book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and Iranian Studies as well as Architectural History including Islamic architecture and historiography      The Martyrs of Karbala Kamran Scot Aghaie, 2011-12-01 This innovative study examines patterns of change in Shi'i symbols and rituals over the past two centuries to reveal how modernization has influenced the societal political and religious culture of Iran Shi'is who support the Prophet Mohammad's progeny as his successors in opposition to the Sunni caliphate tradition make up 10 to 15 percent of the world's Muslim population roughly half of whom live in Iran Throughout the early history of the Islamic Middle East the Sunnis have been associated with the state and the ruling elite while Shi'is have most often represented the political opposition and have had broad appeal among the masses Moharram symbols and rituals commemorate the Battle of Karbala in 680 CE in which the Prophet Mohammad's grandson Hoseyn and most of his family and supporters were massacred by the troops of the Umayyad caliph Yazid Moharram symbols and rituals are among the most pervasive and popular aspects of Iranian culture and society This book traces patterns of continuity and change of Moharram symbols and rituals in three aspects of Iranian life the importance of these rituals in promoting social bonds status identities and ideals ways in which the three major successive regimes Qajars Pahlavis and the Islamic Republic have either used these rituals to promote their legitimacy or have suppressed them because they viewed them as a potential political threat and the uses of Moharram symbolism by opposition groups interested in overthrowing the regime While the patterns of government patronage have been radically discontinuous over the past two centuries the roles of these rituals in popular society and culture have been relatively continuous or have evolved independently of the state The political uses of modern day rituals and the enduring symbolism of the Karbala narratives continue today      Performing the Iranian State Staci Gem Scheiwiller, 2014-11-01 This book discusses what it means to perform the State what this action means in relation to the country of Iran and how these various performances are represented The concept of the State as a modern phenomenon has had a powerful impact on the formation of the individual and collective as well as on determining how political entities are perceived in their interactions with one another in the current global arena      Christian Missions and Humanitarianism in The Middle East, 1850-1950, 2020-09-07 From the early phases of modern missions Christian missionaries supported many humanitarian activities mostly framed as subservient to the preaching of Christianity This anthology contributes to a historically grounded understanding of the complex relationship between Christian missions and the roots of humanitarianism and its contemporary uses in a Middle Eastern context Contributions focus on ideologies rhetoric and practices of missionaries and their apostolates towards humanitarianism from the mid 19th century Middle East crises examining different missionaries their society's worldview and their networks in various areas of the Middle East In the early 20th century Christian missions increasingly paid more attention to organisation and bureaucratisation rationalisation and media became more important to their work The volume analyses how non missionaries took over to a certain extent the aims and organisations of the missionaries as to humanitarianism It seeks to discover and retrace such entangled histories for the first time in an integral perspective Contributors include Beth Baron Philippe Bourmaud Seija Jalagin Nazan Maksudyan Michael Marten Heleen L Murre van den Berg Inger Marie Okkenhaug Idir Ouahes Maria Chiara Rioli Kar ne Sanchez Summerer Bertrand Taithe and Chantal Verdeil Unveiling Men Wendy DeSouza,2019-01-25 For years Iranian academics writers and scholars have equated national development and progress with the reform of men s sexual behavior Modern intellectuals repudiated native sexuality in Iran just as their European counterparts in France and Germany did arguing that transforming male identity was essential to the recovery of the nation DeSouza offers an alternate narrative of modern Iranian masculinity as an attempt to redraw social hierarchies among men Moving beyond rigid portrayals of Islamic patriarchy and female oppression she analyzes debates about manhood and maleness in early twentieth century Iran particularly around questions of race and sexuality DeSouza presents the larger implications of Pahlavi hegemonic masculinity in creating racialized male subjects and productive sexualities In addition she explores a cross pollination with Europe identifying how the East shaped visions of European male identity

Photography, History, Difference Tanya Sheehan,2014-12-02 Over the past decade historical studies of photography have embraced a variety of cultural and disciplinary approaches to the medium while shedding light on non Western vernacular and other photographic practices outside the Euro American canon Photography History Difference brings together an international group of scholars to reflect on contemporary efforts to take a different approach to photography and its histories What are the benefits and challenges of writing a consolidated global history of photography How do they compare with those of producing more circumscribed regional or thematic histories In what ways does the recent emphasis on geographic and national specificity encourage or exclude attention to other forms of difference such as race class gender and sexuality Do studies of other photographies ultimately necessitate the adoption of nontraditional methodologies or are there contexts in which such differentiation can be intellectually unproductive and politically suspect The contributors to the volume explore these and other questions through historical case studies interpretive surveys of recent historiography criticism and museum practices and creative proposals to rethink the connections between photography history and difference A thought provoking collection of essays that represents new ways of thinking about photography and its histories It will appeal to a broad readership among those interested in art history visual culture media studies and social history

Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif,Stephen Vernoit,2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour
