Sex, Contraception, and Motherhood in Jamaica Eugene B. Brody, 1951 Sex, Contraception, and Motherhood in Jamaica Eugene B. Brody, 1981 Women in Jamaica, 1997 The first detailed bibliography of books unpublished reports theses and articles written on women in Jamaica up to 1994 There is no limitation in scope except that newspaper articles are excluded as is material published after 1994 Most of the works identified were written after 1970 as the bulk of the research on women in Jamaica really had its genesis with the declaration of International Women s Year in 1975 Prior to that research seems to have been concentrated on the twin subjects of family and fertility Certain areas are yet to be tapped and recorded but the bibliography by identifying what already exists points to areas where material is lacking Introduction Women in Jamaica is intended for the practitioner the researcher and the tertiary level student and lecturer It cites over 600 works under topical headings such as Arts and Literature Biography Education Economic Conditions and Employment Family and Fertility Health Legal Issues Politics and Social Conditions This volume includes short listings of bibliographies periodicals and audiovisual material Maternal Health in Jamaica Chris Naschak Feifer, 1990 The main causes of death in Jamaican women are largely preventable Jamaican health care for women should be improved by providing more family planning services good community based prenatal education and screening more training for health care workers better community education better health record keeping and better transportation for health care workers and women seeking health care services The Cultural Construction of Sexuality Pat Caplan, 2013-11-05 First Published in 1987 Illustrates the argument that sexuality is not a thing in itself but a concept that can only be understood with reference to economic political and social factors Perspectives in Caribbean Psychology Frederick W. Hickling, Brigitte K. Matthies, Kai Morgan, Roger C. Gibson, 2012-08-15 A comprehensive volume providing an overview of Caribbean psychology addressing culture and behaviour developmental psychology personality disorder issues of violence application of therapeutic models in the Caribbean and psychological assessment Working with Families of African Caribbean Origin Elaine Arnold, 2011-09-15 Many of those who emigrated from the Caribbean to the UK after World War II left behind partners and children causing the break up of families who were often not reunited for several years Elaine Arnold examines the psychological impact that immigration had on these families in particular with relation to attachment issues Fertility Preferences in Guyana, Jamaica, and Trinidad and Tobago, from World Fertility Survey, 1975-77 R. E. Lightbourne, 1984 Food and Culture Carole Counihan, Penny Van Esterik, 1997 This reader reveals how food habits and beliefs both present a microcosm of any culture and contribute to our understanding of human behaviour Particular attention is given to how men and women define themselves differently through food choices Urbanization In The Commonwealth Caribbean Kempe R Hope, 2019-03-20 Focusing on Barbados Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica and Guyana Professor Hope examines the determinants and socioeconomic consequences associated with urban population growth He documents demographic trends in the region examines government policies that inadvertently encourage urbanization and discusses the effects of too rapid growth on urban

Anthropology of Pregnancy Loss Rosanne Cecil, 2020-08-26 How much influence does culture have on a mother's reactions to pregnancy loss At what stage is a fetus attributed with human status How does this affect the mother's reactions to the loss of a baby Contemporary historical and oral history accounts from regions as diverse as rural North India urban America South Africa and Northern Ireland provide a fascinating insight into the experience and management of miscarriage across a number of different cultures The authors explore how the social technological and medical context in which miscarriages occur can affect the ways in which women experience such an event In the West advances in medical technology a low infant mortality rate and a low birth rate have raised expectations as to the successful outcome of each pregnancy In addition the early confirmation of pregnancy makes consequent pregnancy loss which might have gone unnoticed or unconfirmed in the past all the more difficult for mothers in the West Yet mourning rituals and behaviour at a pregnancy loss which may be elaborate in some societies are generally considered to be inappropriate in many Western societies Differing social beliefs regarding the causes of miscarriage preventative measures and curative treatments are also examined Medical anthropologists sociologists and health professionals will all find this book fascinating reading

Women's Education in the Third World David H. Kelly, Gail P. Kelly, 2017-05-18 Originally published in 1989 This detailed bibliography focuses on women's education in the developing nations of Asia Africa Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East It contains annotations for about 1200 published works in English French Spanish Portuguese and German The entries include extensive research journal monograph and book literature items including chapters hidden in books that don't have women or education as their main theme The citations are organised thematically but with geographic divisions within each of the 15 sections and each entry has a decently detailed summary It is prefaced by a useful article written by Gail Kelly on the directions in research at the time and the development of women centric approaches

Women of the World Elsa Chaney, 1984

Slipping Through the Cracks Margaret C. Simms, 2017-09-29 The problems and special needs of black women are still given inadequate attention in social science analysis Too often black women are subsumed under the category of blacks or women with little consideration for their unique needs This volume focuses on black women as a special group It includes chapters on employment educational attainment and job training programs which originated as papers given at a symposium on the economic status of black women co sponsored by the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation and The Review of Black Political Economy

Determinants of Prenatal Care Utilization in Jamaica Christine Feifer, 1992

Reproductive Rituals Angus McLaren, 2020-01-10 Originally published in 1984 Reproductive Ritual examines fertility and reproduction in pre industrial England The book discusses both through anthropological research and reviews of contemporary literature that conscious family limitation was practised before the nineteenth century The volume describes a surprising number of rules regulations taboos injunctions charms and herbal remedies used to affect pregnancy and shows the extent to which individual women and men were concerned with controlling the size of their families The fertility levels in England as in Western Europe as a whole were a very long way from the biological maximum in these centuries and the book discusses the various reasons why this was so The book reviews traditional ideas concerning the relationship between procreation and pleasure drawn from a range of contemporary sources and discusses ways in which earlier generations sought both to promote and limit fertility The book also examines abortion and shows how much evidence there is for its actual practice during the period and of traditional views towards it This book provides a detailed understanding of historical attitudes towards conception family planning in pre industrial England

Cultural Psychology of Immigrants Ramaswami Mahalingam,2013-12-19 This new volume provides an interdisciplinary perspective on how intersections of race class gender sexuality and culture shape the cultural psychology of immigrants It demonstrates the influence transnational ties and cultural practices and beliefs play on creating the immigrant self Distinguished scholars from a variety of fields examine the cultural psychological consequences of displacement among different immigrant communities Cultural Psychology of Immigrants opens with a variety of theoretical perspectives on immigration and a historical overview of sociological research on immigrants It then examines the racial discrimination of immigrants and the multifaceted influences on the creation of immigrant identities The final section documents the pivotal role of family contexts in shaping identity Each chapter illustrates the commonalities and differences among immigrants in the ways in which they make sense of their newfound selves in a displaced context Intended for advanced students and researchers in the fields of psychology social work marriage and family therapy public health anthropology sociology education and ethnic studies the book also serves as a resource in courses on cultural psychology immigrant studies minority groups race and ethnic relations self and identity culture and human development and immigrants and mental health

Jamaica Kincaid's Writings of History Antonia Purk,2023-09-18 Jamaica Kincaid s works consistently explore how colonial history affects contemporary everyday lives Throughout her novels short fiction and non fictional essays Kincaid s texts engage with history through its medial representations which are starkly determined by colonial perspectives This study examines the entanglements of temporalities in current perceptions of the past and how literary text intervenes in historical consciousness With a focus on the media text image and the human body the chapters of this book demonstrate how Kincaid s poetics of impermanence counter colonial representations of history with strategies of ambiguity repetition and redirection Kincaid s texts repeat and revise aspects of colonial history a process that decenters the totality of historical colonial ideology and replaces it with self determined versions of the past through a multiplication of perspectives and voices The Other Half of Gender Ian Bannon,Maria Correia,2006-01-01 This book is an attempt to bring the gender and development debate full circle from a much needed focus on empowering women to a more comprehensive gender framework that considers gender as a system that affects both women and men The chapters in this book explore definitions of masculinity and male identities in a variety of social contexts drawing from experiences in Latin America the Caribbean and sub Saharan Africa It draws on a slowly emerging realization that attaining the vision of gender equality will be difficult if not impossible without changing the ways in which masculinities are defined and acted upon Although changing male gender norms will be a difficult and slow process we must begin by understanding how versions of masculinities are defined and acted upon
