Transformation: A Personal Journey Through the British Transformers

Comic Volume 1: 1984-1987 Stuart Webb, 2015-07-25 Starting in 1984 the British Transformers comic wasn't just a successful toy advert; it taught a generation of British schoolboys how to read through its exciting action-packed pages. With sales that vied with 2000AD, writers Simon Furman and Bob Budiansky created a generation of fan boys that have never looked back. Stuart Webb was one such reader, and in 2012 he began a journey looking through every single issue of the series, commenting on its highs and lows. He became the first person to look at every backup strip, every comedic cartoon, and each editorial, and how they worked together to create the most thorough exploration of a publishing phenomenon ever undertaken. It's also personal, full of humour and silliness, and even the occasionally thoughtful moment. The final result is an essential read for Transformers fans and those interested in the history of Marvel comics in the UK and the impact this comic had on an entire generation.

Criminology for the Police Craig Paterson, Ed Pollock, 2022-05-02 This book offers an applied approach to criminology suitable for prospective police officers. It covers the fundamentals of criminological knowledge, theory, and research and their relevance to policing. The book is split into two parts: the first introducing the basics of criminology, and the second connecting criminological research to police practice. It focuses on the principles of evidence-based practice and encourages students to think critically about the issues covered. Core content includes the following: A history of policing in England and Wales through a criminological lens; An overview of the literature on police culture, bias, and discretion; A review of the challenges of applying criminological insights to policing and the impact of the College of Policing code of ethics on police practice; An exploration of the challenges of contemporary policing, including complex crime, transnational investigation, digital and organised crime; A critical overview of evidence and public sources of evidence; An examination of the contested definitions and perspectives on Evidence-Based Policing; An introduction to criminological research, including quantitative, qualitative, and mixed methods; A review of problem solving in policing, including SARA and Atlas models. This book is essential reading for all students studying degrees in Professional Policing, as well as students of criminology engaged in criminal justice knowledge and practice.

Direct Response to the Commission on Race and Ethnic Disparities Report. David Gomas, 2021-04-08 The biggest Mystery: But how come in the 21st century a government or authority or even institutions can be regarded as practising structural or institutional racism, with all these rights groups and laws? People are saying there is no racism, while some are adamant that racism exists because the byproducts are exactly those that result from structural or institutional racist structures. So is there something that exists that people can't pinpoint, but what is causing all this? This is the billion-dollar question: What are we missing? Is there something else that is going on that is creating the same effects that people, especially young generations born here, are complaining about? OK, first what is similar to racism, or what can yield the same effects as racism?

FORENSICS III Harry A. Milman PhD, 2024-04-21 In Forensics III: They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died, I reviewed twenty-eight ordinary people who were thrust into the spotlight gaining fame not for their talents or accomplishments while living but for the way they died Newspaper and magazine articles ensured that stories of the circumstances surrounding their deaths remained in the public eye so that as Andy Warhol had predicted their fame would last at least fifteen minutes In some cases it lasted much longer While these individuals may have been ordinary before they died they became extraordinary after death Some of the people I reviewed in Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died include the Boy in the Box later identified as Joseph Zarelli who died from blunt force trauma Azaria Chamberlain a nine week old infant who was killed by a dingo at Ayers Rock in Australia George Floyd whose death resulted from police brutality Ron Goldman and Nicole Brown Simpson who were stabbed to death Elisa Lam who drowned in a water tank on the roof of her hotel Michael Faherty whose death in Ireland was attributed to spontaneous human combustion Katherine Morris who died from carbon monoxide poisoning due to charcoal grilling in an automobile Carlos Sousa who was mauled to death by a tiger Sahel Kazemi and Steve McNair who committed murder suicide and Jayne and Corinne Peters whose death was due to filicide suicide among many others Forensics III They Got Fifteen Minutes of Fame from the Way They Died reads like a mystery novel presenting biographical and scientific information that helps readers understand how medical examiners and coroners utilized forensic analysis to determine the causes and manners of death of twenty eight not so famous people Dental Brief Thomas
