Minority Populations and Health Thomas A. LaVeist, 2011-03-10 The text is state of the art in its analysis of health disparities from both domestic and international perspectives Minority Populations and Health An Introduction to Health Disparities in the United States is a welcome addition to the field because it widens access to the complex issues underlying the health disparities problem Preventing Chronic Disease CDC October 2005 This is a very comprehensive evidence based book dealing with the health disparities that plague the United States This is a welcome and valuable addition to the field of health care for minority groups in the United States Doody s Publishers Bulletin August 2005 Health isn t color blind Racial minorities disproportionately suffer from some diseases but experts say race alone doesn t completely account for the disparities Newsweek s Jennifer Barrett Ozols spoke with Thomas LaVeist director of the Center for Health Disparities Solutions at Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health and author of the upcoming book Minority Populations and Health An Introduction to Health Disparities in the U S Jossey Bass about race and medicine MSNBC Newsweek interview with author Thomas L LaVeist February 2005 The book is readable and organized to be quickly read with specifics readily retrievable It is comprehensive and visual Journal of the American Medical Association September 2005 Minority Populations and Health is a textbook that offers a complete foundation in the core issues and theoretical frameworks for the development of policy and interventions to address race disparities in health related outcomes This book covers U S health and social policy the role of race and ethnicity in health research social factors contributing to mortality longevity and life expectancy quantitative and demographic analysis and access and utilization of health services Instructors material available at <http://www.minorityhealth.com> Unequal Treatment Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Sciences Policy, Committee on Understanding and Eliminating Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Health Care, 2009-02-06 Racial and ethnic disparities in health care are known to reflect access to care and other issues that arise from differing socioeconomic conditions There is however increasing evidence that even after such differences are accounted for race and ethnicity remain significant predictors of the quality of health care received In Unequal Treatment a panel of experts documents this evidence and explores how persons of color experience the health care environment The book examines how disparities in treatment may arise in health care systems and looks at aspects of the clinical encounter that may contribute to such disparities Patients and providers attitudes expectations and behavior are analyzed How to intervene Unequal Treatment offers recommendations for improvements in medical care financing allocation of care availability of language translation community based care and other arenas The committee highlights the potential of cross cultural education to improve provider patient communication and offers a detailed look at how to integrate cross cultural learning within the health professions The book concludes with recommendations for data collection and research initiatives Unequal Treatment will be vitally important to health care policymakers administrators providers educators and students as well as advocates for people of color Race and the City Shanti Fernando, 2011-11-01 In Race and the City Shanti Fernando presents an elegant analysis of the mechanisms of political mobilization under systemic racism that draws on case studies interviews and a detailed understanding of the racialized legal and sociocultural histories of both the United States and Canada She argues that while increasing diversity may be a challenge for systemic inclusiveness it is one that must be met if Canada is to uphold its vision of a truly democratic society Being White Karyn D. McKinney, 2013-04-15 Karyn McKinney uses written autobiographies solicited from young white people to empirically analyze the contours of the white experience in U S society This text offers a unique view of whiteness based on the rich data provided by whites themselves writing about what it means to be white Ethnicity, Class, and Nationalism Anton L. Allahaar, 2005-06-28 Celebrants of an ever emerging globalization fly the banner of free trade the mass marketization of once faltering economies and rising economic and social standards for all Many opponents to globalization rightfully point out that borders still exist largely for the purposes of keeping one commodity in its place the labor commodity or the more familiar immigrant Arguments of this type are often steeped in economic and social discourse Race and ethnicity are seen as either being subsumed by this discourse or are entirely ignored as incidental to this type of political thought In Ethnicity Class and Nationalism Caribbean and Extra Caribbean Dimensions specialists writing on the Caribbean form of the nation state place race and ethnicity along with class in its proper context at the very foundations of the modern nation Editor Anton L Allahaar has handpicked scholarship that is both contemporary and expert in its consideration of Caribbean geo politics Furthermore essays in this volume include comparative cases from around the globe In the interest of locating race and ethnicity as sociological and political categories that are inimical to contemporary conceptions of the nation state Allahar explores spaces other than the Caribbean The result is a comparative study that is unique in scope and also in its level of scholarly reflection This book is the first of its kind It is essential reading for anyone interested in advancing their analysis of political economic social and cultural thought in the Caribbean

Race and Morality Melvyn L. Fein, 2012-12-06 After I had finished my presentation a colleague and I sat rocking on the hotel porch to discuss its merits It was a picture perfect fall day in Jekyll Island Georgia and he was a friend Yes he explained what I was saying seemed to be true And yes it probably needed to be said but why did I want to be the one to say it Wasn't I after all a tenured professor who didn't need to make a fuss in order to retain his job Didn't it make sense to just kick back and enjoy the easy life I had earned The topic of our tete a tete was my speculations about race relations and he was certain that too much honesty could only get me in trouble Given my lack of political correctness people were sure to assume that I was a racist and not give me a fair hearing This was a prospect I had previously contemplated Long before embarking on this volume I had often asked myself why I wanted to write it The ideological fervor that dominates our public dialogue on race guaranteed that some people would perceive me as a dangerous scoundrel who had to be put in his place

Communicative Competence, Classroom Interaction, and Educational Equity Courtney B. Cazden, 2017-11-28 In the World Library of Educationalists series international scholars themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and or practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers thus are able to follow the themes and strands of their work and see their contribution to the development of a field as well as the development of the field itself Contributors to the series include Michael Apple James A Banks Joel Spring William F Pinar Stephen J Ball Elliot Eisner Howard Gardner John Gilbert Ivor F Goodson and Peter Jarvis In this volume Courtney B Cazden renowned educational sociolinguist brings together a selection of her seminal work organized around three themes development of individual communicative competence in both oral and written language and discourse classroom interaction in learning and teaching and social justice educational equity issues in wider contexts beyond the classroom Since the 1970s Cazden has been a key figure in the ethnography of schooling focusing on children's linguistic development both oral and written and the functions of language in formal education primarily but not exclusively in the United States Combining her experiences as a former primary schoolteacher with the insight and methodological rigor of a trained ethnographer and linguist Cazden helped to establish ethnography and discourse analysis as central methodologies for analyzing classroom interaction This capstone volume highlights her major contributions to the field

Globalization and America Angela J. Hattery, David G. Embrick, Earl Smith, 2008-05-21 Hattery Embrick and Smith present a collection of essays that explore the ways in which issues of human rights and social inequality are shared globally The editors focus on the United States role in contributing to human rights violations both inside and outside its borders Essays on contemporary issues such as immigration colonialism and reparations are used to illustrate how the U S and the rest of the world are inextricably linked in their relationships to human rights violations and social inequality Unequal Motherhoods and the Adoption of Asian Children Jungyun Gill,2016-12-13 This book explores a deeply personal aspect of globalization the adoption of Asian children by white Americans It is based on dozens of interviews with adoptive mothers and adoption social workers nearly two hundred letters and essays written by Korean birth mothers who put their children up for adoption and field work at an adoption agency in South Korea It also includes analyses and explanations of U S and South Korean governments social characteristics and policies regarding adoptions and how relations between nations have affected international adoption The book focuses on whether the commonly held notion that adoptions are to serve children s welfare and their best interests has tended to render gendered aspects of international adoptions invisible Factors such as gender inequality social control of women s reproductive power patriarchic family structure and social beliefs concerning womanhood and motherhood that affect international adoptions are revealed in this book The multiple ways in which adoptive birth and foster mothers experience gender oppression from their different social positions of class race and nationality are explored and the interdependencies and inequalities of the motherhoods of these three groups of women are brought to light Reducing Racial/Ethnic Disparities in Reproductive and Perinatal Outcomes Arden Handler,Joan Kennelly,Nadine Peacock,2010-11-23 Among women s health concerns reproductive issues both prenatal and postpartum hold particular prominence Yet despite the many programs dedicated to improving women s reproductive health maternal and infant morbidity and mortality rates in minority communities remain unchanged or have increased Confronting this alarming statistic head on Reducing Racial Ethnic Disparities in Reproductive and Perinatal Outcomes is the first book systematically examining public health interventions designed toward meeting this important and elusive goal Its contributors offer the best thinking and practice on this complicated topic clarifying the relationship between evidence based medicine and evidence based public health and its potential for increasing parity considering interventions in the multiple contexts of women s lives reviewing the evidence base for each program or initiative featured and describing methodologies for evaluating interventions The resulting volume advocates for an integrative lifespan approach including topics related to Family planning STI and HIV AIDS screening and treatment Smoking cessation and reducing exposure to environmental smoke Preconceptional well woman care Depression screening and treatment Labor delivery approaches and intrapartum care Emerging prenatal care interventions from centering pregnancy to doula support For professionals and graduate students in psychiatry psychology sociology women s health and public health Reducing Racial Ethnic Disparities in Reproductive and Perinatal Outcomes reframes a set of ongoing issues and guides the reader toward state of the art solutions Cultural Diversity Ruben J. Echemendia,2015-10-23 Cultural Diversity studies the relationship between culture and neuropsychology Its goal is to examine salient aspects of this relationship and assist in bringing the issue of culture and cultural diversity to the forefront of neuropsychological discussions. The articles help further the understanding that ethnic and cultural variables are important not only in research design but also in clinical practice. In addition, they urge clinicians to make cultural variables an integral component of any neuropsychological assessment and examine clinical data in the context of the patient's ethnic and cultural background.

Spaces of Hate Colin Flint, 2013-10-18

While much has been written about hate groups and extreme right political movements, this book will be the first that addresses the crucial role that place and context play in generating and shaping them. Ranging across geographical scales, the essays start with the home and then move from the local to the regional to the national to finally the global. In this collection, much of the focus is on the U.S. as the contributors consider a variety of hate activity and hate groups across the country, including rural white supremacist and neo-Nazi movements, anti-black sentiment directed towards cities, anti-gay activity in cities and rural areas, and the resurgent Southern nationalist movement. Closing with pieces from those who combat hate activity, the intention of Spaces of Hate is to recognize specific geographic settings likely to foster hate activity.
