Erotic Faith Robert M. Polhemus, 1995-03 In this profoundly original and far reaching study Robert M Polhemus shows how novels have helped to make erotic love a matter of faith in modern life Erotic faith Polhemus argues is an emotional conviction ultimately religious in nature that meaning value hope and even the possibility of transcendence can be found in love Drawing on a wide range of disciplines Polhemus shows the reciprocity of love as subject the novel as form and faith as motive in important works by Jane Austen Walter Scott the Brontës Dickens George Eliot Trollope Thomas Hardy Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett Throughout Polhemus relates the novelists representation of love to that of such artists as Botticelli Vermeer Claude Lorrain Redon and Klimt Juxtaposing their paintings with nineteenth and twentieth century texts both reveals the ways in which novels develop and individualize common erotic and religious themes and illustrates how the novel has influenced our perception of all art

Self-Reflexive Novel Stefano Rossoni,2025-07-24 Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self Reflexive Novel examines how the narratives of four world renowned authors namely J M Coetzee Milan Kundera Philip Roth and Mario Vargas Llosa offer a standpoint through which to address the inscription of heterosexual masculinity into Western literary legacy and the ways in which masculinity is re fashioned in contemporary self reflexive novels Considering the interconnectedness of their narratives for the first time the book explores unexamined patterns of dialogue among Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa while also contextualising their writing in the light of the European literary tradition inaugurated by Cervantes's Don Quixote and continued by Flaubert's Madame Bovary Rather than building on conventional theoretical approaches to literary studies Stefano Rossoni develops a fresh and engaging approach by looking at these two works not only as narrative texts but most importantly as theories of literature In dialogue with critical contributions that examined men's emotional illiteracy and struggle to develop a language for self reflection the book argues that the narratives of Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa engage with the tradition of the self reflexive novel and its ramifications to reflect on masculinity as a socio cultural construction Ultimately their writing reveals men's novelistic self reflexivity as a site of unintelligibility A Philosophy of

Belonging James Greenaway,2023-08-15 James Greenaway offers a philosophical guide to understanding affirming and valuing the significance of belonging across personal political and historical dimensions of existence A sense of belonging is one of the most meaningful experiences of anyone's life Inversely the discovery that one does not belong can be one of the most upsetting experiences In A Philosophy of Belonging Greenaway treats the notion of belonging as an intrinsically philosophical one After all belonging raises intense questions of personal self understanding identity mortality and longing it confronts interpersonal sociopolitical and historical problems and it probes our relationship with both the knowable world and transcendent mystery Experiences of alienation exclusion and despair become conspicuous only because we are already moved by a primordial desire to belong Greenaway presents a hermeneutical framework that brings the intelligibility of belonging into focus and discusses the works of various representative thinkers in light of this hermeneutic The study is divided into two main parts Presence and Communion In the first Greenaway considers the abiding presence of the cosmos

as the context of personhood and the world followed by the presence of persons to themselves and others by way of consciousness and embodiment culminating in a discussion of the unrestricted horizon of meaning that love makes present in persons In the second part belonging in community is explored as a crucial type of communion that is both politically and historically structured Moreover communion has direction and a quality of sacredness that offers itself for consideration Greenaway concludes with a discussion of the consequences of refusing presence and communion and what is involved in the repudiation of belonging
