The Seven Deadly Sins? Anne Kearns, 2018 The Seven Deadly Sins? Anne Kearns, 2018-05-08 The Seven Deadly Sins grew out of a post qualification training course of the same name It aims to make more accessible some concepts from the world of psychoanalysis self psychology and affective neuroscience as well as commenting on the challenge of working in the real world This is achieved by offering an integrative and anecdotal perspective on issues that have been generally un or under explored in trainings that have a humanistic emphasis issues such as envy shame love and hate trauma addiction money and eating disorders These issues are illustrated through the judicious use of clinical case studies Various maps are provided to assist the supervisor and clinician in holding opposing diagnostic models and in working with psychotherapy and counselling trainees The chapters can be read in isolation which makes the book an ideal tool for the supervisor and clinician to use in response to specific issues Creative Ethical Practice in Counselling & Psychotherapy Patti Owens, Bee Springwood, Michael Wilson, 2012-03-22 Can I be a creative therapist without overstepping boundaries and risking complaints Can I practise safely and ethically whilst remaining true to my humanistic values This book answers Yes by offering a safety net to trainees and therapists working in the context of today's complaints culture Exploring what safe and creative practice means in relation to the key cornerstones in therapy the authors offer practical guidance to assist the reader in reflecting on and negotiating the challenges of boundaries legalities and defensive practice Creative Ethical Practice for Counselling Psychotherapy considers the necessary structures and processes that must inform creative humanistic practice for it to be a safe ethical therapeutic framework Packed with reflective exercises summaries case examples and step by step guidance this book takes the reader from establishing the therapeutic relationship to worst case scenarios like complaints procedures and legal action It is essential reading for legal ethical modules on all counselling courses Patti Owens Michael Wilson and Bee Springwood are all humanistic and integrative therapists and members of the UK Association of Humanistic Psychology Practitioners UKAHPP as well as the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy UKCP The Mirror Crack'd Anne Kearns, 2018-04-24 Revised edition This title is as a wake up call to take seriously the climate in which mental health professionals practice in which complaints and civil actions against psychotherapists and counsellors are on the increase and to sharpen assessment skills accordingly It is also designed to help professionals to think about the therapeutic frame and what can happen to both the practitioner and the client when it is broken and finally to give voice to some colleagues who have been involved in the area of complaints in the hope that you and the organisations under whose codes of ethics you practice will take more of an interest in making those codes and frameworks more relevant to the intricacies of the therapeutic relationship The message is simple injuries that happen in relationships need to be addressed in relationships
