Di Leo,2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines The Cumulative Book Index ,1988 A world list of books in the English language CEA Critic ,1967 Creativity ,1988 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1993

Educational Research Monographs ,1954 Remarkable Women in New York History Helen Engel,Marilynn Smiley,2014-04-08 A history of the amazing women who have left their mark on the Empire State The significant events in New York State history are well known to educators students and New Yorkers alike But often the role that women played in these events has been overlooked In this book members of the American Association of University Women in New York State have meticulously researched the lives and actions of some of New York s finest women Some of the names are renowned like the great emancipator Harriet Tubman who settled in Auburn and some are less so such as Linda Tetor who fought for the rights of senior citizens in Steuben County and throughout the state Discover the stories of these indomitable women who from Long Island and Manhattan to Buffalo and Fredonia have steered the course of New York s history from the colonial era through today The Teaching Archive Rachel Sagner Buurma,Laura Heffernan,2020-12-04 The Teaching Archive shows us a series of major literary thinkers in a place we seldom remember them inhabiting the classroom Rachel Sagner Buurma and Laura Heffernan open up the teaching archive the syllabuses course descriptions lecture notes and class assignments of critics and scholars including T S Eliot Caroline Spurgeon I A Richards Edith Rickert J Saunders Redding Edmund Wilson Cleanth Brooks Josephine Miles and Simon J Ortiz This new history of English rewrites what we know about the discipline by showing how students helped write foundational works of literary criticism and how English classes at community colleges and HBCUs pioneered the reading methods and expanded canons that came only belatedly to the Ivy League It reminds us that research and teaching which institutions often imagine as separate have always been intertwined in practice In a contemporary moment of humanities defunding the casualization of teaching and the privatization of pedagogy The Teaching Archive offers a more accurate view of the work we have done in the past and must continue to do in the future
