Pluralist Dilemma In Education:

The Pluralist Dilemma in Education M. P. Mncwabe, 1987 The Pluralist Dilemma in Education Brian Milton Bullivant, 1981 Education and Cultural Pluralism Maurice Craft, 2017-04-28 This collection of essays first published in 1984 on multicultural education seeks to introduce teachers teacher educators educational administrators policymakers and others to several of the most significant dimensions of the field But it also brings out the complexity of the issues and the dangers of over simplification the inadequacies of much of the available data and the need for better long term strategies

Educational Issues in Multiethnic Malaysia Tan Yao Sua, R. Santhiram, Education in multiethnic societies is a subject of considerable debates in almost all parts of the world These debates have invoked strongly felt positions between competing ethnic groups over a host of issues that have a profound impact on the nation building process Apart from deep seated issues arising from contrasting internal demands over educational rights and equality emerging issues arising from external influences such as the global spread of English as a result of globalisation have also impacted the nation building process of multiethnic societies It is against this context that educational issues in multiethnic societies merit our attention In the case of Malaysia discourses over these issues are particularly intense and hotly contested by the different ethnic groups This is primarily because of the extreme difficulties in mediating these complicated issues which are impinged by competing socio cultural economic and political interests This book explores the contested terrains of education in multiethnic Malaysia It comprises seven chapters that cover three crucial areas of educational provisions and delivery namely education of ethnic minorities education and national integration and educational language policy These three crucial areas are often the prime concerns of policy makers in multiethnic societies who have to tread a thin line in resolving these issues which are underpinned by intense coterminous interests and inter ethnic competition and having the potential to generate conflicts contestation and power struggle As far as the Malaysian policy makers are concerned their efforts in resolving these issues have not been overly successful It is most unfortunate that their policy decisions are at times influenced by competing political and ethnic interests rather than guided by sound theoretical underpinnings that could put the educational development of the country on a stronger platform and a clearer trajectory Pluralism, Cultural Maintenance and

Evolution Brian Milton Bullivant, 1984-01-01 This book explores the principles of pluralism in a modern Western society It examines the concept of culture and how ethnic groups may need to establish separate structures and institutions to survive and maintain its culture It focuses on case study material drawn from Australian experience with Aborigines and with migrants linguistic minority groups including policies that affect them This book provides a useful perspective on group relations emphasizing the aims purposes and values held by the societies in which linguistic minority groups exist The structure of society and perceptions of pluralism and assimilation are also described This text demonstrates that there is not a simple opposition between pluralism and assimilation there are difficulties with educational programs intended to support minority group language and identity minority views are not themselves homogeneous and advocates of cultural pluralism often hold over simplified and unrealistic ideas This publication is a good reference for students and researchers conducting work on pluralism assimilation language maintenance shift and ethnolinguistic identity

Teacher Education in Plural Societies (RLE Edu N) Maurice Craft, 2012-04-27 The educational implications of cultural pluralism attracted a good deal of attention in Western societies in the 1970s and 1980s on the grounds of equality and human rights maximising national talent and maintaining social cohesion Maurice Craft and the international contributors to this book highlight the potential of teacher education and in this wide ranging analytical review for its key role in providing for ethnic minority children in respect of access and achievements and also for all children to acquire informed and tolerant attitudes This book makes an important contribution to a small but growing literature concentrating on initial rather than in service teacher education and it brings together papers from experienced specialists from eleven countries worldwide Australia Britain Canada Israel Malaysia Northern Ireland South Africa Spain Sweden The Netherlands and the USA The papers are concerned with the needs both of diverse classrooms and diverse societies and also consider general principles and comparative perspectives Of interest to the specialist and non specialist alike Teacher Education in Plural Societies An International Review deals with an important and timely issue how best to prepare teachers to meet the needs of both minority and majority culture pupils who are growing up in plural societies

The Politics of Inclusive Pluralism Bob Fu, 2020-12-16 Long live the red terror This and other political slogans were used by China's communist rulers as leverage for conflict and conflict management during 1949 China's Cultural Revolution movement understandably fueled anger fear and terror among Chinese citizens Currently contrary to the positive facade that China under the control of the Communist Chinese Party CCP tries to project regarding human rights a dark reality reveals a brutal authoritarian state with no concern for religious freedom What guiding philosophy could best help procure provide and protect religious freedom for all in a post communist Christianized democratic China Bob Fu argues that while various Christianity oriented theories may appear promising they fail to provide an adequate pluralistic foundation for protecting the religious freedoms of people of all faiths and none The predominant theory of political liberalism in the West likewise fails to prove sufficiently inclusive for all faiths and worldviews As an alternative the author defends Baorong Duoyuan inclusive pluralism his own contextualized theory modeled after principled pluralism This model he believes has the potential to help ensure that religious freedom for all becomes a reality Publisher Secondary Education in Fiji Helen Tavola, 1991 Origins Of Multiculturalism In Australian Politics 1945-1975 Mark Lopez, 2013-06-18 This book answers such fundamental questions as what is multiculturalism how did it originate and how did it become a basis for the Australian government's ethnic affairs policy Researched from primary evidence much of it made available to the author exclusivelymdash it is an essential and solid foundation for future research and policy work in this field Multiculturalism continues to stir emotions and excite passionate public debate This work presents new accurate ideologically neutral historically based definitions of multiculturalism It also provides accurate and analytically useful definitions and explanations of assimilationism and integrationism thus establishing a valuable framework for analysis and debate

Choice of Schools in Six Nations Charles Leslie Glenn, 1989 Shipping list no 90 013 P December 1989 T p verso PIP 90 851 Page 4 of cover Includes bibliographical references p 221 238 Education and the Social Construction of 'race' Peter Figueroa, 2012 Does the education system help or hinder the fight against racism This volume provides a constructive critique of the Swan Report of 1985 and of sociological research into racial and ethnic relations The author undertakes a searching philosophical and sociological analysis of multicultural and antiracist education He shows how the education system itself can reinforce racist assumptions and behaviour in society but also argues that through educational and social reconstructing it can promote constructive cross cultural relations

South Whether this is in the reciprocal and synergistic relationship between theory and practice or the links between research and policy it is clear that at the heart of successful educational development is a recognition of the importance of culture This book critically reviews the relationships of culture education and development both from a theoretical and methodological perspective and also from the perspective of the teacher researcher and policy maker on the ground The importance of context is stressed throughout with a series of case studies of educational developments drawn from a range of national settings Issues such as education and poverty elimination local and global knowledge transfers and the role and discourse of development assistance to education are examined from the perspective of culture and context Of particular value to the education researcher and policy maker whether working in the North or South this book provides a timely reminder of the importance of culture in the development of education

Culture Wars in American Education

Michael R. Olneck, 2024-06-03 Culture Wars in American Education Past and Present Struggles Over the Symbolic Order radically questions norms and values held within US Education and analyses why and how culture wars in American education are intense consequential and recurrent Applying the concept of symbolic order this volume elaborates ways in which symbolic representations are used to draw boundaries allocate status and legitimate the exercise of authority and power within American schooling In particular the book illustrates the terms of inclusion by which full membership in the national community is defined limited and contested It suggests that repetitive patterns in the symbolic order for example the persistence of the representation of an individualistic basis of American society and polity constrain the reach of progressive change The book examines the World War I era Americanization movement the World War II era Intercultural Education movement the late twentieth century Multicultural Education movement continuing right wing assaults on Ethnic Studies and Critical Race Theory in the first decades of the twenty first century and historical and contemporary conflicts over the incorporation of languages other than Standard English into approved instructional approaches In the context of continuing culture wars in the United States and across the globe this book will be of interest to graduate students and scholars in critical studies of education history of education sociology of education curriculum theory Multicultural Education and comparative education as well as to educators enmeshed in contemporary tensions and conflicts incipient and as yet tentative self corrective trend in the case study schools Educational Administration in a Pluralistic Society Colleen A.
