From a childhood fort that opens into another realm to the edge of the universe itself, Zoe and Tod journey across ten interconnected tales through life, death, and the mystery beyond. In the beginning, they walk hand in hand through landscapes of wonder and grief, healing and discovery, subterranean worlds, runaway roads, caves outside of time. Their love deepens across continents and crises, drawing them toward a luminous afterlife. But what follows is more than peace; it is a call to witness, participate, and choose. Awakening at the edge of the cosmos, they traverse the birth of galaxies, the emergence of life, and the stirring of spirit in matter. At the threshold of all creation, they must help decide what kind of world shall continue. Down Below to a New World is an epic blending fantasy and cosmology, memory and myth. At once intimate and immense, it offers a sweeping meditation on love's endurance, time's mysteries, and the courage it takes to become the origin of something new.

For ten years, everything has been slowly falling apart; people continue to disappear, and no one seems to know where until they begin to reappear as the terrifying Baptised. Zoe needs to get away; it's something she is good at, but to outrun the tide of impending catastrophe will take every bit of her creativity, imagination, and callous disregard for those she cares about. From Milton Keynes to the devastated city of London, Zoe runs while the creatures of the plague relentlessly pursue her. Can she uncover the secret of the Newly Born? And what will she do when she finally has nowhere left to go? It looks like her future may no longer be in her hands, but can the ragtag group of acquaintances she has loved and lost save her from death or a hideous transformation?
