Los Angeles Place Of Possibilities:

Los Angeles, Place of Possibilities Lynn C. Kronzek, 1998-01-01 Cosmopolitanism and Place E.

Johansen, 2014-05-01 Cosmopolitanism and Place considers the way contemporary Anglophone fiction connects global identities with the experience in local places Looking at fiction set in metropolises regional cities and rural communities this book argues that the everyday experience of these places produces forms of wide connections that emphasize social justice

California Resources and Possibilities California Development Board, 1910 Race and Urban Space in American

Culture Liam Kennedy, 2013-04-11 This innovative study looks at the formation of ethnic and racial identities in relation to the development of urban culture The concept of urban space provides the means of organization for comprehensive illustrations of a series of themes including white paranoia and urban decline imagined urban communities urban crime and justice the racialized underclass globalization and new ethnicities Race and Urban Space in American Culture focuses on a wide range of contemporary film and literature including works by African American Irish American Hispanic Puerto Rican and Iranian American authors and examines the ways in which representations of urban space define issues of rights community and citizenship

Race and Urban Space in Contemporary American Culture Liam Kennedy, 2000 First

Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Western Machinery and Steel World ..., 1923 Literatures of Urban Possibility Markku Salmela, Lieven Ameer, Jason Finch, 2021-05-21 This book demonstrates how city literature addresses questions of possibility In city literature ideas of possibility emerge primarily through two perspectives texts may focus on what is possible for cities and they may present the urban environment as a site of possibility for individuals or communities The volume combines reflections on urban possibility from a range of geographical and cultural contexts in addition to the English speaking world individual chapters analyse possible cities and possible urban lives in Turkey Israel Finland Germany Russia and Sweden Moreover by engaging with issues such as city planning mass housing gentrification informal settlements and translocal identities the book shows imaginative literature at work outlining what possibility means in cities Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of

1954 United States. Internal Revenue Service, 1997 Putting the Local in Global Education Neal W. Sobania, 2023-07-03

The position taken in this volume is that domestic off campus study can be just as powerful a transformative learning experience as study overseas and that domestic programs can equally expand students horizons their knowledge of global issues and processes their familiarity and experience with cultural diversity their intercultural skills and sense of citizenship This book presents both the rationale for and examples of study away an inclusive concept that embraces study abroad while advocating for a wide variety of domestic study programs including community based education programs that employ academic service learning and internships With the growing diversification regionally demographically culturally and socio economically of developed economies such as the US the local is potentially a doorstep to the planet and presents opportunities for global learning Moreover study away programs can address many of the problematic issues associated with study abroad such as access finance participation health and safety and faculty support Between lower costs the potential to increase the participation of student cohorts typically under represented in study abroad the lowering of language barriers and the engagement of faculty whose disciplines focus on domestic issues study at home can greatly expand the reach of global learning The book is organized in five sections the first providing a framework and the rationale for domestic study way programs addressing administrative support for domestic vs study abroad programs exploring program goals organization structure assessment and continuous improvement and considering the distinct pedagogies of experiential and transformative education The second section focuses on Semester Long Faculty Led Programs featuring examples of programs located in a wide variety of locations from investigations into history immigration culture and the environment through localities in the West and the Lowcountry to exploring globalization in L A and New York Section three highlights five Short Term Faculty Led Programs While each includes an intensive immersive study away experience two illustrate how a 7 10 day study away experience can be effectively embedded into a regular course taught on campus The fourth section on Consortium Programs describes programs that are either sponsored by a college that makes its program available to consortium members and non members or is offered by an independent non for profit to which institutions send their students The final section on Community Engagement and Domestic Study Away addresses the place of community based education in global learning and provides examples of academic programs that employ service learning as a tool for collaborative learning focusing on issues of pedagogy faculty development and the building long term reciprocal relationship with community partners to co create knowledge The book is intended for study abroad professionals multicultural educators student affairs professionals alternative spring break directors and higher education administrators concerned about affordably expanding global education opportunities
