

STEPS TO WRITING A NOVEL

1

IDEA

It starts with an idea. This can be as vague as a secret somebody's keeping, or an image, or a twist in a crime novel.

2

GENERAL PLOT

From the general plot, you find your hook. What one-line scenario or question explains your novel?

3

CHARACTER

Know your character, be aware of your characters' journey. Use action to define your character, finally study the masters.

4

A SYNOPSIS

All good synopses should begin with a brief summary of 30-75 words, the sort of thing which appears on a book's back cover.

5

WRITE!

Set a goal to write a 1000 words every day where possible. If you don't feel like it, then just for 5 minutes, at least you're moving forward.

6

READ

Skim read to check you haven't strayed too far from your original synopsis.

7

RE-WRITE

If your instincts are telling you something isn't right, they're probably right. No one knows your story better than you do.

8

PROSE EDIT

The literary equivalent of eye liner and lip gloss. Beefing up the main characters relationships and sub plots.

9

TO THE READERS

This is the worst part. The readers who come back with criticism. It's important though so just sit tight, you're almost there.

10

IMPLEMENT FEEDBACK

Usually minor tweaks, nothing structural.
