Kammen, 2012-10-03 During the twenty years before the American Revolution thirty seven men acted as paid agent or lobbyists for the American colonies in England The most famous among them were Benjamin Franklin who represented four different colonies and served for seventeen years as agent for Pennsylvania and Edmund Burke who accepted the position to further his own career Yet the other thirty five were also a colorful and heterogeneous group This detailed study by a Pulitzer prize winning historian of their activities and of the gradual breakdown of communications between the colonies and the mother country until the link between the two become only a rope of sand is in the words of the Richmond News Leader a new and invigorating approach to the American fight for independence Soundly documented well organized and highly readable The New York Historical Society Quarterly A challenging book about an important historical institution The Historian A substantial contribution to our understanding of Anglo American history during the eighteenth century The New England Quarterly Both in concept and execution A Rope of Sand is impressive The Journal of American History

Interpreting the Present Gerald J. Galgan, 1993 Gerald J Galgan's collection of essays speaks in several philosophical voices He explores the relationship between a metaphysical and epistemological language and follows the transition from the medieval Christian Book of Nature to the modern conception of subjectivity Galgan constructs a philosophical past through which we can interpret the present pluralism of ideas and sort out meanings in a modern world of Gods without Gods Useful text for students of Philosophy and Religion Contents Between God and Nothingness Reflections on the Twentieth Century Clarifying the Present An Essay in Historical Interpretation The Changing of the Gods An Essay on the Language of Contemporaneity Pragmatism The Epistemology of Technology Technology as Text Old Age Is a Terminal Illness Alma Bond, 2006 Dr Alma Bond provides insight into one of the greatest challenges of life conquering the fear of death Using her own experiences with the deaths of loved ones Dr Bond constructed a Old Age is a Terminal Illness in a style similar to Sigmund Freud's Interpretation of Dreams in order to overcome her fear of death As a published author Dr Bond's goal is to pass her experiences on to all those who need to conquer the same fear in order to live the rest of their lives to the fullest
