Serving Families And Children Through Partnerships A Howtooit Manual For Librarians:

Serving Families and Children Through Partnerships Sandra Feinberg,Sari Feldman,1996 This manual explains how to forge new partnerships with agencies and organisations that focus on families and young children in order to design a family centred environment for the library Each chapter centres on different ways in which the library can best serve families and children The Family-centered Library Handbook Sandra Feinberg,2007 Provides information on offering library services for families with young children Including Families of Children with Special Needs Carrie Scott Banks,Sandra Feinberg,Barbara A. Jordan,Kathleen Deerr,Michelle Langa,2014 More than 6 5 million children in the US receive special education services in any given community approximately one child out of every six will get speech therapy go to counseling attend classes exclusively with other children with disabilities or receive some other service that allows him or her to learn This new revised edition is a step by step guide to serving children and youth with disabilities as well as the family members caregivers and other people involved in their lives The authors show how staff can enable full use of the library s resources by integrating the methods of educators medical and psychological therapists social workers librarians parents and other caregivers Widening the scope to address the needs of teens as well as preschool and school age children this edition also discusses the needs of Spanish speaking children with disabilities and their families looking at cultural competency as well as Spanish language resources Enhanced with checklists stories based on real experiences descriptions of model programs and resources and an overview of appropriate internet sites and services this how to gives thorough consideration to Partnering and collaborating with parents and other professionals Developing special collections and resources Assessing competencies and skills Principles underlying family centered services and resource based practices The interrelationship of early intervention special education and library service This manual will prove valuable not only to children s services librarians outreach librarians and library administrators but also early intervention and family support professionals early childhood and special educators childcare workers daycare and after school program providers and policymakers Resources in Education ,2000-10 Learning Environments for Young Children Sandra Feinberg,Joan F. Kuchner,Sari Feldman,1998 The vision of Learning Environments for Young Children Rethinking Library Spaces and Services is about learning families and community where the public library presents a community based educational setting in which librarians serve as educators guides coaches and facilitators of lifelong active learning access for children to enriching satisfying and developmentally appropriate resources and learning opportunities diverse collections programs and technical resources for young children and the adults in their lives programs and resources that encourage children s focused participation creativity critical thinking cooperation and problem solving and a nonjudgmental integrated and interdisciplinary approach to lifelong learning developing the whole person child or adult Included in Learning Environments for Young Children are field tested measuring instruments that you and your staff can use to conduct a qualitative assessment of your library's children's services. These ready to use forms will help you collect information that will highlight the importance of early childhood services in presentations to funding sources, trustees and other key stakeholders.

Library Services from Birth to Five Carolyn Rankin, Avril Brock, 2015-02-25 Following on from their ground breaking first book Delivering the Best Start Rankin and Brock return to the subject of pre school and early years library provision with contributions and case studies from innovators and experts around the world. There is a growing awareness of the significance of the first five years of life for intellectual, social and emotional development and early intervention is of political interest. This book provides knowledge and understanding about early language and literacy development and how young children become successful through enjoyable and meaningful experiences. Coverage includes an examination of the key role of library practitioners who work with young children, the importance of effective interdisciplinary teamwork for professionals working with the early years, a focus on involving parents and carers and valuing their culture, language heritage and community, practical guidance given on setting up and running pre school library services, contributions and case studies from experts around the world. This book will be useful reading for early years professionals and librarians, those responsible for commissioning and delivering pre school library services, students of library and information studies or childhood studies and practitioners undertaking practical early years qualifications.
