Bamboo Promise Vicheara Houn, 2012-03-22 This is the autobiography of a woman who grew up as the sheltered and privileged only child of a wealthy prominent Cambodian family In her young life she was oblivious of the impoverished lives of the underclass in Cambodia and of the politics and world events that were sweeping her and her country toward one of the great catastrophes of the 20th century The rich Cambodian culture and all the competing Western influences are vividly displayed in her descriptions of her life with her father as he tries to mold her into a highly educated and independent woman who still exemplifies all the virtues of the idealized traditional Cambodian woman The political tides that enveloped Southeast Asia in the 1970s began to become real to Vicheara when her father's responsibilities in the Lon Nol government caused him to personally negotiate with a group of Khmer Rouge insurgents including inviting them to a dinner at his home On April 17 1975 Pol Pot the monstrous leader of the communist guerrilla organization transformed Cambodia the country of his birth into a Prison Without Walls This was one week before the fall of Saigon Vietnam This extreme form of radical communism eliminated religion culture
