critics art historians and educationalists which collectively place Porter s works in their contexts shed light on his artistic vision and interpret his texts from a range of critical perspectives The volume s 12 chapters combine readings of the literary formal intertextual and experimental aspects of Porter s works with discussions of their relation to social political and ethical questions whilst placing them in dialogue with highly topical critical and cultural debates such as Englishness in the aftermath of Brexit ecocriticism affectivity and posthumanism      Book Review Digest ,1999
