Abadie,2014-09-18 Considering that he worked a stint as a screenwriter it will come as little surprise that Faulkner has often been called the most cinematic of novelists Faulkner s novels were produced in the same high period as the films of classic Hollywood a reason itself for considering his work alongside this dominant form Beyond their era though Faulkner s novels or the ways in which they ask readers to see as well as feel his world have much in common with film That Faulkner was aware of film and that his novels own thinking betrays his profound sense of the medium and its effects broadens the contexts in which he can be considered In a range of approaches the contributors consider Faulkner s career as a scenarist and collaborator in Hollywood the ways his screenplay work and the adaptations of his fiction informed his literary writing and how Faulkner s craft anticipates intersects with or reflects upon changes in cultural history across the lifespan of cinema Drawing on film history critical theory archival studies of Faulkner s screenplays and scholarship about his work in Hollywood the nine essays show a keen awareness of literary modernism and its relation to film Narratives of Difference in Globalized Cultures Belén Martín-Lucas,Andrea Ruthven,2017-12-07 This book is about how the marketing of transnational cultural commodities capitalizes on difference and its appeal for cosmopolitan consumers in our postmodern globalized world At what price What ethical and political conundrums does the artist writer reader confront when going global This volume analyzes why difference whether gender sexual racial ethnic or linguistic has become such a prominent element in the contemporary cultural field and the effects of this prevalence on the production circulation and reception of cultural commodities in the context of globalization At the intersection of globalization diaspora postcolonial and feminist studies in world literature these essays engage critically with a wide variety of representative narratives taken from diverse cultural fields including humanitarian fiction multilingual poetry painting text image art performance art film documentary and docu poetry The chapters included offer counter readings that disrupt hegemonic representations of cultural identity within the contemporary neoliberal and globalized landscape   Communication and the Globalization of Culture S. Nick Mohammed,2011-09-16 Communication and the Globalization of Culture Beyond Tradition and Borders by Shaheed Nick Mohammed examines the modern and historical evolution of conceptualizations of culture as well as the concept of culture itself The book suggests that modern corporate globalized media technologies do not destroy culture but rather force us to re think how we have conceptualized the differences uniqueness and similarities between the other and ourselves   Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier,Yudhishthir Raj Isar,2007-03-27 In the age of globalization we are no longer home alone Migration brings other worlds into our own just as the global reach of the media transmits our world into the hearts and minds of others Often incommensurate values are crammed together in the same public square Increasingly we all today live in the kind of edge cultures we used to see only on the frontiers of civilizations in places like Hong Kong or Istanbul The resulting frictions and fusions are shaping the soul of the coming world order I can think of no other project with the ambitious scope of defining this emergent reality than The Cultures and Globalization project I can think of no more capable minds than Raj Isar and Helmut Anheier who can pull it off Nathan Gardels Editor in Chief NPQ Global Services Los Angeles Times Syndicate Tribune Media This series represents an innovative approach to the central issues of globalization that phenomenon of such undefined contours Lupwishi Mbuyumba Director of the Observatory of Cultural Policies in Africa The world s cultures and their forms of creation presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood The Cultures and Globalization Series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge Analyzing the relationship between globalization and cultures is the aim of the Series In each volume leading experts as well as young scholars will track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world covering issues ranging from the role of cultural difference in politics and governance to the evolution of the cultural economy and the changing patterns of creativity and artistic expression Each volume will also include an innovative presentation of newly developed indicator suites on cultures and globalization that will be presented in a user friendly form with a high graphics content to facilitate accessibility and understanding Like so many phenomena linked to globalization conflicts over and within the cultural realms crystallize great anxieties and illusions through misplaced assumptions inadequate concepts unwarranted simplifications and instrumental readings The aim here is to marshal evidence from different disciplines and perspectives about the culture conflict and globalization relationships in conceptually sensitive ways   The Cultures of Globalization Fredric Jameson,Masao Miyoshi,1998 A pervasive force that evades easy analysis globalization has come to represent the export and import of culture the speed and intensity of which has increased to unprecedented levels in recent years The Cultures of Globalization presents an international panel of intellectuals who consider the process of globalization as it concerns the transformation of the economic into the cultural and vice versa the rise of consumer culture around the world the production and cancellation of forms of subjectivity and the challenges it presents to national identity local culture and traditional forms of everyday life Discussing overlapping themes of transnational consequence the contributors to this volume describe how the global character of technology communication networks consumer culture intellectual discourse the arts and mass entertainment have all been affected by recent worldwide trends Appropriate to such diversity of material the authors approach their topics from a variety of theoretical perspectives including those of linguistics sociology economics anthropology and the law Essays examine such topics as free trade capitalism the North and South Eurocentrism language migration art and cinema social fragmentation sovereignty and nationhood higher education environmental justice wealth and poverty transnational corporations and global culture Bridging the spheres of economic political and cultural inquiry The Cultures of Globalization offers crucial insights into many of the most significant changes occurring in today s world Contributors Noam Chomsky Ioan Davies Manthia Diawara Enrique Dussel David Harvey Sherif Hetata Fredric Jameson Geeta Kapur Liu Kang Joan Martinez Alier Masao Miyoshi Walter D Mignolo Alberto Moreiras Paik Nak chung Leslie Sklair Subramani Barbara Trent   National Identity and Cultural Representation in the Novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai Sonali Das,2018-04-18 This book is the first of its kind to examine the theories of nation and national identity in both the West according to the theories of Benedict Anderson and Salman Rushdie and in the East in the light of the works of Jawaharlal Nehru as they apply to the novels of Arundhati Roy and Kiran Desai The second part of the twentieth century witnessed a new interface between fiction and history called New History It brought into its purview the hitherto marginalized sections of society like slaves peasants workers women and children Whereas the subalterns in The Inheritance of Loss are disempowered by the brunt of globalisation and neo colonialism the subalterns in The God of Small Things face the ire of the deep seated divisions based on caste and gender bias in a postcolonial society In addition this book also deals with contemporary social issues like individual identity in a multicultural world where cultures and nature converge into myriad ways of living It will be of immense benefit to MA and MPhil students all over India as well as to PhD scholars and teachers of English literature both in India and abroad   Aesthetics and Ethics in Twenty-First Century British Novels Peter Childs,James Green,2013-08-15 A fresh set of concerns face the twenty first century British novelist In this study of the four key novelists Zadie Smith Nadeem Aslam Hari Kunzru and David Mitchell the the changes in narrative approaches and critical directions of a new post 1989 fiction are explored Close readings of the writers are informed by a range of contemporary theorists critics and commentators to reveal the emphases of twenty first century fiction Terror fear consumerism multinationalism and corporatism the terms circulating in culture and social networks are evident in Smith s faith in ethical living Aslam s consideration of multiculturalism the novels Kunzru builds around the politics of identity and in the importance Mitchell places on the interconnectedness of human life By putting the emergence of a new British literary dynamic in the context of ethical as well as global contexts this study analyzes the transformed fictional perceptions of a world no longer defined by the stand off of super powers New Media and Cultural Hybridisation. A Study on the Influence of New Media Technologies on the Youth of Silchar, India Sayan Dey,2022-12-14 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2019 in the subject Communications Multimedia Internet New Technologies Assam University language English abstract The topic of this research work propose to understand the impact of New Media Technologies on the undergraduate students of an urban area of North East India to test if these technologies are having any cultural implications in terms of juxtaposition of multiple cultures The thesis argues that New Media Applications have brought in a sense of hybrid culture among the youth by affecting the perception and consumption of cultural indicators among college goers In this age of New Media it is becoming increasingly difficult to distinguish between virtual and real these days With the burgeoning of technology enabled communication interactional transactions have become heavily dependent and concentric upon webbed web Be it social political or cultural every aspect of contemporary human sustenance has gone for a toss and a state of interweavements has been attained In the present day a gamut of digital communication online tools applications and technologies have become part and parcel of everyday affairs and even more so in the realms of communication It is quite obvious that new communication networks empowered with digital technologies and internet are foremost tools which have enabled the enterprise of completely new representation of information production and dissemination cultural production management and control Comparative Perspectives on the Rise of the Brazilian Novel Ana Cláudia Suriani da Silva,Sandra Guardini Vasconcelos,2020-05-14 Comparative Perspectives on the Rise of the Brazilian Novel presents a framework of comparative literature based on a systemic and empirical approach to the study of the novel and applies that framework to the analysis of key nineteenth century Brazilian novels The works under examination were published during the period in which the forms and procedures of the novel were acclimatized as the genre established and consolidated itself in Brazil

Building Bridges between Cultures in Ian McDonald's Science Fiction Jerome Winter,2025-09-18 This book is a career long retrospective of the Irish writer Ian McDonald and his complex compelling representation of our contemporary global condition Ian McDonald is a celebrated writer within the science fiction community whose rich and urgent body of works span over a quarter of a century The author claims McDonald s work functions as vital troubling allegories which both refuse the Orientalist euphemizing of colonial atrocities while still at the same time envisioning a transformative global alterity seeking an ethical and political embrace of systematically silenced subaltern voices in the neoliberal world system The book follows McDonald as the globe trotting writer travels from Ireland to Kenya to India to Brazil to Turkey to a proliferating multiverse and beyond Along the way the author analyzes McDonald s science fiction as a salient contribution to the flourishing cosmopolitan literature of postcolonial developing nations at the crossroads of the global imaginary World Literature Reader Theo D'haen,César Domínguez,Mads Rosendahl Thomsen,2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape Media and Cultural Studies Meenakshi Gigi Durham,Douglas M. McClennen,Earl E. Fitz,2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and L cia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Mart nez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Rom n de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto Gonz lez Echevarr a on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Vald s on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley,2008-08-27 This critical guide introduces major novelists and themes in British fiction from 1975 to 2005 It engages with concepts such as postmodernism feminism gender and the postcolonial and examines the place of fiction within broader debates in contemporary culture A comprehensive Introduction provides a historical context for the study of contemporary British fiction by detailing significant social political and cultural events This is followed by five chapters organised around the core themes 1 Narrative Forms 2 Contemporary Ethnicities 3 Gender and Sexuality 4 History Memory and Writing and 5 Narratives of Cultural Space Asian American Fiction After 1965 Christopher T. Fan,2024-04-23 After the 1965 Immigration and Nationality Act loosened discriminatory restrictions people from Northeast Asian countries such as South Korea Taiwan Japan and eventually China immigrated to the United States in large numbers Highly skilled Asian immigrants flocked to professional managerial occupations especially in science technology engineering and math Asian American literature is now overwhelmingly defined by this generation s children who often struggled with parental and social expectations that they would pursue lucrative careers on their way to becoming writers Christopher T Fan offers a new way to understand Asian American fiction through the lens of the class and race formations that shaped its authors both in the United States and in Northeast Asia In readings of writers including Ted Chiang Chang rae Lee Ken Liu Ling Ma Ruth Ozeki Kathy Wang and Charles Yu he examines how Asian American fiction maps the immigrant narrative of intergenerational conflict onto the two cultures conflict between the arts and sciences Fan argues that the self consciousness found in these writers works is a legacy of Japanese and American modernization projects that emphasized technical and scientific skills in service of rapid industrialization He considers Asian American writers attraction to science fiction the figure of the engineer and notions of the postracial modernization theory and time travel and what happens when the dream of a stable professional identity encounters the realities of deprofessionalization and proletarianization Through a transnational and historical materialist approach this groundbreaking book illuminates what makes texts and authors Asian American Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert,2009-09-10 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and DC Comics Lampert explores ethnic national and heroic identities in this pioneering and timely book that examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children s literature about the attacks of September 11 2001 Topologies of Fear in Contemporary Fiction Scott McClintock,2015-07-21 The central concern of the book is the impact of global terror networks and state counterterrorism on twentieth century fiction A unique contribution of this book is the comparative approach as opposed to the single author focus of most of the edited collections on terrorism in literature   Science Fiction and the Historical Novel Ian P. MacDonald,Kate Polak,2024-09-16 If you woke to realize that you could rewrite your yesterday without knowing the kind of tomorrow it would grant you would you do it Are the authors of our destiny working with an outline or spit balling confusing plotlines Since the past changes possible futures to what alighting butterfly should we pay the most heed This book explores the liminal space between speculative fiction and the historical novel Staged as a transnational multicultural conversation it takes up a call originally made by Fredric Jameson in Archaeologies of the Future wherein he describes that flashpoint between speculative and historical genres as the symptom of a mutation in our relationship to historical time itself Drawing together postcolonial feminist cultural Indigenous and cognitive approaches Science Fiction and the Historical Novel asks what the past can offer a future oriented world and how the future can be imagined in relation to a past that seeks narratives of inevitability rather than possibility Engaged with the idea of the past as a model for the future authors in this volume probe the extent to which historical scripts delimit possibilities and how authors engaged with the practice of alternative pasts rewrite potentialities in the present
