Sewanee, 1998     The Sewanee Review, 1922     The Imagination as a Means of Grace Ernest Lee Tuveson,     The Living Church, 1904     American Women Prose Writers, 1870-1920 Sharon M. Harris, 2000 Essays on American prose writers during a period marked by enormous cultural change in a short period of time Like female sexuality issues of race and ethnicity were some of the most volatile themes addressed in women s prose writings of this period Some of the many ethnic and religious groups that emerged as significant literary voices were Jewish Native American African American Euramericans and Asian     Lights in the Darkness Phillip M. Thompson, 2017-07-21 Americans currently spend on average more than ten hours a day in front of a screen Some of that time can now be a source of profound ethical reflections and spiritual insights thanks to this refreshing book The primary goal of Lights in the Darkness is to explore the themes of grace redemption pilgrimage conscience justice faith and reason the common good sacramentality and wisdom in twelve award winning films In addition to unpacking these themes each chapter provides background information on the relevant historical moment and explores the development of the film Questions at the end of each chapter helps to connect the themes in each film to the lives of the reader Film is a powerful and unique artistic medium and now you have a resource to connect its wonders to your faith by reading this book and watching these films     The Church Quarterly Review Arthur Cayley Headlam (Bishop of Gloucester), 1918     The Churchman, 1891     A Window to Heaven Patrick Dean, 2021-03-02 The captivating and heroic story of Hudson Stuck an Episcopal priest and his team s history making summit of Denali In 1913 four men made a months long journey by dog sled to the base of the tallest mountain in North America Several groups had already tried but failed to reach the top of a mountain whose size occupying 120 square miles of the earth s surface and position as the Earth s northernmost peak of more than 6 000 meters elevation make it one of the world s deadliest mountains Although its height from base to top is actually greater than Everest s it is Denali s weather not altitude that have caused the great majority of fatalities over a hundred since 1903 Denali experiences weather more severe than the North Pole with temperatures of forty below zero and winds that howl at 80 to 100 miles per hour for days at a stretch But in 1913 none of this mattered to Hudson Stuck a fifty year old Episcopal priest Harry Karstens the hardened Alaskan wilderness guide Walter Harper and Robert Tatum both just in their twenties They were all determined to be the first to set foot on top of Denali In A Window to Heaven Patrick Dean brings to life this heart pounding and spellbinding feat of this first ascent and paints a rich portrait of the frontier at the turn of the twentieth century The story of Stuck and his team will lead us through the Texas frontier and Tennessee mountains to an encounter with Jack London at the peak of the Yukon Goldrush We experience Stuck s awe at the rich Aleut and Athabascan indigenous traditions and his efforts to help preserve these ways of life Filled with daring exploration and rich history A Window to Heaven is a brilliant and spellbinding narrative of success against the odds     The Southern Quarterly, 1984     Church Quarterly Review, 1918     The Salt Hour J. P.

White,2001 With this dazzling collection J P White embarks on a windswept journey through seductive treacherous waterways Conveying a stormy sense of place defined less by geography than by the push and pull of the mind at odds with circumstance these bracing poems plumb the depths of the sea and of the human heart in muscular graceful language A restless traveler who takes us from England and Russia to Nicaragua and the Caribbean White pushes beyond the boundaries of the lyric narrative tradition to let more of the world more flux of the larger human condition rush in As The Salt Hour wends its way from Lake Erie to the Sea of Cortez from the Aegean Sea to ice choked Baffin Bay White reveals the electric clash of public and private in the natural and human worlds a teenaged boy face to face with the blue skinned sideshow freak who reminds him of himself a late shift utility worker catastrophically distracted by an angel in black lace and high heels the perilous first leap of seal pups into the black merciless water Drenched in color almost achingly vivid The Salt Hour evokes the very salt breath of the sea together with the poet s need for connection with the shore Back cover Vale of Tears

Edward J. Blum, W. Scott Poole, 2005 Vale of Tears New Essays in Religion and Reconstruction offers a window into the exciting work being done by historians social scientists and scholars of religious studies on the epoch of Reconstruction A time of both peril and promise Reconstruction in America became a cauldron of transformation and change This collection argues that religion provided the idiom and symbol as often the very substance of those changes The authors of this collection examine how African Americans and white Southerners New England Abolitionists and former Confederate soldiers Catholics and Protestants on both sides of the Mason Dixon line brought their sense of the sacred into collaboration and conflict Together these essays mark an important new departure in a still contested period of American history Interdisciplinary in scope and content it promises to challenge many of the traditional parameters of Reconstruction historiography The range of contributors to the project including Gaines Foster and Paul Harvey will draw a great deal of attention from Southern historians literary scholars and scholars of American religion Shakespeare Survey Stanley Wells, 2002-11-28 The first fifty volumes of this yearbook of Shakespeare studies are being reissued in paperback
