Suckling Fadwa El Guindi, 2020-02-21 A ground breaking ethnographic study of suckling in the Arabian Gulf this book reenergises the study of kinship It analyses the misunderstood and marginalized phenomenon of suckling drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in Qatar over a seven year period Fadwa El Guindi situates suckling often given other names or subsumed under misleading classifications squarely in the analytical category of kinship with recognition that kinship is necessarily biological societal and cultural The volume takes kinship study beyond origins nature culture debates and social nurturing and relatedness and challenges claims of deterministic reductionist formulas As well as key reading for those involved in milk kinship research this book is valuable for anthropologists Middle East scholars and others with an interest in breastfeeding family and social organisation and religion Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp,2021-12-06

During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East ,1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Voices from Nubia Amal Mazhar,Faten I. Morsy,Mona M. Radwan,2024-08-01 The Nubians the largest ethnic community in Egypt saw their ancestral homelands disappear beneath the waters of the Nile from the dawn of the 20th century through to 1964 The massive displacement of this population has been the subject of numerous literary works by Nubian writers who seek to save their heritage from oblivion and to preserve their Nubian collective memory Despite the renewal of socio political interest in Nubia in post 2011 Egypt the authors of Voices from Nubia all non Nubian Egyptians claim that art in general and literature in particular remain the domain in which the problematics of what has been called the Nubian Question can be primarily vocalized Only through a thorough reading and analysis of the literary output of Egyptian Nubians can the complexities of Nubia its people and culture can find full expression The rich literary heritage of contemporary Nubian literature allows for a multiplicity of critiques that makes possible a reading of this literature that crosses the borderlines between literature history geography politics gender and ethnicity The diversity of themes and tropes in Voices from Nubia reflects a hallmark of Nubian literary output which is generally marked by a common feeling of solidarity around the Nubian cause The array of critical studies included in the volume s eight chapters covers a multiplicity of approaches cultural postcolonial ecofeminist and critical race theory Voices from Nubia constitutes an attempt to go beyond the dichotomy between the activist Nubian writer who views the Nubian Question as a human rights issue and Arab Egyptian nationalists who consider the discussion of Nubians as a distinct ethnic group or minority a threat to societal cohesion and national security The editors conclude the book with interviews with three Egyptian Nubian writers belonging to different generations and expressing different positions with regards to the Nubian Question It is thus hoped that this book will introduce the English speaking reader to the rich tradition of contemporary Nubian literature from Egypt written in Arabic On the other hand the book also forces the Egyptian Arab reader to question some of the most cherished assumptions and ingrained ideas about the nature of culture history and identity As such Voices from Nubia has far reaching implications for how we think about the diverse nature of our societies and nations Africana Bulletin, 2007

Wanderings Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2018-08-06 In one of the first books devoted to the experience of Sudanese immigrants and exiles in the United States Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf places her community into context showing its increasing historical and political significance Abusharaf herself participates in many aspects of life in the migrant community and in the Sudan in ways that a non Sudanese could not Attending religious events social gatherings and meetings Abusharaf discovers that a national sense of common Sudanese identity emerges more strongly among immigrants in North America than it does at home Sudanese immigrants use informal transatlantic networks to ease the immigration process and act on the local level to help others find housing and employment They gather for political activism to share feasts and to celebrate marriages always negotiating between tradition and the challenges of their new surroundings Abusharaf uses a combination of conversations with Sudanese friends interviews and life histories to portray several groups among the Sudanese immigrant population Southern war refugees including the Lost Boys of Sudan spent years in camps in Kenya or Uganda professionals were expelled from the Gulf because their country's rulers backed Iraq in the Gulf War Christian Copts suffered from religious persecution in Sudan and women migrated alone

Medieval Nubia Giovanni Ruffini, 2012-10-18 The first full length study of the social and economic history of medieval Nubia this book uses unpublished indigenous Old Nubian documentary sources to reveal a complex society that blended Greco Roman legal traditions with African festive practices

Sudan's Wars and Peace Agreements Stephanie Beswick, Jay Spaulding, 2010-07-12 Originating from the 2008 27th annual conference of the Sudan Studies Association SSA of the same title these essays document and analyze Sudan's chronic history of conflict since independence in 1956 as well as its own and international efforts to bring an end to these conflicts As the country moves toward what some see as the inevitable separation of South Sudan in 2011 honoring the principle of self determination long fought for by southerners the lessons of six decades of a history of war and peace agreements is both telling and compelling This analysis is offered by the real experts on Sudan rather than the usual story offered by journalists and pundits In addition to an Introduction by the editors all founders or current or past presidents of the SSA the essays by Sudanese and non Sudanese explore the often bitter history of North South relations and loss of life leading to the consideration of a range of options from a continuation of national unity under revised terms to federation or redivision to full separation of the South and the constitution of a new African state The role of the Khartoum government's pursuit of policies of Islamization and Islamism for a quarter of a century across multiple regimes is also treated The central question of constructing a sustainable peace irrespective of the outcome in 2011 is detailed along with the essential consideration of women and gender perspectives to sustain any peace negotiated This book is must reading in advance of or in response to the crucial events as they unfold in Sudan in 2011 and beyond

Visual Anthropology Fadwa El Guindi, 2004-11-15 El Guindi provides a comprehensive guide to the methods of visual anthropology and the use of film in cross cultural research and ethnography She shows how visual media photographic filmic interactive is now an accepted part of the anthropological process a vital tool that reflects and produces knowledge about the range of cultures and about culture itself It preserves the integrity of people objects and events in their cultural context and expands our horizons beyond the reach of memory culture El Guindi places visual anthropology within an empirically based analytic framework built on systematic observation identifying the research cycle that begins with data gathering and leads to visual ethnographic construction that is anthropological in method process and product She explains how indigenous professional and amateur forms of pictorial auditory materials are grounded in personal social cultural and ideological contexts and describes the non Western critique of the Western traditions of visual anthropology Her book is an excellent guide for ethnographic research and for film and other media instruction concerned with cross cultural representation
