Sex Role Socialization A Focus On Women:

Sex Role Socialization Lenore J. Weitzman, 1979 Focus on Women is a scholarly but highly readable supplemental text that discusses how sex appropriate behavior is usually well established by the time children enter elementary school how sex roles are assigned and reinforced through early adulthood and how sex role socialization affects females as they mature and attempt to define their aspirations Also examined are ethnic variations in female sex roles within our society the problem of math anxiety in women influences that help women overcome sex stereotypical behavior and become achievers and societal attitudes toward assertive resolute women Focus on Women United States. Department of Health, Education, and

Welfare. Education Division, 1975 Resources in Women's Educational Equity, 1977 Literature cited in AGRICOLA Dissertations abstracts international ERIC ABI INFORM MEDLARS NTIS Psychological abstracts and Sociological abstracts Selection focuses on education legal aspects career aspects sex differences lifestyle and health Common format bibliographical information descriptors and abstracts and ERIC subject terms used throughout Contains order information Subject author indexes Sociology of Organizations Mary Godwyn, Jody Hoffer Gittel, 2012 A collection of both classic and contemporary studies of organizations that is designed around competing theoretical frameworks this book examines organizations with attention to structure and objectives interactions among members and among organizations the relationship between the organization and its environment and the social significance or social meaning of the organization

On Language and Sexual Politics Deborah Cameron, 2012-12-06 This collection of articles presents a selection of Deborah Cameron's work on language gender and sex in one single volume Arranged thematically this book covers major developments in Anglo American feminist linguistics and Cameron's responses to these spanning the last twenty years The collection's overarching theme is the political relationship between language and gender four distinctly themed sections demonstrate that a variety of forces affect gender relations and gender representations in different times and places Cameron examines the connections between language and the misrepresentation of reality and the role language plays in reproducing gender inequalities More recent articles focus on representations of men and women as communicators as well as the impact of sexuality on gender and gender relations an increasingly prominent area of the author's research This timely study brings much of Cameron's work together for the first time and highlights characteristics of her work with which many readers will be familiar a combination of linguistic and feminist political orientation and a distinct focus on conflict in gender relations Including a new introductory essay and eleven articles three of which are previously unpublished with short introductions to contextualize each piece the collection is extremely useful for students and teachers on a variety of courses including English language and linguistics women's studies gender studies and communication studies Women's Higher Education in Comparative Perspective G.P. Kelly, S. Slaughter, 1991 Focuses on women's access to higher education but also discusses women in the academic workforce Sex-role Socialization Lenore J. Weitzman, 1975 Career Development and Systems Theory Wendy Patton, Mary McMahon, 2014-05-12 Career Development and Systems Theory Connecting Theory and Practice offers practitioners researchers and students a comprehensive introduction to and overview of career theory introduces the Systems Theory Framework of career development and demonstrates its considerable contemporary and innovative application to practice A number of authors have identified the framework as one of a small number of significant innovations in the career development literature The Systems Theory Framework of career development was developed to provide coherence to the career development field by providing a comprehensive conceptualisation of the many existing theories and concepts relevant to understanding career development It is not designed to be a theory of career development rather systems theory is introduced as the basis for an overarching or metatheoretical framework within which all concepts of career development described in the plethora of career theories can be usefully positioned and utilised in both theory and practice It has been applied to the career development of children adolescents and women Since its first publication the Systems Theory Framework has been the basis of numerous publications focusing on theoretical application and integration practice and research with a growing number of these by authors other than the framework developers Its application across cultures also has been emphasised The theoretical and practical unity of the Systems Theory Framework makes this book a worthy addition to the professional libraries of practitioners researchers and students new to or experienced in the field of career development

Resources in Education, 1985-04 Cognitive Therapy with Couples and Groups Arthur Freeman, 2013-11-22 It is with great pride and satisfaction that I welcome the publication of Cognitive Therapy with Couples and Groups For several years Arthur Freeman Director of Clinical Services at the Center for Cognitive Therapy has been a leader in attempting to extend a cognitive approach to new problems and new populations and to expand the approaches for treating the depressed outpatients for whom this approach was first developed Dr Freeman brought to the Center the full range and depth of a diverse clinical background which had and continues to broaden and enrich his work both as a therapist and as a teacher I believe he has applied these dimensions of his experience fully in developing and editing this volume The chapters in this book clearly reflect those clinical problems that have attracted the keenest interest on the part of practicing cognitive therapist which are encountered so frequently in the course of treating depression The utilization of cognitive therapy with couples families groups and in training is a clear example of this process an intriguing topic in its own right Conversely coping with special clinical phenomena such as loneliness is a familiar problem to therapists of depressed patients Laura Primakoff demonstrates her creativity and experience in her treatment of this subject Similarly the chapters on alcoholism and agoraphobia are timely elaborations of the original cognitive model for the individual treatment of depression      Sex Roles Helen S. Astin, Allison Parelman, Anne Fisher, 1975      Gender and Education [2 volumes] Barbara J. Bank, 2007-09-30 Exploring the intersection of gender and education this work includes entries that deal with educational theories research curricula practices personnel and policies but also with variations in the gendering of education across history and cultural contexts It includes discussions on gender as a social construction      Social Psychological Foundations of Health and Illness Jerry Suls, Kenneth A. Wallston, 2008-04-15 Social Psychological Foundations of Health and Illness is a summary of current research in social health psychology The chapters written by distinguished leaders in the field provide brief surveys of classic developments in each area of study followed by extended discussion of the authors research programs Includes state of the art descriptions of new findings and theories concerning social aspects of physical health and illness Discusses virtually all of the major topics studied in the contemporary field of social health psychology Contains chapters written by leading figures in the field that discuss their own research within the context of classic efforts      Interdisciplinary Research Allen F. Repko, Rick Szostak, 2016-03-31 The Third Edition of Interdisciplinary Research Process and Theory offers a comprehensive and systematic presentation of the interdisciplinary research process and the theory that informs it Authors Allen F Repko and Rick Szostak illustrate each step of the decision making process by drawing on student and professional work from the natural sciences social sciences humanities and applied fields Designed for active learning and problem based approaches as well as for more traditional approaches the book now includes more examples from real student research projects and adds more tables and figures to enliven the discussion      Sex, Love, and Romance in the Mass Media Mary-Lou Galician, 2004-07-16 This accessible yet research based text offers both foundational theories and practical applications of analysis and criticism of mass media portrayals of sex love and romance in a wide variety of mass media from entertainment to advertising to news The multidisciplinary methodological perspective comes out of a media literacy approach and embraces a variety of traditions along the quantitative qualitative continuum Focused on portrayals of male female coupleship the book is centered around the 12 major myths and stereotypes of Galician s Dr FUN s Mass Media Love Quiz each of which has a corresponding Dr Galician Prescription that encapsulates healthy strategies rarely found in the mass media to counteract that myth or stereotype Readers learn how to identify illustrate deconstruct evaluate and reframe the mass media s mythic and stereotypic portrayals of sex love and romance They also learn how to use their own formal critical evaluations to clarify their own values and as media consumers or mass communication creators to share their insights with others Thus the learning objectives encompass all three major educational domains cognitive affective and behavioral Part I of this book covers the five foundations myths and stereotypes of love and coupleship models of realistic and constructive love and coupleship mass media storytelling approaches techniques and devices research and theories of mass media effects and strategies and skills of media literacy Part II is devoted to exploring the myths and stereotypes identified in the Quiz

Following several brief case studies and a summary of related research and commentary each chapter focuses on analyses and criticisms of portrayals of sex love and romance in the content of news and advertising as well as entertainment using Galician's Seven Step Disillusioning Directions Each chapter concludes with a Disillusion Digest While critical of unrealistic portrayals and the damage they can cause unsuspecting media consumers Galician a media literacy advocate is not anti media Rather her goal is to empower consumers to use these portrayals with more awareness of their possible consequences to resist adopting them as models for actual behavior and to consciously reframe them into more realistic productive scenarios This unique text is an engaging classroom resource for media literacy media and relationships and media and society coursework     Resources in Women's Educational Equity: Special Issue ,1979     Psychology.
