Foothold on a Hillside Charless Caraway, 1986 In a style reminiscent of the master storytellers of yore Charless Caraway recounts the story of his life as a man and a boy on small farms in Saline and Jackson counties particularly around Eldorado Makanda and Etherton Switch He makes no bones about the hardships of those old days first helping his father eke out a living from the land then scrambling for a living as a sharecropper and fruit picker as he scrimped and saved for the day when he and his young wife Bessie Mae Rowan Caraway could buy a piece of land of their own The one room school the general store the trips by wagon over roads that choked you in summer and swallowed you in winter the home that burned all are described in a matter of fact yet moving way Many of the locations buildings and people are represented in equally unromanticized photographs from the family's collection Some of the stories and photos recall the common disasters of the frontier drought flood and the tornado of 1925 It is clear from these stories that each aspect of life exacted a price but the Caraways paid that price without regret and rallied to go on their way Charless and his family and friends fill this book with courage strength and an unshakable faith in the value of human endeavor
