfort It is a complex story based on research into the lives of the sex workers obtained from a study conducted over 12 months in the bars and nightclubs of the Kenyan coast Fortunes are made and lost but the tragedy is that the success of the few in achieving their dreams becomes a false promise for the majority who seek to emulate the success of the few The book will be of immense value to those interested in gender studies and indeed those who hold an interest in the complexities of sex work Economic Development, Integration, and Morality in Asia and the Americas Donald C. Wood, 2009-04-09 Explores economic development integration and morality in economic transactions in Asia and the America This title includes chapters that look at underground gambling behavior in China in light of that country s economic boom and retail store expansion and local socioeconomic effects in rural Mexico Many Middle Passages Emma Christopher, Cassandra Pybus, Marcus

Rediker, 2007-09-03 This groundbreaking book presents a global perspective on the history of forced migration over three centuries and illuminates the centrality of these vast movements of people in the making of the modern world Highly original essays from renowned international scholars trace the history of slaves indentured servants transported convicts bonded soldiers trafficked women and coolie and Kanaka labor across the Pacific Indian and Atlantic Oceans They depict the cruelty of the captivity torture terror and death involved in the shipping of human cargo over the waterways of the world which continues unabated to this day At the same time these essays highlight the forms of resistance and cultural creativity that have emerged from this violent history Together the essays accomplish what no single author could provide a truly global context for understanding the experience of men women and children forced into the violent and alienating experience of bonded labor in a strange new world This pioneering volume also begins to chart a new role of the sea as a key site where history is made

Heteronormativity, Passionate Aesthetics and Symbolic Subversion in Asia Saskia Wieringa, 2015 This book examines life trajectories among three categories of women living beyond the bounds of heteronormativity in Jakarta and Delhi two major cities with substantively different religious and social values women who have lost their husbands either through divorce or death sex workers and young urban lesbians The Indian state is constitutionally committed to secularism and equal respect to all regions despite right wing Hindu fundamentalism The Indonesian state is constitutionally secular but religion plays a large role in public life and is embedded in regulations that strongly impact people's private lives Recently there have been strong political currents to impose stricter Islamic codes The public arena of sexual politics in which the media play an important role is explored in both cities

Asian Migrations Tony Fielding, 2015-07-16 This textbook describes and explains the complex reality of contemporary internal and international migrations in East Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach Tony Fielding combines theoretical debate and detailed empirical analysis to provide students with an understanding of the causes and consequences of the many types of contemporary migration flows in the region Key features of Asian Migrations Comprehensive coverage of all forms of migration including labour migration student migration marriage migration displacement and human trafficking Text boxes containing key concepts and theories More than 30 maps and diagrams Equal attention devoted to broad structures e.g. political economy and individual agency e.g. migration behaviours Emphasis on the conceptual and empirical connections between internal and international migrations Exploration of the policy implications of the trends and processes discussed Written by an experienced scholar and teacher of migration studies this is an essential text for courses on East Asian migrations and mobility and important reading for courses on international migration and Asian societies more generally

Irregular Migration and Human Rights: Theoretical, European and International Perspectives Barbara Bogusz, Ryszard Cholewinski, Adam Cygan, Erika Szyszczak, 2004-09-01 Desperate and vulnerable people who take enormous risks to migrate to Europe in rickety boats or concealed in the containers of articulated lorries are familiar images portrayed in the media of irregular migrants Irregular migration has become a major political concern both at the European level and in the wider international context In the European Union politicians have identified irregular migration as a problem and have given priority to preventing this phenomenon in the development of the common asylum and immigration policy This collection of essays is the outcome of an international conference on Irregular Migration and Human Rights which gathered together prominent scholars policy makers and practitioners working in the migration and human rights field The objective of the book in contrast to the prevailing political approach which focuses almost solely on prevention is to discuss the human rights dimensions of irregular migration from theoretical European and international perspectives The book is divided into five substantive parts the complex question of who is an irregular migrant and the difficulties in assessing the size of irregular movements official and popular perceptions of irregular migrants a debate which is frequently considered in terms of security concerns asylum and human trafficking and smuggling the myriad strands of the developing EU law and policy on irregular migration such as the adoption of readmission agreements and the relationship of this law and policy to external border controls in the context of EU enlargement and other non legal means of EU decision making the contributions of international and non governmental actors to charting a rights based approach to irregular migration and the problems these vulnerable persons face while resident in host countries such as discrimination and denial of access to social rights and public services which is inextricably bound up with their irregular status
