Morgan, Yvonne Thomas Wells, 2024-09-05. A comprehensive and richly illustrated survey of one of the most significant and intriguing quilters of the 21st century featuring 109 color plates of Wells's narrative quilts with intimate commentaries by Wells herself. American Patchwork Sonja Hakala, 2025-09-23. For those who enjoyed the honesty and insight of How to Make an American Quilt, this is a moving collection of personal stories that highlight the laughter, sadness, friendships, frustrations, and triumphs shared by the more than 21 million people across the country who call themselves quilters. These touching tales from sixty-seven contributors nationwide form a patchwork of their own in the words of each individual's unique narrative. From the quilt that reunited a family divided by war and an ocean to the twenty-two foot banner that accompanied a dying woman on her last journey, American Patchwork is sure to capture the hearts of quilters and quilt lovers everywhere. Wonderfully varied, instructive, nostalgic, amusing, and often poignantly written, this gem of a book will be treasured for years to come. Quilts and Health Marsha MacDowell, Clare Luz, Beth Donaldson, 2018-01-05. Name an illness, medical condition, or disease and you will find quilting associated with it. From Alzheimer's to Irritable Bowel Syndrome, Lou Gehrig's Disease to Crigler-Najjar Syndrome, and for nearly every form of cancer, millions of quilts have been made in support of personal well-being, health education, patient advocacy, memorialization of victims, and fundraising. In Quilts and Health, Marsha MacDowell, Clare Luz, and Beth Donaldson explore the long historical connection between textiles and health and its continued and ever-growing importance in contemporary society. This lavishly illustrated book brings together hundreds of health-related quilts with imagery from abstract patterns to depictions of fibromyalgia to an ovarian cancer diary and the stories behind the art as told by makers, recipients, healthcare professionals, and many others. This incredible book speaks to the healing power of quilts and quilting and to the deep connections between art and health. Writing History from the Margins Claire Parfait, Hélène Le Dantec-Lowry, Claire Bourhis-Mariotti, 2016-09-13. With contributions from leading American and European scholars, this collection of original essays surveys the actors and the modes of writing history from the margins of society, focusing specifically on African Americans. Nearly 100 years after The Journal of Negro History was founded, this book assesses the legacy of the African American historians, mostly amateur historians initially, who wrote the history of their community between the 1830s and World War II. Subsequently, the growth of the civil rights movement further changed historical paradigms and the place of African Americans and that of black writers in publishing and in the historical profession. Through slavery and segregation, self-educated and formally educated Blacks wrote works of history often in order to inscribe African Americans within the main historical narrative of the nation with a two-fold objective: to make African Americans proud of their past and to enable them to fight against white prejudice. Over the past decade, historians have turned to the study of these pioneers, but a number of issues remain to be considered. This anthology will contribute to answering several key questions concerning who published these books and how were they distributed read and received Little has been written concerning what they reveal about the construction of professional history in the nineteenth century when examined in relation to other writings by Euro Americans working in an academic setting or as independent researchers
