The Lost Key of the Buddha Joseph J. Dewey, 2003 For thousands of years it has been assumed that the core teaching of the Buddha the Middle Way has been understood But has it In this book an Immortal who was the beloved disciple of Siddhartha reveals otherwise that there is a lost key to restore the teaching of the master The Lost Key Ebrahim Soufiani, 2012 Dr Soufiani founder and director of a civil engineering firm in London is a London University PhD qualified and practising civil and environment engineer He was researcher at University of London research assistant at University of East London and lecturer at Iran University of Science Technology Soufiani s passion about Persian literature has steered him to over ten years of extensive research with a great Persian philosopher Manuchehr Jamali Jamali has managed to open up many incredible doors to him in comprehending Persian literature to its true meaning of values love unity and dignity Soufiani s understanding of Eastern and Western cultures has given him a great leverage in his exploration of Persian literature in comparison with Western civilization and the lack of democracy in the Middle East With this book he highlights Persian literature as an invaluable asset and the lost key in opening the lock of the declining morality in our modern world and the absence of democracy in the Middle East The world must sincerely assist in exploration of this nation s literature for the sake of morality The Middle East must explore and use her own invaluable potential rich literature to rise and fly from her own ashes to establish the ethical society that will give them the tools for building and establishing the foundation of a democratic system Many Persian poems have been translated throughout this book to highlight the core values of beautiful Persian romantic and humanistic culture

The Lost Keys Of Freemasonry (The Sacred Books) Manly P. Hall, 2012 Freemasonry though not a religion is essentially religious Most of its legends and allegories are of a sacred nature much of it is woven into the structure of Christianity We have learned to consider our own religion as the only inspired one and this probably accounts for much of the misunderstanding in the world today concerning the place occupied by Freemasonry in the spiritual ethics of our race A religion is a divinely inspired code of morals A religious person is one inspired to nobler living by this code He is identified by the code which is his source of illumination Thus we may say that a

Christian is one who receives his spiritual ideals of right and wrong from the message of the Christ while a Buddhist is one who molds his life into the archetype of morality given by the great Gautama or one of the other Buddhas All doctrines which seek to unfold and preserve that invisible spark in man named Spirit are said to be spiritual Those which ignore this invisible element and concentrate entirely upon the visible are said to be material There is in religion a wonderful point of balance where the materialist and spiritist meet on the plane of logic and reason
