Long Walks And Intimate Talks:

Long Walks and Intimate Talks Grace Paley, 1991 This first collaboration of two long time feminist and antiwar activists is a wonderful melding of word and image that creates a powerful call for world peace Paley's poems and short fiction and William's vivid watercolors depict the beauty and dignity of ordinary lives from El Salvador to the Bronx from New Hampshire to Vietnam Scenes and stories of domestic life solitude and nature are interspersed with heart wrenching images of women widowed and children crippled by war and incarcerated by urban poverty Here too are stories and paintings of protest joyous and defiant

Begin Again Grace Paley, 2014-07-15 The collected poems some never previously published of one of our best loved most respected authors Combining Grace Paley's four previous collections and new unpublished work Begin Again traces the career of this direct attentive never predictable poet Whether she describes the vicissitudes and pleasures of life in New York City or the hard beauty of her adoptive rural Vermont whether she celebrates the blessings of friendship or protests against social injustice her poems brim with the compassion and tough good humor that have made her stories and essays famous

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005 In literary works by women authors ranging from Mme de Staël George Eliot and Anna Banti to contemporary writers Alice Munro and Grace Paley Deborah Heller examines how women writers over the past two centuries have represented the challenges of being both a woman and an artist Literary Sisterhoods examines the untold connections between the woman author and her subject between woman authors and among women artists the world over Heller teases out a convincing assertion of sisterhoods for a diverse range of authors and works despite the differences of the cultures and eras they represent Heller's book builds on feminist criticism and scholarship that has helped make us aware of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Literary Sisterhoods explores how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self expression Situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures Heller shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today

Pillow Talk Jason Alexander Ottley, 2010-09-03 If you are single chances are you are at a place where you are tired of settling and you are finally ready to find the man or woman of your dreams However is your approach getting you closer to your goal or are you just spinning your wheels Pillow Talk exposes methods singles employ in their attempt to secure lasting love And while the dating game is nothing new the rules of engagement have become much more complex In his book Ottley exposes the futile paradox of enlisting short term approaches to long lasting love Carefully exposing hidden thought patterns and motives of the heart Ottley dismantles the faulty premise that dating is built upon Then like a master craftsman Ottley carefully and candidly lays bare the steps towards how singles can develop a fulfilling rewarding and reciprocal relationship that is well worth the wait

Untimely Interventions Leigh Ross Chambers, 2009-12-22 As atrocity has become characteristic of modern history

testimonial writing has become a major twentieth century genre Untimely Interventions relates testimonial writing or witnessing to the cultural situation of aftermath exploring ways in which a culture can be haunted by its own history Ross Chambers argues that culture produces itself as civilized by denying the forms of collective violence and other traumatic experience that it cannot control In the context of such denial personal accounts of collective disaster can function as a form of counter denial By investigating a range of writing on AIDS the First World War and the Holocaust Chambers shows how such writing produces a rhetorical effect of haunting as it seeks to describe the reality of those experiences culture renders unspeakable Ross Chambers is Professor of Romance Languages at the University of Michigan His other books include Facing It AIDS Diaries and the Death of the Author Contemporary American Women Fiction Writers Laurie Champion, Rhonda Austin, 2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer's critical reception L DBLA bibliography of primary and secondary sources Back to the Light George Ella Lyon, 2021-04-06 Acclaimed poet George Ella Lyon returns with a brilliant new collection that traces the arc of a woman's life from girlhood to mature womanhood In answer to the first poem Little Girl Who Knows Too Much Lyon embarks on a journey from a child who was silenced to Some Big Loud Woman who claims the right to a voice Along the way she meets allies and guides including Dickinson Woolf Mary Travers Grace Paley and the giver of dreams As sailors once navigated by the stars so Lyon navigates by these luminaries They are not distant though Their light is always near Alternately witty tender shocking and visionary Back to the Light reveals the reunion of body and spirit truth and story In the process it demonstrates the power of poetry to liberate and to heal
