Looking for a City in America André Corboz,1992 European historian Corboz takes the previous European analyses of the American city to task centering his critical eye on the terrain of postmodern Los Angeles Metropolitan Landscapes Antonella Contin, 2021-08-24 This edited volume covers many aspects of the Metropolitan Landscapes Solutions are needed to meet the demand of the citizens of a renewed metropolitan region landscape It opens up discussions about possible toolkits for strategic actions based on understanding the territory from geographical urban architectural economic environmental and public policy perspectives This book intends to promote the Metropolitan dwelling quality ensuring human well being proposing a discussion on the resilient articulation of the interface space among the city's infrastructure agriculture and nature This book results from the Symposium Metropolitan Landscapes that MSLab of the Politecnico di Milano and ETSA Sevilla organized at the IALE 2019 Conference Milan July 2019 to manage radical territory transformation with a strategic vision The widespread growth of urban areas indicates the importance of building resilient sustainable cities capable of minimizing climate change impact production The Symposium aimed to discuss the Urban Metabolism approach considering the combination of Landscapes set in a single Metropolitan Ecosystem Accordingly new design strategies of transformation replacement or maintenance can compose Urban Rural Linkage patterns and a decalage of different landscape contexts Ecological interest in environmental sustainability compatibility and resilience is not tied exclusively to the balance between production and energy consumption Thus it is the integration over time and at several scales of the urban and rural landscapes and their inhabitants that nourish the Metropolitan Bioregion Moreover the Metropolitan Landscape Book s research hypothesis is the need for a Glossary strengthening the basis of understanding Metropolitan Landscape s complexity This book s topic is particularly relevant to Landscape Urbanism Architecture Urban disciplines Scholars Students and Practitioners who want to be connected in a significant way with Metropolitan Discipline's research field Down These Mean Streets a Man Must Go Philip Durham, 1963 Tells how Raymond Chandler developed the figure of the hard boiled detective Philip Marlowe from the material and concerns of his own life The Walker Matthew Beaumont, 2020-11-10 From Charles Dickens London to today s megacities a fascinating exploration of what urban walking tells us about modern life for fans of Rebecca Solnit Olivia Laing s The Lonely City and literary history A labyrinthine journey into the literature of walking and thinking as seen in the lives and works of Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Ray Bradbury and other literary greats Guardian There is no such thing as a false step Every time we walk we are going somewhere Especially if we are going nowhere Moving around the modern city is not a way of getting from A to B but of understanding who and where we are In a series of riveting intellectual rambles Matthew Beaumont retraces episodes in the history of the walker since the mid 19th century From Dickens s insomniac night rambles to restless excursions through the faceless monuments of today's neoliberal city the act of walking is one of self discovery and self escape of disappearances and secret subversions

Pacing stride for stride alongside literary amblers and thinkers such as Edgar Allan Poe Andr Breton H G Wells Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and Ray Bradbury Beaumont explores the relationship between the metropolis and its pedestrian life Through these writings Beaumont asks Can you get lost in a crowd What are the consequences of using your smartphone in the street What differentiates the nocturnal metropolis from the city of daylight What connects walking philosophy and the big toe And can we save the city or ourselves by taking to the pavement The Cinematic City David Clarke, 2005-08-19 The Cinematic City offers an innovative and thought provoking insight into cityscape and screenscape and their inter connection Illustrated throughout with movie stills a diverse selection of films from Bladerunner to Little Caesar genres cities and historical periods are examined by leading names in the field The key dimensions of film and urban theory are introduced before detailed analysis of the various cinematic forms which relate most significantly to the city From early cinema and documentary film to film noir New Wave and postmodern cinema the contributors provide a wealth of empirical material and illustration whilst drawing on the theoretical insights of contemporary feminism Benjamin Baudrillard Foucault Lacan and others The Cinematic City shows how the city has been undeniably shaped by the cinematic form and how cinema owes much of its nature to the historical development of urban space Engaging with current theoretical debates this is a book that is set to change the way in which we think about both the nature of the city and film Contributors Giuliana Bruno Iain Chambers Marcus Doel David Clarke Anthony Easthope Elisabeth Mahoney Will Straw Stephen Ward John Gold James Hay Rob Lapsley Writing Urbanism Douglas Kelbaugh, Kit McCullough, 2008-05-17 Urban design continues to grow as an Frank Krutnik increasingly important and expanding field of study research and professional endeavour Distinguished by its broad scope and comprehensiveness on the subject of urban design this new collection combines selected essays from both practitioners and academia Writing Urbanism is the ideal volume for both students architects and urban designers The Revisions of Englishness David Rogers, John McLeod, 2004 Diverse and often competing notions of Englishness have been critiqued by a variety of writers and critics who have become concerned about received visions of Englishness in the post war period An exciting and provocative collection of essays which registers the changes to Englishness since the 1950s this book explores how Englishness has been revised for a variety of aesthetic and political purposes and makes a ground breaking contribution to the contemporary debates in literary and cultural studies Photography 4.0: A Teaching Guide for the 21st Century Michelle Bogre, 2014-08-11 An invaluable resource for photography educators this volume is a survey of photographic education in the first decade of the 21st Century Drawing upon her 25 years of teaching experience and her professional network Michelle Bogre spoke with 47 photo educators from all over the world to compile this diverse set of interviews The themes of these conversations explore Why students should study photography The value of a formal photography degree Teaching philosophies Whether video and multimedia should be an essential part of a photographic curricula The challenges of teaching photography today Changes in photographic education overall The second half of the book shares 70 photography assignments of varying level of difficulty from these educators some paired with examples of how students completed them This book will inspire and invigorate any photography educator's curriculum Italians Peter E.
