The Nuclear War Atlas William Bunge,1985      Nuclear War Atlas Bunge,1988-09-01      Nuclear War Atlas William Bunge,1988      The Nuclear War Atlas Society for Human Exploration,1985      The Power of Maps Denis Wood,John Fels,1992-01-01 This volume ventures into terrain where even the most sophisticated map fails to lead through the mapmaker's bias Denis Wood shows how maps are not impartial reference objects but rather instruments of communication persuasion and power Like paintings they express a point of view By connecting us to a reality that could not exist in the absence of maps a world of property lines and voting rights taxation districts and enterprise zones they embody and project the interests of their creators Sampling the scope of maps available today illustrations include Peter Gould's AIDS map Tom Van Sant's map of the earth U S Geological Survey maps and a child's drawing of the world THE POWER OF MAPS was published in conjunction with an exhibition at the Cooper Hewitt Museum the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of Design      Mapping the Cold War Timothy Barney,2015-04-13 In this fascinating history of Cold War cartography Timothy Barney considers maps as central to the articulation of ideological tensions between American national interests and international aspirations Barney argues that the borders scales projections and other conventions of maps prescribed and constrained the means by which foreign policy elites popular audiences and social activists navigated conflicts between North and South East and West Maps also influenced how identities were formed in a world both shrunk by advancing technologies and marked by expanding and shifting geopolitical alliances and fissures Pointing to the necessity of how politics and values were spatialized in recent U S history Barney argues that Cold War era maps themselves had rhetorical lives that began with their conception and production and played out in their circulation within foreign policy circles and popular media Reflecting on the ramifications of spatial power during the period Mapping the Cold War ultimately demonstrates that even in the twenty first century American visions of the world and the maps that account for them are inescapably rooted in the anxieties of that earlier era      Ban the bomb ,      The Nuclear War Atlas ,1982      This Is Not an Atlas orangotango,2018-11-05 This Is Not an Atlas gathers more than 40 counter cartographies from all over the world This collection shows how maps are created and transformed as a part of political struggle for critical research or in art and education from indigenous territories in the Amazon to the anti eviction movement in San Francisco from defending commons in Mexico to mapping refugee camps with balloons in Lebanon from slums in Nairobi to squats in Berlin from supporting communities in the Philippines to reporting sexual harassment in Cairo This Is Not an Atlas seeks to inspire to document the underrepresented and to be a useful companion when becoming a counter cartographer yourself      The Map Reader Martin Dodge,Rob Kitchin,Chris Perkins,2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation The Map Reader brings together for the first time classic and hard to find articles on mapping This book provides a wide ranging and coherent edited compendium of key scholarly writing about the changing nature of

cartography over the last half century The editorial selection of fifty four theoretical and thought provoking texts demonstrates how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how different mapping practices have been conceptualised in particular scholarly contexts Themes covered include paradigms politics people aesthetics and technology Original interpretative essays set the literature into intellectual context within these themes Excerpts are drawn from leading scholars and researchers in a range of cognate fields including Cartography Geography Anthropology Architecture Engineering Computer Science and Graphic Design The Map Reader provides a new unique single source reference to the essential literature in the cartographic field more than fifty specially edited excerpts from key classic articles and monographs critical introductions by experienced experts in the field focused coverage of key mapping practices techniques and ideas a valuable resource suited to a broad spectrum of researchers and students working in cartography and GIScience geography the social sciences media studies and visual arts full page colour illustrations of significant maps as provocative visual think pieces fully indexed clearly structured and accessible ways into a fast changing field of cartographic research

Rethinking the Power of Maps Denis Wood,2010-04-16 A contemporary follow up to the groundbreaking Power of Maps this book takes a fresh look at what maps do whose interests they serve and how they can be used in surprising creative and radical ways Denis Wood describes how cartography facilitated the rise of the modern state and how maps continue to embody and project the interests of their creators He demystifies the hidden assumptions of map making and explores the promises and limitations of diverse counter mapping practices today Thought provoking illustrations include U S Geological Survey maps electoral and transportation maps and numerous examples of critical cartography participatory GIS and map art The book will be important reading for geographers and others interested in maps and their political uses It will also serve as a supplemental text in advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses such as Cartography GIS Geographic Thought and History of Geography

Mapping Daniel Dorling,David Fairbairn,2013-10-08 Illustrates how maps tell us as much about the people and the powers which create them as about the places they show Presents historical and contemporary evidence of how the human urge to describe understand and control the world is presented through the medium of mapping together with the individual and environmental constraints of the creator of the map
