Sex, Gender and International Human Rights Law Giovanna Gilleri, 2023-12-01 This book investigates the relationship between sex and gender under international human rights law and how this influences the formation of individual subjects Combining feminist queer and psychoanalytical perspectives the author scrutinises the sexed gendered human rights discourse starting from the assumptions underpinning interpretations of sex gender and the related notions of gender identity sex characteristics and sexual orientation Human rights law has so far offered only a limited account of the diversity of sexed gendered subjectivities being based on a series of simplistic assumptions Namely that there are only two sexes and two genders sex is a natural fact and gender is a social construct gender is the metonymic signifier for women and gender power relations take the asymmetrical shape of male domination versus female oppression Against these assumptions dominative and subordinate postures interchangeably attach to femininities and masculinities depending on the subjects roles their positionalities and the situational meanings of their acts The limits of an approach to gender which is based on rigid binaries are evident in two case studies on the UN human rights treaty bodies vocabulary on medically unnecessary interventions upon intersex children and on the European Court of Human Rights narrative on sadomasochism This examination of the impact of human rights on gendered subjectivities will be of interest to scholars students and researchers in international law gender studies queer studies cultural studies critical race theory and psychoanalysis

Gender-Based Violence in Mexico Ana Luisa Sánchez Hernández,Miguel Angel Martínez Martínez,Francisco Díaz Estrada,2023-07-14 This book examines the roots of systemic aggression against women in contemporary Mexico and the connection between social practices and the institutional permissiveness of the Mexican State with regard to gendered violence Since the democratic transition at the end of the 1990s Mexico has registered an increase in the intensity and types of violence that have made life in some regions almost unsustainable The chapters in this volume consider that capitalism colonialism and patriarchy are interrelated processes that employ the technologies of gender and race as a continuation of the symbolic hegemony that treats feminized and racialized bodies as disposable Against this background it becomes necessary to understand from different dimensions the systemic violence against women as well as the processes of articulation between social practices and the permissiveness of the State in the face of aggression Gender Based Violence in Mexico mobilizes a dialogue between writings fields of knowledge causes and situations as essential tools for the struggle against gender violence As a situated work that underlines the systematic roots of the violence that keeps women in subaltern positions the text seeks an insurrection an uprising of the bodies that invite naming the abject peripheral and unseen populations of the project of globalized life woven by the obsession of success and prestige It presents a counter conclusion in the manner of a beginning in the desire to elaborate counter political and counter pedagogical strategies of non coercive experiences where questions and debates are not a sign of belligerence but of vitality and care for the body territories Gender Based Violence in Mexico will appeal to scholars of sociology criminology gender and Latin American studies with interests in gendered violence and injustice Routledge Handbook of Sexuality, Gender, Health and Rights Peter Aggleton, Rob Cover, Carmen H.
