R G Howarth Australian Man Of Letters:

R.G. Howarth, Australian Man of Letters Alan Lindsey McLeod, 2005 An early admirer and critic of Howarth's poetry indicated that he had commenced writing verse at the age of seven. He had apparently continued in this avocation for in his first year at Fort Street he was awarded the prize of one guinea donated by the headmaster for the best School song. There have been few Australian academics who have made notable contributions to more than one or two aspects of their discipline. Robert Guy Howarth was one of these. R G Howarth was first identified as a talented young poet by the distinguished Australian critic and teacher Dr George Mackaness who studied the teaching of English at Fort Street Sydney High School early last century. While another student A D Hope also became an influential professor of English and a noted satirist, Howarth worked mainly in the love lyric but also in the aphoristic epigrammatic and satiric modes of occasional verse. Hope's model was Alexander Pope. Howarth's was Lord Rochester; both were influenced by the Augustan aesthetic and both influenced the direction of Australian poetry at mid century. In addition to his verse, Howarth produced a significant body of literary criticism through numerous contributions to journals through his long term editing of Southerly and guiding of the English Association Sydney Branch. He influenced both the direction of scholarship and the development of standards of criticism in Australia. In his seventeen years as Arderne Professor of English Literature in the University of Cape Town, his influence on English studies in South Africa was commensurate with his influence in Sydney. Throughout his academic life, Guy Howarth was an indefatigable correspondent maintaining contact with writers, academics and personal friends worldwide as his archives in the library of the University of Texas show. In recognition of his contribution to the world of letters, he was made a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature.

The Shakespearean International Yearbook Graham Bradshaw, Tom Bishop, Clara Calvo, 2017-05-15 This eighth volume of The Shakespearean International Yearbook presents a special section on European Shakespeares proceeding from the claim that Shakespeare's literary craft was not just native English or British but was filtered and fashioned through a Renaissance awareness that needs to be recognized as European and that has had effects and afterlives across the Continent. Guest editors Ton Hoenselaars and Clara Calvo have constructed this section to highlight both how the spread of Shakespeare throughout Europe has brought together the energies of a wide variety of European cultures across several centuries and how the inclusion of Shakespeare in European culture has been not only a European but also a world affair. The Shakespearean International Yearbook continues to provide an annual survey of important issues and developments in contemporary Shakespeare studies. Contributors to this issue come from the US and the UK, Spain, Switzerland and South Africa, Canada, The Netherlands, India, Portugal, Greece, France and Hungary. In addition to the section on European Shakespeares, this volume includes essays on the genre of romance, issues of character and other topics.
