Sex and the Marriage Covenant John F. Kippley, 2005 The thesis of this book is that God intends that sexual intercourse should be at least implicitly a renewal of the marriage covenant From this it follows that the marriage covenant provides the criterion to evaluate the morality of every sexual act Thus the title Sex and the Marriage Covenant is an appropriate description of the book s contents Marriage comes into being by a couple unreservedly entering God s covenant of marriage contraceptive intercourse contradicts the very essence of the marriage covenant From these considerations Kippley developed the covenant theology of sexuality described in this book Sex and the Marriage Covenant John

Conjugal Chastity in Pope Wojtyla Ailbe M. O'Reilly, 2010 Conjugal Chastity in Pope Wojtyla explains how Karol Wojtyla philosopher theologian and Pope tried to show how the sexual act within the context of marriage is an expression of love. After explaining how love as goodwill is the foundation of conjugal love the correct relationship between love and justice is clarified. The negative dimension of the personalistic norm of Wojtyla is then critically examined. Conjugal love is explained in terms of conjugal beneficence based on conjugal benevolence. This love leads to total self-giving in each conjugal act. The procreative meaning of the conjugal act seems to be its most formal element. The soul of the act so to speak the unitive element is described as an essential property of this act something which necessarily flows from the conjugal act which is open to life. Chastity is the virtue that allows sexuality to be integrated into a love which is truly personal and reflects Trinitarian Love.

Power Over the Body, Equality in the Family Charles J. Reid, 2004-10-29 The term conjugal rights has long characterized ways of speaking about marriage both in the canonistic tradition and in the secular legal systems of the West. This book explores the origins and dimensions of this concept and the range of meanings that have attached to it from the twelfth century to the present. Employing far-ranging sources Charles Reid Jr. examines the language of marriage in classical Roman law the Germanic legal codes of early medieval Europe and the writings of canon lawyers and theologians from the medieval and early modern periods. The heart of the book however consists of the writings of the canonists of the High Middle Ages especially the works of Hostiensis Bernard of Parma Innocent IV and Raymond de Peafort. Reid's incisive survey provides a new understanding of subjects such as the right of parties to marry free of parental coercion the nature of paternal power the place of bodies in the marriage contract the
