Secretary-General,1980 Comprehensive Study on Nuclear Weapons ,1980 Comprehensive Study of the Question of Nuclear-weapon-free Zones in All Its Aspects United Nations. Conference of the Committee on Disarmament,1976 Comprehensive study on nuclear weapons ,1981 Yearbook of the United Nations. 45.1991(1992) United Nations. Dept. of Public Information,1992-12-24 Fully indexed the 1991 edition of the Yearbook is the single most current comprehensive and authoritative reference publication about the work of the United Nations other international organizations and related bodies The book is designed not just for use by diplomats officials and scholars but also by other researchers writers journalists teachers and students The year 1991 was a remarkably eventful one for the United Nations and in the conduct of international relations This volume of the Yearbook details the activities of the United Nations its many organs agencies and programmes working together to rekindle a new form of multilateral cooperation for a better world It records the diverse and globe encompassing activities of the United Nations and its enduring efforts to deal with the world s pressing concerns particularly matters of international peace and security disarmament human rights the settlement of regional conflicts economic and social development the preservation of the environment control of drugs and narcotic substance abuse crime prevention adequate shelter youth and the ageing and humanitarian assistance for refugees as well as disaster relief The Yearbook of the United Nations is now up to date The Yearbooks for the years 1988 1989 and 1990 will be published simultaneously Key Resolutions of the United Nations General Assembly 1946-1996 Dietrich Rauschning,Katja Wiesbrock,Martin Lailach,1997-08-28 Key resolutions from the first fifty years of the United Nations General Assembly Comprehensive Study on Nuclear Weapons ,1981 The Use of Nuclear Weapons and the Protection of the Environment during International Armed Conflict Erik V Koppe,2008-04-25 In 1996 the International Court of Justice delivered an Advisory Opinion on the legality of the use of nuclear weapons in which the Court stated that while the existing international law relating to the protection and safeguarding of the environment does not specifically prohibit the use of nuclear weapons it indicates important environmental factors that are properly to be taken into account in the context of the implementation of the principles and rules of the law applicable in armed conflict The present work analyses this conclusion focusing on the question whether or not the use of nuclear weapons during international armed conflict would violate existing norms of public international law relating to the protection and safeguarding of the environment Although the use of weaponry during armed conflict is usually related to the protection of individuals the rapidly emerging appreciation of and the worldwide realization of the intrinsic value of the natural environment as an indispensable asset for the continuation of life including human life on this planet both for present and future generations warrants a thorough and extensive examination of the question of the illegality of the employment of nuclear weapons from the point of view of international environmental protection law The book consists of two parts Part I discusses the historical development and the effects of nuclear weapons Part II discusses the protection of the environment during international armed conflict under ius in bello ius ad bellum and ius pacis Only then is it possible to assess the legality of the use of nuclear weapons under this particular set of rules
