Jumping Jane Peranteau, 2014-11-01 Jumping is a work of visionary fiction that begins with a nihilistic act The main character a young man feels life's limits are killing him drives to a remote area walks 100 yards and leaps into a dark and mysterious chasm known locally as the Void Friends and family are stunned What he meets in the Void is his own larger spiritual history a cohort of souls he incarnated with a string of past lives he visits and he's changed profoundly and permanently Because of his story others jump What are they jumping to Duncan Robert is the first to jump No one saw him do it but some claim they felt something at the moment he jumped a sort of missed beat or skip in the order of things The Void waits in the woods just outside of town and has for as long as anyone can remember though no one knows why In the tradition of The Celestine Prophecy and Mutant Message Down Under this teaching fable explores the necessity of taking risks life beyond the limits and time and space and humanity's place in the universe In a way Jumping is similar to spiritually directed fantasy or channeled work I've never written anything like it and typically don't read anything like it so I'm short on language to describe it It's metaphysical and fiction which removes it from the category of straight channeling or metaphysical self-help books Jane Peranteau

A fearless novel that tackles a difficult subject. I Laugh Me Broken tells the story of a woman finding the courage to face her genetic heritage. When Ginny makes contact with her estranged relatives and discovers that her genetic heritage may contain a devastating fault, she bolts to Berlin, leaving her loving fiancé in the dark. Rather than face up to the life-changing implications of this news, she loses herself in the transient hedonistic city. As she meets its inhabitants and absorbs their tangle of stories, she tries to gather the courage to take the genetic test that will either free her or define her future. I Laugh Me Broken is a sharply drawn, courageous novel exploring the human condition, the inescapability of the past, and the choices that are ours to make.
