Queer Spiritual Spaces Kath Browne, Sally R. Munt, Andrew Kam-Tuck Yip, 2016-05-23 Drawn from extensive new and rich empirical research across the UK Canada and USA Queer Spiritual Spaces investigates the contemporary socio cultural practices of belief by those who have historically been and continue to be excluded or derided by mainstream religions and alternative spiritualities As the first monograph to be directly informed by queer subjectivities whilst dealing with divergent spiritualities on an international scale this book explores the recently emerging innovative spaces and integrative practices of queer spiritualities Its breadth of coverage and keen critical engagement mean it will serve as a theoretically fertile comprehensive entry point for any scholar wishing to explore the queer spiritual spaces of the twenty first century

Lone Star Muslims Ahmed Afzal, 2015 Lone Star Muslims offers an engaging and insightful look at contemporary Muslim American life in Texas It illuminates the dynamics of the Pakistani Muslim community in Houston a city with one of the largest Muslim populations in the south and southwestern United States Drawing on interviews and participant observation at radio stations festivals and ethnic businesses the volume explores everyday Muslim lives at the intersection of race class profession gender sexuality and religious sectarian affiliation to demonstrate the complexity of the South Asian experience Importantly the volume incorporates narratives of gay Muslim American men of Pakistani descent countering the presumed heteronormativity evident in most of the social science scholarship on Muslim Americans and revealing deeply felt affiliations to Islam through ritual and practice It also includes narratives of members of the highly skilled Shia Ismaili Muslim labor force employed in corporate America of Pakistani ethnic entrepreneurs the working class and the working poor employed in Pakistani ethnic businesses of community activists and of radio program hosts Decentering dominant framings that flatten understandings of transnational Islam and Muslim Americans such as terrorist on the one hand and model minority on the other Lone Star Muslims offers a glimpse into a variety of lived experiences It shows how specificities of class Islamic sectarian affiliation citizenship status gender and sexuality shape transnational identities and mediate racism marginalities and abjection

The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality Andrew K.T. Yip, 2016-04-01 The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality provides academics and students with a comprehensive and authoritative state of the art review of current research in the area of sexuality and religion broadly defined This collection of expert essays offers an inter disciplinary study of the important aspects of sexuality and religion calling upon sociological cultural historical and theological contributions to an under researched subject The Companion focuses on the exploration of diverse religious faiths spiritualities and sexualities with contributions that embrace many contrasting approaches related to the contemporary context By adopting a truly inter disciplinary and multi dimensional perspective the Companion embraces the complexities of both sexuality and religion Aimed primarily at a readership with specialist interest in both The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality offers an innovative and refreshing analysis of key theoretical and empirical issues in an increasingly relevant and expanding area of academic interest The Companion comprises five main thematic sections each with chapters ranging across a variety of crucial topics traversing various faith traditions The principal themes are epistemological and methodological issues the significance of religious text institutional religious settings stability transformation and change contesting hegemonic structures and discourses Each section includes four chapters contributed by leading international experts in their respective fields and who are at the cutting edge of current research Collectively they offer an inter disciplinary and comprehensive survey of sexuality and religion Islam and Homosexuality Samar Habib, 2009-11-12 An extensive collection of essays that examines the place of homosexuality in the contemporary and classical Muslim world The place of sexual and gender minorities in the contemporary Islamic world is the subject of fascinating new directions in research and scholarly thought Islam and Homosexuality gathers together 20 experts exploring these issues to provide an expansive look at the treatment of same sex interactions in Muslim cultures today Islam and Homosexuality offers one volume on the specific experiences of gay Muslims today and a second volume viewing the issue from a global perspective Essays explore the lives of LGBTIQ persons in both Islamic nations and Muslim communities in non Islamic countries Additional writings explore the roots of homophobia in the theology of Islam the various judgments against homosexuality in the different schools of Islamic law and the potential scriptural basis for including LGBTIQ persons in the Muslim community No other resource on the relationship between LGBTIQ persons and the world s largest religion covers the topic with anything approaching this work s range or depth Gay and Lesbian Asia Gerard Sullivan, PETER A JACKSON, 2013-09-13 How do Asian cultures construct queer genders sexualities and eroticism Gay and Lesbian Asia demonstrates the astonishing diversity of gay lesbian bisexual and transgendered identities in countries including Korea Thailand Malaysia China India Indonesia Singapore and the Philippines Although many Asian cultures borrow the language of the West when discussing queerness the attitudes relationships and roles described are quite different Gay and Lesbian Asia discusses cultural issues as well as the unique political position of gays in Asian societies For example the Thai concept of phet eroticized gender is quite different from the Western view that classifies people by the sex of the partners they desire not by their level of masculine or feminine traits Similarly some gay and lesbian Chinese people come home rather than come out By bringing their partners into the extended family they can maintain the filial relationships that define them while being able to love whom they choose The essays in Gay and Lesbian Asia cover a broad range of approaches and subjects globalization theory exploring the political and cultural ramifications of the Western gay identity movement Foucauldian discourse on sexuality and sharply distinct erotic cultures political and cultural analyses of gay and lesbian comradeship and filial relationships in Chinese societies research on the T and po lesbians similar to butch and femme in Malaysian bars the formation of gay cybercommunities in Asia the effects of class distinctions on Jakarta lesbians studies of local historical forms of homoeroticism and transgenderism Gay and Lesbian Asia continues Haworth's landmark series of books on gay and lesbian issues in Asia and Australia Along with Tongzhi Politics of Same Sex Eroticism in Chinese Societies Queer Asian Cinema Multicultural Queer Australian Narratives Gays and Lesbians in Asia and the Pacific and Lady Boys Tom Boys Rent Boys Male and Female Homosexualities in Contemporary Thailand this book presents some of the most original powerful current thought available on cultural political sexual and gender issues for queer subcultures within Asian cultures

The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities Amanullah De Sondy, 2013-11-07 Rigid notions of masculinity are causing crisis in the global Islamic community These are articulated from the Qur'an and its commentary historical precedents and societal religious and familial obligations Some Muslims who don't agree with narrow constructs of manliness feel forced to consider themselves secular and therefore outside the religious community In order to evaluate whether there really is only one valid ideal Islamic masculinity The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities explores key figures of the Qur'an and Indian Pakistani Islamic history and exposes the precariousness of tight constraints on Islamic manhood By examining Qur'anic arguments and the strict social responsibilities advocated along with narrow Islamic masculinities Amanullah De Sondy shows that God and women to whom Muslim men relate but are different from often act as foils for the construction of masculinity He argues the constrainers of masculinity have used God and women to think with and to dominate through and that rigid gender roles are the product of a misguided enterprise the highly personal relationship between humans and God does not lend itself to the organization of society because that relationship cannot be typified and replicated Discussions and debates surrounding Islamic masculinities are quickly finding their place in the study of Islam and Muslims and The Crisis of Islamic Masculinities makes a vital contribution to this emerging field
