Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end. By focusing on the short story, this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies. Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature: the aesthetics of engaged writing, the politics of the past, class and race, the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land. Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer, Ivan Vladislavi, Zo Wicomb, Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes, this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought.

Get a Life Nadine Gordimer, 2007-05-15. A young man's treatment for cancer inspires profound changes in his family. Paul Bannerman, an ecologist in South Africa, believes he understands the trajectory of his life with the usual markers of vocation and marriage. But when he's diagnosed with thyroid cancer and after surgery prescribed treatment that will leave him radioactive for a period, a danger to others, he begins to question as Auden wrote what Authority gives existence its surprise. In the garden of his childhood home where his businessman father, Adrian, and prominent civil rights lawyer mother, Lyndsay, take him in to protect his wife and child from radiation, he enters an unthinkable existence and another kind of illumination: the contradiction between the values of his work and those of his wife, Benni, an ad agency executive. His mother is transformed by the strange state of her son's existence to face her own past. Meanwhile, projects to build a nuclear reactor and drain vital wetlands preoccupy Paul as if he were at work. By the time he is cured, both families have been changed. On his return to his home and career, his parents go to Mexico to fulfill the archaeological vocation Adrian sacrificed to support his family. The consequence of this trip is the final surprise in this extraordinary exploration of passionate individual existences. This novel begins superbly and ends wonderfully and in between there are passages of high intelligence not without Gordimer's signature asperity. Ward Just. The Washington Post Book World.
