Fires Within Ray Thompson, 2010-09-14 Fires Within seeks to explore contemporary life issues especially the often conflicting inner fires of sexuality and spirituality conflicting not just with each other but also with traditional religious and social attitudes and myths The novel begins where it ends but then goes back to earlier years to trace the circumstances and rapidly changing community attitudes that have combined to bring the individuals in this story to this point in their lives Peter is the central character a minister pastor who struggles with these issues within the conservative and often defensive ethos of the traditional Australian church and particularly in relation to unresolved grief in his own life Len is a doctor facing similar issues within secular society Jay is a Chinese woman who has to work through these same conflicts firstly growing up as the daughter of a missionary doctor in what then became Communist China and later as a reluctant masseuse sex worker in Australia Rather than trying to provide simplistic or moralistic answers to these inner conflicts these characters individually and later through their interaction with one another grapple with their search for personal integrity This frequently means having to stand out against peer group opinion and challenge some of the traditions and myths that often limit their enjoyment of the fullness of life While all characters in the novel are fictitious the unfolding events deliberately reflect the kind of situations and raw emotions that are common in many people's lives In a real world that is far from perfect the choices that they have to make are not simply between good and bad but reflect the multifaceted dilemmas that often confront real people The author attempts to deal with these issues in a non judgemental way hopefully opening the door for readers grappling with similar issues to explore new possibilities in their own lives

The Origins of Australia's Capital Cities Pamela Statham, 1989 The Origins of Australia's Capital Cities is a comprehensive survey well illustrated with maps and plans which aims to answer two questions First why Australia's eight capital cities are situated where they are and second how they were established Pairs of chapters on each of the State capitals Sydney Hobart Perth Adelaide Melbourne and Brisbane are accompanied by studies of Canberra as the federal capital and Darwin as a territorial capital A capital is the administrative centre of a political entity and in Australia unlike many overseas countries a uniquely high proportion of the population resides in the capitals Companion chapters examine the causes of initial European settlement in each area and reasons for the actual establishment of each capital city Attention is given to such topics as planning and layout the basis of growth potential rivals the social nature of the cities and the nature of their spread While there have been no other volume covering all the capitals to seek answers to the same basic questions This will therefore be an invaluable source book and provide a stimulus to further enquiry in the social history of Australia An introduction by the editor pulls together the general strands which link the chapters and highlights the ways in which the Australian experience contrasts with the urban experience overseas
