Runner's World Essential Guides: Barefoot Running and Minimalism Scott Douglas, Editors of Runner's World Maga, 2011-10-20 The basic rationale for running barefoot or in minimalist models goes something like this Humans evolved to cover long distances by foot By introducing a thick layer of cushioning and an elevated heel between the foot and the ground modern running shoes alter natural running form But modern running shoes alter form in ways that lead to injury Therefore getting back to a more natural running gait by running in little to no shoe will lead to improved form which should lower injury rates A key reason to run barefoot or in minimalist shoes is to allow your feet to work more naturally free from the confines and controls of overly engineered running shoes Unfortunately too many runners eager to run more naturally have gone too far too fast from one extreme to the other The realities of modern life have weakened our feet ankles and lower legs and our bodies have adapted to the shoes we have worn for most of our lives if we suddenly start running in little to no shoe our bodies are not prepared for the new stresses Runner s World Essential Guides Barefoot Running and Minimalism provides historical context thoughts advice and tips on making a healthy transition The foremost authorities on running on the planet show you how to ease into a transition from conventional running shoes to barefoot running or minimalist shoes starting with some simple at home tests to see if your feet already have the strength they need to handle little to no shoe You ll learn a step by step process for safely moving away from doing all your running in big bulky shoes including guidelines on how to introduce barefoot running into your regimen Whether you want to learn more about the barefoot craze that s swept the nation or you want to introduce barefoot running into your training plan this indispensable guide contains everything you need to get started

The 1929 Bunion Derby Charles B. Kastner, 2014-03-31 On March 31 1929 seventy seven men began an epic 3 554 mile footrace across America that pushed their bodies to the breaking point Nicknamed the Bunion Derby by the press this was the second and last of two trans America footraces held in the late 1920s The men averaged forty six gut busting miles a day during seventy eight days of nonstop racing that took them from New York City to Los Angeles Among this group two brilliant runners Johnny Salo of Passaic New Jersey and Pete Gavuzzi of England emerged to battle for the 25 000 first prize along the mostly unpaved roads of 1929 America with each man pushing the other to go faster as the lead switched back and forth between them To pay the prize money race director Charley Pyle cobbled together a traveling vaudeville company complete with dancing debutantes an all girl band wearing pilot outfits and blackface comedians all housed under the massive show tent that Pyle hoped would pack in audiences Kastner s engrossing account often told from the perspective of the participants evokes the remarkable physical challenge the runners experienced and clearly bolsters the argument that the last Bunion Derby was the greatest long distance footrace of all time
