Longest Way Home:

The Longest Way Home Robert Silverberg, 2002 For more than a thousand years society on Homeworld has remained rigidly stratified The Great Houses rule peace between them enforced by unbreakable webs of kinship The Folk accept the benefits of the system stability prosperity and peace The Indigenes their world occupied for thousands of years by settlers from Old Earth are placid Then on one night of worldwide rebellion everything changes as the Folk turn against the ruling Houses and annihilate them Joseph scion of one Great House visiting another is one of the few survivors at House Getfen His home is ten thousand miles away The infrastructure which he has taken for granted all his life communications transport has been swept away For all he knows his family has been wiped out as thoroughly as the members of House Getfen But his only hope lies in finding his way home across ten thousand miles of a world turned suddenly strange and hostile To succeed he must set aside all his old beliefs and assumptions and learn the truth about the world he lives in Robert Silverberg's newest novel is a masterful portrayal of a society and turned upside down and a colourful and highly imaginative depiction of an alien world

The Longest Way Home Andrew McCarthy, 2013-06-04 The author a travel writer and actor delivers a memoir about how travel helped him become the man he wanted to be helping him overcome life long fears and confront his resistance to commitment From time immemorial travel has been a pursuit of passion from adventurers of old seeking gold or new lands to today's spiritual and pleasure seekers who follow in the footsteps of Elizabeth Gilbert Some see travel as a form of light hearted escapism while others believe it has the power to open your mind forcing you to confront your demons and discover your true self The author belongs to this second category of traveler His memoir follows his excursions to Patagonia the Amazon Costa Rica Baltimore Vienna Kilimanjaro Dublin and beyond He uses his wanderlust to examine his motives and desires and explore his ambivalence about commitment He ponders his personal life his acting career and his impulse to leave home all building toward one of the most significant moments of his life his wedding day His message about the transformative power of travel is universal and his exploration of the nature and passion of relationships both fleeting and enduring strikes a chord with every man and woman who has ever wondered at the vicissitudes of the human heart

How the Light Gets In Pat Schneider, 2013-04-04 When I begin to write I open myself and wait And when I turn toward an inner spiritual awareness I open myself and wait With that insight Pat Schneider invites readers to contemplate their lives and deepest questions through writing In seventeen concise thematic chapters that include meditations on topics such as fear freedom tradition in writing and in religions forgiveness joy social justice and death How the Light Gets In gracefully guides readers through the artistic and spiritual questions that life offers to everyone Praised as a fuse lighter by author Julia Cameron and the wisest teacher of writing I know by the celebrated writing guru Peter Elbow Pat Schneider has lived a life of writing and teaching passion and compassion With How the Light Gets In she delves beyond the typical how to s of writing to offer an extended rumination on two inner paths and how they can run as one Schneider s book is distinct from the many others in the popular spirituality and creative writing genre by virtue of its approach using one s lived experience including the experience of writing as a springboard for expressing the often ineffable events that define everyday life Her belief that writing about one s own life leads to greater consciousness satisfaction and wisdom energizes the book and carries the reader elegantly through difficult topics As Schneider writes All of us live in relation to mystery and becoming conscious of that relationship can be a beginning point for a spiritual practice whether we experience mystery in nature in ecstatic love in the eyes of our children our friends the animals we love or in more strange experiences of intuition synchronicity or prescience Across the sea, thoughts on life Benjamin Clarke,1872 Across the Sea. Some Thoughts on the Voyage of Life Benjamin Clarke (Editor of Kind Words.),1872 The interrupted wedding, by the author of 'Mary Powell'.
