collected are transcripts of Congressional testimony reports by such federal government bodies as the Congressional Research Service CRS and the Government Accountability Office GAO and case law covering issues related to terrorism Most volumes carry a single theme and inside each volume the documents appear within topic based categories The series also includes a subject index and other indices that guide the user through this complex area of the law Volume 119 Catastrophic Possibilities Threatening U S Security discusses the nightmare scenario of a catastrophic attack on the United States While the U S national security apparatus remains focused on the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan and appears to be postulating a future international security environment defined largely by threats increasingly posed by weak failing and failed states astute strategists are not discounting the possibility of a catastrophic attack on the United States In this volume Douglas Lovelace presents a number of documents that help describe explain and assess the nature and severity of the threat of a catastrophic attack Offering expert commentary for each section Lovelace groups the documents into three categories Catastrophic Potentialities in the International Security Environment Countering the Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons and Nuclear Materials and Catastrophic Cyber Attack Documents include a Department of Defense overview of the four categories of strategic challenges a Government Accountability Office report addressing weapons of mass destruction and the actions needed to allocate resources for counterproliferation programs and an insightful overview of the threat of catastrophic cyber attack by the Department of Homeland Security The commentary and primary sources in Volume 119 will apprise researchers and practitioners of international law and national security of the perils of a catastrophic attack against the United States posed by terrorists radicals state failure and humanitarian disasters On the Horizon, Vol. 4 Reja Younis, 2022-08-30 The Nuclear Scholars Initiative is a program run by the Project on Nuclear Issues at the Center for Strategic and International Studies to engage emerging nuclear experts in thoughtful and informed debate over how to best address the nuclear community's most pressing problems The papers included in this volume comprise research from participants in the 2021 Nuclear Scholars Initiative These papers explore a range of crucial debates such as the future of arms control and deterrence emerging technologies SSBN vulnerability public opinion cyber norms and the role of regional dynamics including China and India in nuclear security Nonproliferation and Threat Reduction Assistance Amy F. Woolf, 2010-06 Congress passed the Nunn Lugar amendment authorizing U S threat reduction assistance to the former Soviet Union in Nov 1991 after a failed coup in Moscow and the disintegration of the Soviet Union raised concerns about the safety and security of Soviet nuclear weapons The annual program has grown from 400 million to over 1 billion year across 3 agencies It has also evolved from an emergency response to impending chaos in the Soviet Union to a more comprehensive threat reduction and non proliferation effort to a broader program seeking to keep nuclear chemical and biological weapons from leaking into the hands of rogue nations or terrorists This report discusses issues related to U S non proliferation and threat reduction assistance Illus Global security Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs

Committee,2009-06-14 The control of arms by means of non proliferation and disarmament is one of the most important aims of Government foreign policy The proliferation of weapons of mass destruction nuclear chemical and biological poses a grave threat to UK and global security This report was prompted by recent developments relating to nuclear weapons but also examines wider issues The Committee examine the Government s approach to non proliferation and the institutional and policy issues relevant to the UK the EU NATO and the United States nuclear weapons including the Nuclear Non proliferation Treaty and nuclear disarmament biological and chemical weapons ballistic missiles and missile defence terrorism and physical security and conventional weapons Finally the report assesses the Government s overall strategy which is characterised by a commitment to a rules based international system Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch,Úrsula Oswald Spring,Czeslaw Mesjasz,John Grin,Patricia Kameri-Mbote,Béchir Chourou,Pál Dunay,Joern Birkmann,2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Global Security Studies ,2023-02-15 This encyclopedia provides an authoritative guide intended for students of all levels of studies offering multidisciplinary insight and analysis of over 500 headwords covering the main concepts of Security and Non traditional Security and their relation to other scholarly fields and aspects of real world issues in the contemporary geopolitical world Rising India and U.S. Policy Options in Asia Teresita C. Schaffer,2002-01-24 This report presents three alternative scenarios for India s future over the next 10 years and its impact on Indo U S relations It integrates political economic and security analysis in assessing India s prospects and draws on the results of a simulation based on a hypothetical India Pakistan crisis set in 2009 The scenario for the simulation foreshadows in many respects the crisis that followed the bombing of the Indian parliament in December 2001 Intelligence Analysis of the Long Range Missile Threat to the United States United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Intelligence,1997 Global Governance and International Cooperation Richard Falk,Augusto Lopez-Claros,2024-03-07 The Global Governance Forum and the Global Challenges Foundation collaborate in this collection in their concern that the UN Charter and the contemporary infrastructure for international cooperation are no longer fit for purpose and lack the instruments resources and legitimacy to address the catastrophic risks threatening our future Twenty eight contributors offer thoughtful proposals for reforming existing international institutions and creating new ones to build a more peaceful prosperous and just world covering themes such as the management of weapons of mass destruction collective security arrangements justice and equity in economics human rights migration and refugees climate mitigation and food security all bearing on the health of both people and planet The vital project of this century is building institutions that will underpin global governance in coming decades requiring imagination persistence empathy and confidence that we will find a path to enhanced mechanisms of binding international law and the resources to make that happen The volume is essential reading for scholars and researchers on international politics and public policy and indispensable for diplomats and government agencies
