Nothing but Time Judy Light Ayyildiz, 2001-04-04 Our great author of CATCH 22 Joseph Heller told of his experience with Guillain Barre in NO LAUGHING MATTER Now Judy Light Ayyildiz equals and in some ways surpasses his account in her book Nothing but Time Walter James Miller author co author or editor of 67 books and LOVES MAINLAND This book is truly an inspiration for anyone who has ever run into a brick wall in life Simone Poirier Bures author of three memoirs including CANDYMAN interesting and well written great job of interspersing personal vignettes purchase copy for neurology house staff library and also for chaplains office insightful for health care workers dealing with GBS patients perhaps especially nurses P T s etc Dr James Q Miller Prof Neurology Univ VA Medical Center Judys body is tricked by a virus into attacking itself She wakes up paralyzed Her creative mind fights back with the themes and spirit in the stories of her life Armed with insight gleaned from her own stories about events and people in her past and present both in Turkey and the US and told with restrained humor and often with Appalachian flavor Judy discovers that her spiritual desire to walk is stronger than the fear of falling Throughout the reader feels like an intimate friend Her sudden immobility motivates her to look for meaning in this unexpected crisis caused when a virus tricks the bodys immune system into attacking itself betrayal of an enemy within brings out a more relevant need for self reflection which Ayyildiz does in a gentle and insightful way She relates memories of childhood courtship child raising and other life events revealing the interconnections within her life NbT is a beautiful study of a womans psyche as she experiences great trauma and portrays how one can balance her own recovery with her responsibilities to her children and partner With wonderful metaphors and a healthy dose of humor Judy engages the reader and turns a depressing situation into an inspiring story about courage in the face of a huge setback in life Eser Turan TURQUAZ MAGAZINE a compelling odyssey of lifes house of cards dealing with the hand dealt very inspirational terrific skillful style of looking back casting the net to bring the reader in to the psyche the reality check of the present the wary peering around the uncertain corner ahead with its capricious nature The emotional detail throughout is what makes the book because its riveting honesty pulls the reader forward encouraging understanding its independent strength not necessarily seeking sympathy for its own sake Helen Canuk DC a heartening book that takes you by the hand through a fearful landscape and out onto the other side The writing is often lyrical the emerging self buoyant but what I valued most is the unremitting honesty Bell Gale Chevigny DOING TIME 25 YEARS of PRISON WRITING a PEN American Center prize anthology NYC gripping Donna Miles Toronto Canada A captivating testimony to the human spirit and Enlightenment Unfolds Kazuaki Tanahashi, 2000-06-06 Enlightenment Unfolds is a sequel to Kaz Tanahashi's previous collection Moon in a Dewdrop which has become a primary source on Dogen for Western Zen students. Dogen Zenji 1200-1253 is unquestionably the most significant religious figure in Japanese history. Founder of the Soto school of Zen which emphasizes the practice of zazen or sitting meditation, he was a prolific writer whose works have remained popular for six hundred years. Enlightenment Unfolds presents even more of the incisive and inspiring writings of this seminal figure, focusing on essays from his great life work Treasury of the True Dharma Eye as well as poems, talks, and correspondence, much of which appears here in English for the first time. Tanahashi has brought together his own translations of Dogen with those of some of the most respected Zen teachers and writers of our own day, including Reb Anderson, Edward Espe Brown, Norman Fisher, Gil Fronsdal, Blanche Hartman, Jane Hirschfield, Daniel Leighton, Alan Senauke, Katherine Thanas, Mel Weitzman, and Michael Wenger.

Moon in a Dewdrop Dōgen, 1985 Eihei Dogen 1200-1253 among the first to transmit Zen Buddhism from China to Japan and founder of the important Soto School, was not only a profoundly influential and provocative Zen philosopher but also one of the most stimulating figures in Japanese letters. Kazuaki Tanahashi, collaborating with several other Zen authorities, has produced sensitive and accurate translations of Dogen's most important texts. Moon in a Dewdrop contains the key essays of the great master as well as extensive background materials that will help Western readers to approach this significant work. There is also a selection of Dogen's poetry, most of which has not appeared in English translation before. Dogen's thought runs counter to conventional logic, employing paradoxical language and startling imagery. It illuminates such fundamental concerns as the nature of time, existence, life, death, the self, and what is beyond self.

The Einstein Illusion Samuel Louis Dael, The Catholic Crusoe William Henry Anderdon, 1867 Time Matters, 7th edition Alexandre Kassiantchouk, Two years ago I started this book by explaining why the ancient Universe is red or infrared and how spiral galaxies counter centrifugal force from breaking them. Now I finish it with an explanation of how galaxies appeared from nothing but space and time and where antimatter is. In the preface below you will find a list of long-standing problems solved in this book. Physicists, please read chapter 61 first; there I explain physics of observations for electrons, atoms, and Black Holes. I hope you enjoy reading my book as I enjoyed writing it.

Foundation D. G. Leahy, 1996-01-01 This book presents the ontological and logical foundation of a new form of thinking, the beginning of an absolute phenomenology. It does so in the context of the history of thought in Europe and America. It explores the ramifications of a categorically new logic. Thinkers dealt with include Plato, Galileo, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Marx, Nietzsche, Husserl, Heidegger, Peirce, James, Dewey, Derrida, McDermott, and Altizer.

The Adventures of Owen

Evans Rev. W.H. Anderdon, The Heart Could Never Speak George Pattison,2013-06-25 The book offers an interpretation of a posthumously published poem by Edwin Muir 1887 1959 beginning The heart could never speak But that the Word was spoken The poem is read as summing up Muir s lifelong struggle with fundamental questions about the meaning of existence questions often developed in dialogue with such figures as Nietzsche Hlderlin and Kafka These references allow us to bring Muir into conversation with modern existentialist philosophy and theology and Muir s poetic thought is seen as both illuminating and as illuminated by such existentialist thinkers as Heidegger Bultmann Kierkegaard and Berdyaev Themes such as death time love the nature of language and the alienation brought about by technological mass society and the threat of nuclear catastrophe are central to the poem s subject matter and are dealt with by Muir in such a way as to make possible a Christian version of existentialist thought The perennial nature of such questions in modern society makes the poem as relevant to contemporary issues in religious thought today as when it was written For all its simplicity it is the argument of the book that it makes an abiding contribution to human self understanding Grammar of the Persian language Matthew Lumsden (LL.D., Professor of Arabic, College of Fort William, Bengal.),1810 D. G. Leahy and the Thinking Now Occurring Lissa McCullough, Elliot R. Wolfson,2021-09-01 This book offers a critical introduction to the work of American philosopher D G Leahy 1937 2014 Leahy s fundamental thinking can be characterized as an absolute creativity in which all creating is live a happening occurring now that manifests a supersaturated polyontological actuality that is essentially created by the logic that characterizes it Leahy leaves behind the categorial presuppositions of modern thought eclipsing both Cartesian and Hegelian subjectivities and introducing instead an essentially new form of thinking founded in a nondual logic of creation The new thinking delineates the absolute unicity of existence as a creative interactivity beyond all traditional dichotomies such as one vs many unity vs plurality identity vs change a fully digitized actuality that is nothing but newness which inherently implies nothing but change Through this new form of thinking change itself is revealed to be the very essence of reality and mind Any reader looking for a quantum leap beyond the thrall of modern and postmodern fixations is invited to hear and apprehend this new thinking that refuses to be conditioned by paradigms categories species genera walls bridges boundaries or abstractions an essentially free thinking that embodies creative novelty itself From the Heart Jeffrey L. Kosky,2025-02-25 What does it mean to have a heart How does it feel when a heart fails and what does it take to recover In a world beset by never ending crises personal and collective local and global is heartlessness the only option From the Heart weaves together a personal narrative of a life threatening ailment with considerations of philosophy art and science to contemplate ultimate questions matters of life and death Jeffrey L Kosky recounts his brush with death the surgical repair of a congenital defect in his aortic valve his gradual recovery of everyday life and his struggle to find the heart to go on throughout it all To make sense of the experience he immerses himself in humanistic inquiry and medical science the histories of medicine cardiac surgery and knowledge of the human heart as well as the works of artists writers philosophers and theologians Writing about the experience of being human from the precarious position of his own woundedness Kosky shares hard earned perspectives on what matters most Combining moving memoir encounters with major authors and artists and heartfelt reflections on the big questions of existence this elegantly written book is at once erudite and powerful It shows us why the heart in physical emotional and metaphorical senses helps us come to terms with sickness and health dying and living
