The Race Question in Canada Andre Siegfried, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1907 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XXXIII POLITICAL IMPERIALISM continued IL THE ERA OF DIFFICULTIES The Transvaal War had brought the tone of British patriotism to a pitch of exaltation at which it could not maintain itself for long Peace re-established the atmosphere became cleared again Henceforward it is to be no longer feeling but interest that shall determine the attitude of parties towards the already less burning subject of Imperialism The French Canadians retain the sentiments that they have cherished all along but that M Bourassa alone or almost alone has ventured to express Loyal subjects of the Crown they declare themselves satisfied with the present but for this very reason opposed to all change They recognise that they owe certain duties to England but admit none at all to the Empire Sentimental arguments such as the English invoke are the very last to appeal to them for their loyalty is the fruit of careful reasoning and the glories of the British name have absolutely no interest for them What they have at heart is the maintenance of their autonomy and the confirmation of the liberties which they have won after a century of struggling Anyone who will not begin by reassuring them on this point will find them resolute opponents From whatever point of view they look at it Imperialism either frightens them or leaves them indifferent Is it a commercial union that is in question Devoting themselves chiefly to agriculture and the learned professions they do not give the first place in their thoughts to economic problems What they desire most is to have a free hand and the idea of a Zollverein does not attract them for by it they would lose their independence in regard to customs duties A policy of Treaties of Commerce does not The Race Question in Canada André Siegfried, 1968 RACE QUESTION IN CANADA. , 2003 The Race Question in Canada Siegfried André, 2022-10-27 Comparing Canada Martin Papillon, Luc Turgeon, Jennifer Wallner, Stephen White, 2014-09-15 Debating how Canada compares both regionally and in relation to other countries is a national pastime This book examines how political scientists apply diverse comparative strategies to better understand Canadian political life Using a variety of methods the contributors use comparison to examine topics as diverse as Indigenous rights Canadian voting behaviour activist movements climate policy and immigrant retention While the theoretical perspectives and kinds of questions asked vary greatly as a whole they demonstrate how the art of comparing is an important strategy for understanding Canadian identity politics political mobilization political institutions and public policy Ultimately this book establishes how adopting a more systematic comparative outlook is essential not only to revitalize the study of Canadian politics but also to achieve a more nuanced understanding of Canada as a whole RACE
