Nouveau Roman Reader:

The Nouveau Roman Reader John Fletcher, John Calder, 1986 A Reader's Guide to the Twentieth-century Novel in Britain Randall Stevenson, 1993-01-01 The novel is the major literary phenomenon of the twentieth century and its development in Britain since 1900 has reflected the tumultuous changes that have characterized modern society Randall Stevenson now presents an accessible and authoritative guide to the work of the century's leading novelists as well as many of its lesser known writers In this stimulating and wide ranging account Stevenson locates the work of individual writers from Conrad to Jeanette Winterson within an evolving literary history and the wider context of social political and cultural change Included are British writers working in exile and writers with origins elsewhere such as James and Rushdie who have chosen to work in Britain Women novelists are accorded their rightful prominence This clear and lively survey deals with a broad range of movements including modernism and postmodernism as well as the influence of other world literatures and the impact of two world wars An ideal text this is a guide in the best sense concise and lucid well informed and perceptive Readers new to the field will appreciate Stevenson's clear direction while the experienced will be delighted by newly revealed connections and fresh perspectives

The Reader in the Text Susan Rubin Suleiman, Inge Crosman, 2014-07-14 A reader may be in a text as a character is in a novel but also as one is in a train of thought both possessing and being possessed by it This paradox suggests the ambiguities inherent in the concept of audience In these original essays a group of international scholars raises fundamental questions about the status be it rhetorical semiotic and structuralist phenomenological subjective and psychoanalytic sociological and historical or hermeneutic of the audience in relation to a literary or artistic text Originally published in 1980 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Detecting Texts Patricia Merivale, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 2011-06-07 Although readers of detective fiction ordinarily expect to learn the mystery's solution at the end there is another kind of detective story the history of which encompasses writers as diverse as Poe Borges Robbe Grillet Auster and Stephen King that ends with a question rather than an answer The detective not only fails to solve the crime but also confronts insoluble mysteries of interpretation and identity As the contributors to Detecting Texts contend such stories belong to a distinct genre the metaphysical detective story in which the detective hero's inability to interpret the mystery inevitably casts doubt on the reader's similar attempt to make sense of the text and the world Detecting Texts includes an introduction by the editors that defines the metaphysical detective story and traces its history from Poe's classic tales to today's postmodernist experiments In addition to the editors contributors include Stephen Bernstein Joel Black John

T Irwin Jeffrey T Nealon and others Reading Between the Lines Jean H. Duffy, 1998-01-01 This is the first extended analysis of Simon's novels examining the relationship between the work of the French Nobel prize winning novelist Claude Simon and that of a number of visual artists whose work he has used as stimuli in the production of his novels Subversive Intent Susan Rubin Suleiman, 1990 With this important new book Susan Suleiman lays the foundation for a postmodern feminist poetics and theory of the avant garde She shows how the figure of Woman as fantasy myth or metaphor has functioned in the work of male avant garde writers and artists of this century Focusing also on women's avant garde artistic practices Suleiman demonstrates how to read difficult modern works in a way that reveals their political as well as their aesthetic impact Suleiman directly addresses the subversive intent of avant garde movements from Surrealism to postmodernism Through her detailed readings of provocatively transgressive works by Andr Breton Georges Bataille Roland Barthes Alain Robbe Grillet Marcel Duchamp Max Ernst and others Suleiman demonstrates the central role of the female body in the male erotic imagination and illuminates the extent to which masculinist assumptions have influenced modern art and theory By examining the work of contemporary women avantgarde artists and theorists including H l ne Cixous Marguerite Duras Monique Wittig Luce Irigaray Angela Carter Jeanette Winterson Leonora Carrington Barbara Kruger Jenny Holzer and Cindy Sherman Suleiman shows the political power of feminist critiques of patriarchal ideology and especially emphasizes the power of feminist humor and parody Central to Suleiman's revisionary theory of the avant garde is the figure of the playful laughing mother True to the radically irreverent spirit of the historical avant gardes and their postmodernist successors Suleiman's laughing mother embodies the need for a link between symbolic innovation and political and social change From Trocchi to Trainspotting - Scottish Critical Theory Since 1960 Michael Gardiner, 2006-07-04 This book charts the course of Scottish Critical Theory since the 1960s It provocatively argues that French critical theoretical ideas have developed in tandem with Scottish writing during this period Its themes can be read as a breakdown in Scottish Enlightenment thinking after empire precisely the process which permitted the rise of theory The book places within a wider theoretical context writers such as Muriel Spark Edwin Morgan Ian Hamilton Finlay James Kelman Alexander Trocchi Janice Galloway Alan Warner and Irvine Welsh as well as more recent work by Alan Riach and Pat Kane who can be seen to take the post Enlightenment narrative forward In doing so it draws on the work of the Scottish thinkers John Macmurray and R D Laing as well as the continental philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Paul Virilio Reading Unruly Zahi Zalloua, 2014-05-01 Drawing on literary theory and canonical French literature Reading Unruly examines unruliness as both an aesthetic category and a mode of reading conceived as ethical response Zahi Zalloua argues that when faced with an unruly work of art readers confront an ethical double bind hesitating then between the two conflicting injunctions of either thematizing making sense of the literary work or attending to its aesthetic alterity or unreadability Creatively hesitating between incommensurable demands to interpret but not to translate back into familiar terms ethical readers are invited to cultivate an appreciation for the unruly to curb the desire for hermeneutic mastery without simultaneously renouncing meaning or the interpretive endeavor as such Examining French texts from Montaigne's sixteenth century Essays to Diderot's fictional dialogue Rameau's Nephew and Baudelaire's prose poems The Spleen of Paris to the more recent works of Jean Paul Sartre's Nausea Alain Robbe Grillet's Jealousy and Marguerite Duras's The Ravishing of Lol Stein Reading Unruly demonstrates that in such an approach to literature and theory reading itself becomes a desire for more an ethical and aesthetic desire to prolong rather than to arrest the act of interpretation

The Arts in the West Since 1945 Arthur Marwick, 2002 The Arts hold a revered and respected place within modern Western society but what exactly defines culture what gives it this enigmatic status what influences its composition and propagation what controls and limitations is it subject to and what can it achieve within our world Arthur Marwick tackles these issues head on with a both detailed and eclectic account of the Arts in the West since the Second World War He looks at the full range of possible candidates for the category of Art from both elite and popular cultures from high literature to pulp fiction from art house cinema to soap opera Art Music to Rock and Pop This book looks at the fascinating diversity of twentieth century art in the context of the social technological and political events movements and developments that have shaped our history such as the holocaust the television feminism Marwick examines how these factors have affected the cultural output of Western society since 1945 and in turn how art has fed back its own agenda and priorities into this society

The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory H. Meretoja, 2014-10-06 The Narrative Turn in Fiction and Theory explores the philosophical and historical underpinnings of the postwar crisis and return of storytelling and shows their relevance for the ongoing debate on the significance of narrative for human existence

Narcissistic Narrative Linda Hutcheon, 2013-05-22 Linda Hutcheon in this original study examines the modes forms and techniques of narcissistic fiction that is fiction which includes within itself some sort of commentary on its own narrative and or linguistic nature Her analysis is further extended to discuss the implications of such a development for both the theory of the novel and reading theory Having placed this phenomenon in its historical context Linda Hutcheon uses the insights of various reader response theories to explore the paradox created by metafiction

the reader is at the same time co creator of the self reflexive text and distanced from it because of its very self reflexivity She illustrates her analysis through the works of novelists such as Fowles Barth Nabokov Calvino Borges Carpentier and Aquin For the paperback edition of this important book a preface has been added which examines developments since first publication Narcissistic Narrative was selected by Choice as one of the outstanding academic books for 1981 1982

Reading the Times Randall Stevenson,2018-02-01 Wartime British writers took to the airwaves to reshape the nation and the Empire Reading Joyce's Circe ,2022-06-08 This volume is the product of five years work conducted by the London University Joyce Group on Circe the longest chapter in Joyce s Ulysses The essays explore specific clearly defined themes ventriloquy stage directions England provection Circe as a meditation on the problem of totalization the relationships between Circe and the Irish Literary Theatre and between the early draft of Circe in V A 19 and the first edition text But the volume also locates discussion within the framework of recent thought about the chapter The primary features of current thinking on Circe would seem to be a certain scepticism with regard to totalizing accounts of the chapter increasing attention to its aesthetic and discursive aspects including the political aspects of its discursive practices more concentrated reflection on the way in which Circe recycles material from other chapters in Ulysses and a growing emphasis on the need to think about the chapter in more plural terms The essays included here build on such developments to provide an original contribution to recent debate over the aesthetics of Circe

Difficult Reading Jason R. Marley,2023-09-07 Difficult Reading offers a new approach to formal experimentation in Caribbean literature In this insightful study Jason Marley demonstrates how the aggressive antagonistic elements common to the mid twentieth century Caribbean novel foster emotional responses that spark new forms of communal resistance against colonial power Marley illustrates how experimental Caribbean writers repeatedly implicate their readers in colonial domination in ways that are intended to unsettle and discomfort In works such as Denis Williams s The Third Temptation Wilson Harris s The Secret Ladder and Vera Bell s overlooked prose poem Odog acts of colonial atrocity such as the eradication of Indigenous populations in Guyana the construction of the Panama Canal or the disenfranchisement of Afro Jamaican communities become mired in aesthetic obfuscation forcing the reader to confront and rethink their own relationship to these events In this way new literary forms engender new forms of insight and outrage fostering a newly inspired relation to resistance

B S Johnson and Post-War Literature M. Ryle,J. Jordan,2015-12-11 A collection of essays on the 1960s experimental writer B S Johnson this book draws together new research on all aspects of his work and in tracing his connections to a wider circle of continental British and American avant garde writers offers exciting new approaches to reading 1960s experimental fiction
