Notion Of Tribe:

The Notion of Tribe Morton Herbert Fried, 1975 Economy and Society Max Weber, 1978 Understanding Dan Mark Walter Bartusch, 2003-06-01 This book investigates the Dan Danite tradition in the Hebrew Bible to determine not only what the Bible tells us about Dan but also how far traditions about the territory city ancestor and tribe may have influenced each other Bartusch argues that the political and theological interests reflected in the relatively late work of the Deuteronomistic Historian have cast a shadow over some earlier traditions and that by combining social science models and newer literary criticism with the more traditional historical critical methodologies the original meaning of the traditions of Dan may be recovered and clarified The conclusion of such a study is that the Hebrew Bible as a whole does not entirely support the negative portrayal of Dan in its later traditions The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Readings on Tribe and Religions in India Maguni Charan Behera, 2024-10-08 Tribal societies in India observe a diverse set of religious practices which are a quintessential part of their community life This handbook explores rituals beliefs ceremonies and festivals liturgy knowledge and traditions that tribal people practice today and traces the history of their interaction with other religions communities and cultures The book provides analytical intellectual and cultural insights into the religious tradition of tribes within the interactive space of a pan Indian civilisation It examines contemporary religious practice within tribes while also exploring changes either brought on by interactions or political interventions The volume reflects on the intersections of cultural or political life of communities and their religious worldviews The book also discusses the processes of assimilation or adoption of different religion or religious traditions by tribes and the challenges of detribalisation and shrinking populations of vulnerable groups It explores both established and emerging dynamics in the field of tribe and religion and provides a look into the unique systems of kinship worship and life within many different tribal communities in India This and its companion handbook The Routledge Handbook of Tribe and Religions in India Contemporary Readings on Spirituality Belief and Identity provide a comprehensive look into the religious life and practices of a very diverse group of tribes in India It will be of interest to academics and researchers working in the fields of religion anthropology indigenous and tribal studies social and cultural anthropology sociology of culture sociology of religion development studies history political science folkloristic and colonialism Theorization of Ex-Criminal Tribes Y.C. Simhadri, Sudhakar Yedla, 2023-12-13 This book is based on intense research work and consultation conducted over a long period presents circumstances under which certain tribes in Andhra Pradesh are placed to keep on living through criminal activities It explains why particular tribes become crime prone and why and how they have been branded and notified as criminal tribes It deals with the structure of the village criminal tribe settlements and approaches the problem of tribal criminology from a structural perspective It studies the criminal behaviour that could be related to social situations that prevail in the two ex criminal settlements in Andhra Pradesh and examines the structure and organization of this group as well as changes that have been taking place as far as their criminal activities are concerned The analysis in this book focuses on the sociological and anthropological circumstances under which the criminal tribes become criminals and continued to be called as criminals although most of them as a group have since stopped criminal activities

Tribes and State Formation in the Middle East Philip Shukry Khoury, Joseph Kostiner, 1990 Offering a fuller understanding of the complexities and particular patterns of state formation in regions where tribes have exercised a significant influence this volume focuses on the continuing existence of tribal structures and systems in contemporary times within contemporary nation states The contributors offer hypotheses as to why these groups have managed to survive and what impact they have had on modern states backcover

The Origins of Chinese Civilization David N. Keightley, 2023-11-15 The seventeen contributors to this interdisciplinary volume bring to the study of early China the analytical concerns of archeology art history botany climatology cultural and physical anthropology ethnography epigraphy linguistics metallurgy and political and social history Readers interested in such topics as the origin of rice or millet agriculture the origin of writing the nature of the tribe and the processes of state formation will find much value here They will find too major hypotheses about the cultural importance of ecogeographical zones in China Neolithic interaction between the east coast and Central Plains the remarkable homogeneity of early Chinese crania and the links between the Hsia Shang and Chou dynasties Relying on recently published archaeological evidence and the insights gained from carbon 14 and thermoluminescent datings the authors provide original and significant interpretations of the nature of Chinese civilization in its formative stage and the processes by which civilizations form Since there is little doubt that the complex of culture traits which defines Chinese civilization in the second and first millennia B C developed from a Chinese Neolithic stage the origin of the Chinese civilization is worth studying not only in its own right but as an instance of the indigenous development of civilizations in general This volume will appeal to all who are interested in the genesis of civilization and the transition from the Neolithic to the Bronze Age it summarizes that state of present knowledge about China and suggests research strategies and hypotheses for the future Contributors Noel Barnard K C Chang Te Tzu Chang Cheung Kwong Yue Wayne H Fogg Ursula Martius Franklin Morton H Fried W W Howells Louisa G Fitzgerald Huber Karl Jettmar David N Keightley Fang Kuei Li Hui Lin Li William Meacham Richard Pearson E G Pulleyblank Robert Orr Whyte This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1983

Tribe, Poverty and Exploitation Jagannath Rath, 2022-01-01 The present study is designed with analytical sophistication theoretical soundness and empirical grounding to bring in deeper critical insights into an understanding of the incidence of poverty and nature of exploitation of tribes in the process of development with the Kandhs of Koraput district in Odisha as case study Undoubtedly the volume will be useful to those interested in equitable participatory inclusive and sustainable tribal development

2011 Libyan Uprisings and the Struggle for the Post-Qadhafi Future J. Pack, 2013-06-18 The 2011 Libyan Uprisings is a thematic investigation of how pre existing social regional tribal and religious fissures influenced the trajectory of the 2011 Libyan Uprisings and an analysis of what this means for the post Qadhafi future Caging the Rainbow Francesca Merlan, 1998-05-01 Caging the Rainbow explores the lives of Aborigines in the small regional town of Katherine Northern Territory Australia Francesca Merlan combines ethnography and theory to grapple with issues surrounding the debate about the authenticity of contemporary cultural activity Throughout the vulnerability of Fourth World peoples to others representations of them and the ethical problems this poses are kept in view Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Politics Olivia U. Rutazibwa, Robbie Shilliam, 2018-02-21 Engagements with the postcolonial world by International Relations scholars have grown significantly in recent years The Routledge Handbook of Postcolonial Politics provides a solid reference point for understanding and analyzing global politics from a perspective sensitive to the multiple legacies of colonial and imperial rule The Handbook introduces and develops cutting edge analytical frameworks that draw on Black decolonial feminist indigenous Marxist and postcolonial thought as well as a multitude of intellectual traditions from across the globe Alongside empirical issue areas that remain crucial to assessing the impact of European and Western colonialism on global politics the book introduces new issue areas that have arisen due to the mutating structures of colonial and imperial rule This vital resource is split into five thematic sections each featuring a brief orienting introduction Points of departure Popular postcolonial imaginaries Struggles over the postcolonial state Struggles over land Alternative global imaginaries Providing both a consolidated understanding of the field as it is and setting an expansive and dynamic research agenda for the future this handbook is essential reading for students and scholars of International Relations alike Tribe-Class Linkages Saqib Khan, 2023-12-29 This book is a historical study of the development of agrarian class relations among the tribal population in Tripura Tracing the evolution of Tripura and its agrarian relations from monarchy in the nineteenth century to democracy in the twentieth century the book discusses the nature of the erstwhile princely state of Tripura analyses the emergence of differentiation within tribes and documents the emergence of the tribal movement in the state It specifically focuses on the tribal movement led by the Ganamukti Parishad beginning with the historic revolt of 1948-51 against state repression on the tribal people followed by the mass movements in the 1950s and 1960s which were founded on a recognition of class relations and the slogan of unity across the tribal and non tribal Bengali peasantry The first of its kind the book will be indispensable for students and researchers of tribal studies agrarian studies exclusion studies tribe class relationships minority studies sociology development studies history political science north east India studies and South Asian studies It will also be useful for activists and policymakers working in the area Education and Society in a Changing Mizoram Lakshmi Bhatia, 2012-12-06 Located in the domain of cultural politics the book with rich ethnographical data from Mizoram a lesser known and understood state brings the community state and culture to centre stage along with family and stratification of the sociological discourse in education The book argues for a re look at school education in Mizoram besides providing critical insights into the North East region as a whole It also points to the dilemmas of development in that region and suggests possible ways out of the impasse Marking a significant departure from conventional thinking on education as human capital as reflected in North East Vision 2020 the book strongly advocates the need for critical pedagogies based on learning from conflict inculcating the values of tolerance and compassion as a precursor to peace reconceptualising development not merely as economic but as indicator of national happiness and valuing lives equally besides respect for traditional institutions thus marking a break from the much resented paternalism that underpins all state interventions in education One of the first studies of its kind regarding experience and practice of education the book makes an important contribution to the role that education can play to usher in peace and promote respect for differences

These "Thin Partitions" Joshua Englehardt, Ivy Rieger, 2017-05-15 These Thin Partitions explores the intellectual and methodological differences that separate two of the four subdisciplines within the field of anthropology archaeology and cultural anthropology Contributors examine the theoretical underpinnings of this separation and explore what can be gained by joining them both in university departments and in field research In case studies highlighting the benefits of interdisciplinary collaboration contributors argue that anthropologists and archaeologists are simply not speaking the same language and that the division between fields undermines the field of anthropology as a whole Scholars must bridge this gap and find ways to engage in interdisciplinary collaboration to promote the health of the anthropological discipline By sharing data methods and ideas archaeology and cultural anthropology can not only engage in more productive debates but also make research accessible to those outside academia These Thin Partitions gets to the heart of a well known problem in the field of anthropology and contributes to the ongoing debate by providing concrete examples of how interdisciplinary collaboration can enhance the outcomes of anthropological research Contributors Fredrik Fahlander Lilia Fernandez Souza Kent Fowler Donna Goldstein Joseph R Hellweg Derek Johnson Ashley Kistler Vincent M LaMotta John Monaghan William A Parkinson Paul Shankman David Small

Frontier Nomads of Iran Richard Tapper, 1997-08-28 Richard Tapper's 1997 book which is based on three decades of ethnographic fieldwork and extensive documentary research traces the political and social history of the Shahsevan one of the major nomadic peoples of Iran The story is a dramatic one recounting the mythical origins of the tribes their unification as a confederacy and their decline under the Pahlavi Shahs The book is intended as a contribution to three different debates The first concerns the riddle of Shahsevan origins while another considers how far changes in tribal social and political formations are a function of relations with states The third discusses how different constructions of the identity of a particular people determine their view of the past In this way the book promises not only to make a major contribution to the history and anthropology of the Middle East and Central Asia but also to theoretical debates in both disciplines

Indigenist Mobilization Luisa Steur, 2017-05-01 In Kerala political activists with a background in Communism are now

instead asserting political demands on the basis of indigenous identity Why did a notion of indigenous belonging come to replace the discourse of class in subaltern struggles Indigenist Mobilization answers this question through a detailed ethnographic study of the dynamics between the Communist party and indigenist activists and the subtle ways in which global capitalist restructuring leads to a resonance of indigenist visions in the changing everyday working lives of subaltern groups in Kerala

Hayes, 2000-05 This anthology is designed to introduce the reader to the contours and content of African American Studies The text and readings included here not only impart information but seek as their foremost goal to precipitate in the reader an awareness of the complex and changing character of the African American experience its origins developments and future challenges The book aims to engage readers in the critical analysis of a broad spectrum of subjects themes and issues ancient and medieval Africa Western European domination and African enslavement resistance to oppression African American expressive culture family and educational policies economic and political matters and the importance of ideas The materials included in this anthology comprise a discussion of some of the fundamental problems and prospects related to the African American experience that deserve attention in a course in African American Studies African American Studies is a broad field concerned with the examination of the black experience both historically and presently Hence the subjects themes and issues included in this text transcend the narrow confines of traditional academic disciplinary boundaries In selecting materials for this book Floyd W Hayes was guided by a developmental or historical approach in the general compilation of each section s readings By doing so the author hopes that the reader will be enabled to arrive at a critical understanding of the conditions and forces that have influenced the African American experience A Collegiate Press book

The Himalayan Border Region Christoph Bergmann, 2016-04-18 Drawing from extensive archival work and long term ethnographic research this book focuses on the so called Bhotiyas former trans Himalayan traders and a Scheduled Tribe of India who reside in several high valleys of the Kumaon Himalaya The area is located in the border triangle between India the Tibet Autonomous Region TAR People s Republic of China and Nepal where contestations over political boundaries have created multiple challenges as well as opportunities for local mountain communities Based on an analytical framework that is grounded in and contributes to recent advances in the field of border studies the author explores how the Bhotiyas have used their agency to develop a flourishing trans Himalayan trade under British colonial influence to assert an identity and win legal recognition as a tribal community in the political setup of independent India and to innovate their pastoral mobility in the context of ongoing state and market reforms By examining the Bhotiyas trade identity and mobility this book shows how and why the Himalayan border region has evolved as an agentive site of political action for a variety of different actors

The Archaeology of Tribal Societies William A. Parkinson, 2002-03-01 Anthropological archaeologists have long attempted to develop models that will let them better understand the evolution of human social organization In our search to understand how chiefdoms and states evolve and how those societies differ from egalitarian bands we have neglected to develop models that will aid the understanding of the wide range of variability that exists between them This volume attempts to fill this gap by exploring social organization in tribal or autonomous village societies from several different ethnographic ethnohistoric and archaeological contexts from the Pre Pottery Neolithic Period in the Near East to the contemporary Jivaro of Amazonia Between Caravan and Sultan: The Bayruk of Southern Morocco Mohamed Hassan Mohamed, 2012-02-22 This work presents a study of the history and identity of the Moroccan Bayruk family The first part of the book gives an outline of the main referents in both the Bayruk vision of self and academic discourses on Maghribian history the dynasty caravan and tribe It identifies discrepancies in scholarly presentations of the Bayruk and traces them back to two overlapping issues of translation and conception For the remainder of the book a variety of sources are used to highlight the role of textuality in the creation of the Bayruk image in academic discourse As a result this book demonstrates how the Bayruk family can be used as a case study to revise the existing interpretations of Maghribian history and modes of identification
