The volume is divided into three main parts. Part I, entitled General Discussion, devotes one chapter to each of the large rug-weaving countries and includes helpful hints as to what the rug buyer should look for in a particular rug. Part II, Description of Types, is an alphabetical list of all the names that have been used to identify rugs in the past as well as the names that are being used at present. Each entry is followed by a full discussion and description of the rug. Part III, Plates, contains 194 pictures of different types of rugs, complete with descriptive captions for each. Thirty-nine of the plates are in full color. All of the plates are large, allowing the reader to see the design and, in some cases, the colors used in the particular rug.

In fact, the early history of the Metropolitan, its founding, its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals. In Pursuit of Beauty, Americans and the Aesthetic Movement, comprised some 175 objects including furniture, metalwork, stained glass, ceramics, textiles, wallpaper, painting and sculpture.
